Governor Small and Banker To Get Separate Trials

Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 1.—(By Associated Press.)—Circuit Judge Edwards has granted a motion for separate trials of Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, Grant Park banker, charged with embezzlement of state funds.

The court overruled the motion filed by the governor and granted a similar motion filed in behalf of Mr. Curtis, the decision having the effect of putting the governor on trial first.

Judge Edwards called for the governor's plea and Charles C. Leforgee, speaking for Mr. Small, pleaded "not guilty."

The state agreed to accept a plea by counsel for Mr. Curtis, and Mr. Leforgee entered the same plea. Mr. Curtis is confined in his home by quarantine.
