WOMEN PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN TURF RACING

The turf season, now well under way in Southern cities, has introduced many women as owners of high-bred horses. Since the early 80s, when the famous "Jersey Lily" Langtry owned, raced and bred a string of thoroughbreds, there has always been a number of the gentler sex directly interested in the "Sport of Kings." Among the prominent New York women who are active at the various tracks are: Mrs. Payne Whitney, Mrs. E. B. Cassatt, Mrs. George W. Loft and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry. Mrs. C. C. Rumsey halls from Idaho. The Story Telling section of the Salem Arts league will meet at the public library this evening at eight o'clock. Mrs. Minnie Bates, Miss Adona Cochrane and Otto Paulus have the program in charge. O. A. LaCourse, Salem man, who had both legs amputated recently following an accident in which he was run over by a freight train at Albany, is feeling less pain but physicians now fear that pneumonia may set in, according to word received here. LaCourse, who is an ex-service man, formerly was employed as a clerk in the World War veterans' state aid commission here. He was on his way to Marshfield when the accident occurred. Beavers are causing much inconvenience in Hood River county. A few nights ago the upper valley was in darkness caused by the beavers felling a tree 18 inches in diameter across the power line of the Pacific Power & Light company. Books, however damaged, can be repaired and missing pages replaced by special treatment, which is, however, very costly. Forty-two babies in forty-four years, the record of a woman who died near Rugby, England, in 1726, is said to be still unbeaten. Summer holidays at different times for the London elementary schools are again suggested as a means of relieving the traffic congestion. Sawdust sprinkled on the front walk when it is slippery is not nearly as detrimental to the parlor rug as the customary ashes or salt. Few Turks have more than one wife, although the law allows them to have four.
