

GERMANY SELECTS ITS ENVOY

Wiedfeldt Is Named to Post of Ambassador to America; Post Vacant Since 1917

Berlin, Mar. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—Dr. Otto Ludwig Wiedfeldt will fill the post which has been vacant since February, 1917, when Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff left Washington, prior to the declaration of war between the United States and Germany. Since the resumption of normal relations between the two countries, the question of naming a new ambassador has been one of the knottiest problems confronting the German government. In addition to diplomatic experience it was necessary that the incumbent be wealthy, as the exceedingly low value of the German mark will place him at a financial disadvantage in the American capital.

Berlin dispatches to the Associated Press for the last few days have forecast the appointment of Dr. Wiedfeldt, who is 59 years old and one of the foremost German industrialists and economists. He is reported to have been released from his position at the head of the directorate of the great Krupp works so that he might accept the post.

Dr. Wiedfeldt is reported to be one of the wealthiest Germans of the present day. He is an experienced diplomatist, having for years occupied important positions in the German home office. He also spent about three years in connection with the organization of its railroad system.

Carrier Boys Are Journal's Dinner Guests

Thirty carriers of The Capital Journal, together with representatives of other departments of the paper were guests of The Journal Saturday evening at a banquet honoring the carrier boys and in appreciation of their conscientious work, at the Marion hotel.

Those present at the banquet were Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Emma Hewlett, Alden Kelly, W. A. Scott, Harry N. Crain and the following carrier boys:

Clifford Bollier, Floyd Satterlee, Bryson Clutter, Paul Johnson, Carl Beatty, Jerome Hanson, Robert Ashley, Hubert Ashley, Joe Beatty, Harvey Brock, Dwight Mulkey, Joe Billinger, Carl Ramsdayer, Eileen Sanders, Charlie Nunn, Raymond Nash, Kenneth Morgall, Udel Sanders, Martin Muelhaupt, Willie Avey, Kenneth Plank, Louis Updegraff, Ronald Haines, Joe Nunn, Selmer Larson, Otto Klean, Lloyd Satterless, Donald Edmondson, Harold Arnold, John Eaton.

Our writer points out that America now has most of the gold and most of the humor in the world. That is fortunate. There should always be the one to counteract the other.

Baptism of Dog Causes Preacher To Be Ousted

Buster, owned by Mrs. Melbourne Porter, of Brookline, Mass., probably is the only dog ever "baptized," in accordance with the rites of the Presbyterian church. The baptism, said by Mrs. Porter to have been performed by Rev. Edwin Curtis, resulted in the expulsion of Dr. Curtis as pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Brookline.

What's New on the Market

The season has closed on clams along the northern coast, but the local supply, due to a recent shipment, will last for some time to come. The price of hard shell clams is eight cents a pound; butter clams, 30 cents. The season will open again about September.

Following the recent advance in butter, butterfat took a jump this morning to 38 cents, an advance of three cents. This increase might be a forerunner of a rise in butter prices in the near future.

The California head lettuce, selling at 10 cents a bunch and two for a quarter, according to size, is rather small, but fairly solid. It is not to be preferred to the local leaf lettuce which is very nice and selling for 15 cents a bunch.

Some good California bunch carrots are offered at two bunches for 25 cents. The supply is limited.

A distinct Chinese influence pervades the new spring styles in coats for women. This influence is displaying itself in wrap effects and in unique embroidery usages. Because of the definiteness of trend the spring styles, the new over wraps fall into three separate groups. These are—the sport coat for practical wear; the so-called street model coat which is less severe in cut and the cape which promises to ascend in favor as the season advances.
