A. Warren Gould of Mount Angel, who is at the Multnomah, has made a discovery which he thinks will lead to more economy and rubber saving in the manufacture of tires. He has been through the east showing tufts or lava rock to tire manufacturers. This rock is found in great quantities near Mount Angel. By grinding it into fine particles it can be mixed with rubber. "It will mean a great industry for Oregon," declared Mr. Gould yesterday. "Tire manufacturers are optimistic and believe that the discovery will be of great value to them."—Oregonian.

Dr. Mark Hayter of Dallas is one of the pioneer dentists of Polk county. Now he is as well known as a prune grower as he has been as a dentist. A number of years ago Dr. Hayter purchased a small tract of land near Polk station and set it in prunes. The public, through education, became convinced that a "prune a day keeps the undertaker away" and the prune industry flourished. Dr. Hayter extended his holdings, planting more trees, and is now one of the leading growers of the state. He still practices dentistry, but is not neglectful of the prunes. With Mrs. Hayter he is at the Imperial hotel.—Oregonian

Statistics For High Schools Favor Salem

With the exception of Portland, Salem has twice as many students in high school than any other city in the state, according to statistics compiled by G. A. Briscoe of Ashland. Salem has an enrollment in the four highest grades of 827; Astoria, 389; Corvallis, 350; Albany, 332; La Grande, 300; Ashland, 275; McMinnville, 248; Roseburg, 248; Oregon City, 240. Salem also ranks first in the number of teachers, having 126, with Astoria second, having 97. The Ashland teachers having the largest classes with an average number of 31, while Salem has an average of 26.

Twenty-eight per cent of the students attending the Salem schools do not live in the Salem district; in Tillamook 63 per cent are non-resident; and in Oregon City 60 per cent.

In comparing the expenditures of the city taxes it will be noted that Newberg spend 73 per cent for schools, McMinnville, 70 per cent and Silverton 68 per cent, while the balance goes to city government. Salem schools and city government ratio is 45 per cent for schools and 55 per cent for city government.

Five Additional Second Lieutenants for Guard Regiment

Authority for the appointment of five new second lieutenants for the Oregon national guard was received this morning by Adjutant General George A. White from the secretary of war.

The order authorizes the new officers to be appointed, one each for every battalion headquarters company and one for the regimental headquarters company. One new officer will therefore be appointed by company commanders of the units in Gresham, Woodburn and Eugene, with two in Portland.

The regiment has been short of officers for some time and the authority for more appointments will relieve former officers from many arduous tasks.

Autos Collide Near Monmouth; Girl Badly Cut

Monmouth, Or., Jan. 30.—(Special.)—An auto driven by Ben Beckan of Independence was badly damaged when it ran into another car standing at one side of the road a short distance east of this city Friday night at about 10 o'clock. Beckan failed to see the stationary car in the road, it is held, on account of the dimness of its rear light.

Miss Geneva Hoimes of Corvallis was thrown into the windshield and severely cut about the face. Beckan and the other two occupants of the car were not injured. None of them was thrown from the auto.

German Proposal Referred Back to Allied Governments

Are You Thin and Run Down?

A Nutritional Expert at One of Our Leading Medical Colleges Tells How to Overcome Such Conditions

This is the first time in history that a nutritive food tonic, backed by full approval of world-recognized scientific authority, has been offered to the public. It is called SUSTO.

After exhaustive tests with SUSTO extending over many months by a Nutritional Expert at one of our leading Medical Colleges, he says that he proved SUSTO to be valuable for weak, rundown conditions, anemia, lack of strength, loss of weight, and especially valuable during convalescence; and infants, children and grown persons quickly put on weight by its use.

This means that any person may step into our drug store, ask for SUSTO, and for a small sum secure a tonic food that bears the stamp of approval of a great nutritional expert, to promote strength, health and energy.

By the use of SUSTO you will steadily gain in health and strength, eat better, sleep better, and enjoy the vitality which comes from a properly-nourished body.
