

RIOT GUNS TURNED ON STRIKERS

One Man Killed and Two Wounded When Police Fire On Pawtucket Mob

Pawtucket, R. I., Feb. 21.—One man was killed, two were seriously wounded and six persons were hurt when the police used riot guns today on a crowd of 1000 persons who gathered at the plant of the Jencks Spinning company, where a strike is in progress. The guns were brought in to play when several patrolmen had been knocked down after the arrest of three strike sympathizers.

Mayor Robert Akenyon witnessed the shooting. He had arrived at the gates of the plant early in the morning to observe the crowd that has customarily gathered to watch working operatives enter the mill.

Mayor Warns Crowd.

Meanwhile women were pulling and mauling at the girls who were attempting to enter the mill, and several were knocked down. The police put their shoulders to the crowd and were met with fist and club blows. Three patrolmen were knocked down and the arrests followed.

A passing furniture van was commandeered as a patrol wagon, but when the patrolman attempted to hustle their prisoners aboard, they were stopped by a bombardment of stones. Then the riot guns swept the crowd. Eight persons fell, all but two of whom got up and ran away. The crowd dispersed.

Troops Mobilized.

The Eighth coast artillery company which was mobilized in the state armory last night, left the armory at 6 a. m. today. Its destination was not made public.

The Jencks company has been operating its mills with small forces. A disturbance there yesterday was marked by a police attack on a crowd which had assaulted four young women operatives.

Fifth Suit To Regain Title To Land Is Filed

Another suit to regain title to swamp land in Lake county—the fifth in two days—was filed by the state today, according to Attorney General Van Winkle. This suit is directed against Ewink K. Henderson of Silver Lake and seeks to recover to the state, title to 2336.33 acres of land in Paulina marsh adjoining holdings of the Chewaucan Land & Cattle company who are made defendants in three of the suits filed by the state Saturday.

The land involved in this latest suit is estimated to be worth between $200,000 and $250,000 increasing the value of lands which the state is now seeking to regain to well above the $4,000,000 mark.

As in the other suits the one against Henderson is brought on the ground that the deed issued to Henderson on March 2, 1895, is illegal in that the state board of land commissioners exceeded its authority under the act of 1873 which limited sales of state lands to one person to 320 acres.

Active Drive For Funds For Home Planned

Mrs. Mary B. Powers announces that an active campaign will begin at once in Salem in the interest of the children's farm home, to be established near Corvallis by the Oregon W. C. T. U. The local union in Salem has just sent in a check for $100 for the farm home.

Although under the direct care of the W. C. T. U., the farm home is a separate corporation and is receiving support from citizens all over the state. Many individuals and organizations are purchasing one or more acres for the farm, at $200 an acre. The Ashland W. C. T. U., one of the early contributors, bought five acres and was given the honor of making the first payment on the farm.

The enthusiasm with which organizations are entering into this work is shown by a check for one acre, sent in last week from Evergreen station in Clackamas county. This district is now raising funds for a second acre. Yamhill county recently sent in a check for $1400 to pay for seven acres.

Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, campaign director for the state, has been organizing the work in various counties. She organized Washington county last week at a mass meeting in Hillsboro and soon will visit Coos and Curry counties, where she will assist Senator Charles Hall, candidate for governor, who is chairman in those two counties.

City Hall Not To Be Done Over

(Continued from page one) meeting was one of the most interesting held this year. The ordinance providing that the proposal to buy a new triple-combination truck for the fire department be placed before the people on the ballots at the May primaries was passed at its third franchising last night, the special franchising committee was granted additional time in which to report on the Highland stage line problem and four Salem merchants were granted licenses to sell soft drinks.

Due to the fact that the city attorney was unable to prepare by last night the ordinance which would place before the people at the May election the proposal that the chief of police be appointed by the mayor, the aldermen were unable to pass upon the bill at last evening's session.

Lewis Asks For Conference On New Wage Scale

Chicago, Feb. 21.—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America today asked coal operators of the central competitive field comprising the states of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, to meet with union officials at Cleveland on March 2 for a wage conference which he said might avert the impending strike.

Similar requests have been rejected by some operators who said that they wished to discontinue collective bargaining with the miners.

Appointive Plan Favored.

"I am sorry that the bill could not have been introduced to-night," Dr. F. L. Utter, chairman of the ordinance committee, said. "I believe that the appointive plan is a good one and that through it we would have more efficiency and better cooperation." The ordinance in question will be placed before the council at its next meeting, he said.

After considerable controversy during which Alderman Vandevort charged discrimination, the council voted to deny to the Bond stage line, operating between Salem and Independence, a franchise. The aldermen acted on the report of the special franchise committee which had explained that the Bond stage line, unlike one of its competitors, had not operated on schedule and in other ways had indicated that it was not entitled to the privileges sought.

An indictment, charging the council with being "cheap," was returned by Alderman Vandevort after the aldermen had refused to reimburse William Sheridan, of this city, who sought to recover $7.50 expended by him after the radiator of his automobile, held by the police as bail, had been allowed to freeze.

"Sheridan paid his fine of $20 and I don't believe he should be forced to pay the $7.50," Mr. Vandevort contended. "It is true that we are probably not legally liable, but we are, morally."

Mr. Vandevort's motion that Sheridan be recompensed lost by a six-to-five vote. "You're pretty cheap," shouted Mr. Vandevort.

Alderman A. F. Marcus drew a laugh during an exchange of words that followed.

"I want to ask Alderman Vandevort a question," he said. "Ask it," Mr. Vandevort encouraged.

"Does this man belong to the Methodist church?"

Vandevort's retort could not be heard.

A motion that City Attorney Ray Smith be instructed to bring before the council at its next meeting a written opinion concerning the legality of abolishing the office of police matron, was adopted last night, and Alderman Utter announced that, in the future, the council will be asked to act on the proposal to cut salaries of city officials 10 per cent.

Damages Sought.

Twenty-nine dollars damages is sought by George F. Litchfield, of this city, whose wagon was struck and damaged recently by the Salem police car. His communication, received by the council last night, was referred to the city attorney.

City Recorder Race was last night instructed to draw the warrants for the city payroll and was also notified to send, in behalf of the council, a bouquet to Mayor George E. Halvorsen, who is confined in the Salem hospital.
