Pageant Is Presented By Lodge

The Rebekah lodge of Salem observed its twenty seventh anniversary on Monday night at the 1544 Fellows hall when a wedding ceremony was enacted and the entire affair was sponsored by the T. L. T. C. club of the order. The ceremony was a pageant of the characters enacted the evening of the order.

The bride, Rebekah the first of Salem, was Mrs. Winnie Brown. The groom, Chemeketa, was Vernon Moffitt, who was attended by H. R. White, Willamette center as best man. Bridesmaids were friendship, love and love taken by Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Miss Wilda Stannard and Mrs. Clifford Taylor. The ring bearer was conducted, Rosalie Claggett and flower girls were Aline Bremner, Helen White, as bridesmaids. Miss Elizabeth Waters, as a sprite of happiness, did a happy dance and Mrs. R. W. Simons as a sprite of happiness sang an arrangement of Mendelssohn's wedding song.

At the affair 11 of the original 175 charter members of the chapter were present. There are at present only 14 in good standing. Of these eleven the bride gave part of her bouquet. Those thus honored were Mrs. J. W. Young, Mrs. Annie Young, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Mollie Bennett, Mrs. Sarah Hutton, W. T. Rigdon, Mrs. Lizette Smith, A. M. Clough, Mrs. Adella Clough, Mrs. Mary S. Moore and Mrs. Ellen Feldt. Other attendants at the wedding were the following: Grant Peters, brotherly love and J. E. Madison, generosity, ushers; H. E. Ingrey, exalted ruler of land of the groom; members of T. L. T. C. club, group of guests sorority sisters of the bride; W. A. Cummings, grandfather of the groom, founder of Odd Fellowship; Miss Ethel Fletcher, past president of Rebekah assembly, mother of the bride; Mrs. William Staiger, grandmother of the bride, sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold." J. A. Mills, past grand master, father of the groom, sang "Love's Old Sweet Song." Tom Claggett, Canton Capital patriarch militant, younger brother of the groom; Mrs. Myrtle Tyrell, his companion auxiliary capital patriarch militant. Attendants, helpfulness, Mrs. J. E. Madison; kindly deeds, Mrs. Verena Moffitt; good will, Mrs. Roy Bremer; usefulness, Mrs. Hannah Slattery.

The way to the altar was called the pathway of the golden rule and the altar itself was representative of unity and good work. Following the pageant, supper was served.

U. of O. Girls Make Visit in Salem

Miss Margaret Beattie, of Oregon City, and Miss Lorna Coolidge, of La Grande, are visiting in Salem for a few days, the guests of Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. ### MRS. LULA VANN FULTON, ARK., Suggests to Suffering Women the Road to Health

Fulton, Arkansas.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a soreness in my side. I would suffer so badly every month from my waist down that I could not be on my feet half the time. I was not able to do my work without help. I saw your Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and gave it a fair trial. Now I am able to do my work and don't even have a headache every month. I can't praise your Vegetable Compound enough and highly recommend it to those who have troubles like mine. I am willing for these facts to be used as a testimonial to lead all who suffer with female troubles, as I did, to the right road to health."—Mrs. LULA VANN, Box 43, Fulton, Arkansas.

"It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by word of mouth and by letter, that you should consider taking this well-known medicine, if you are troubled with such symptoms as painful periods, weak, nervous feelings, miserable pains in your back, and cannot rest at certain times."

Embroidery Club Has Pretty Party

Mrs. Richard Erickson was hostess for members of the Elite Embroidery club which met on Tuesday afternoon at her residence, 1515 North Liberty. The house was beautifully decorated with daffodils and centaurea. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with conversation and embroidery work; and refreshments were served by the hostess. In two weeks the society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. G. Given, 1544 North Commercial street.

Those present were Mrs. Nellie Knox, Mrs. E. V. Ryder, Mrs. Bert Waller, Mrs. E. J. Donnell, Mrs. Otto Shellburg, Mrs. Harley Pugh, Mrs. C. T. McIntyre, Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. C. G. Given, Mrs. Richard Arpke, Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. Fred Prince, Mrs. Lena Townsend, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Master Dicky Pugh and Maxine Clark.

Campaign For Funds Announced

A campaign for funds for the support of the local Y. W. C. A. for the ensuing year will be launched in Salem beginning April 5 which the quota set for $5000. This campaign is held each year and the funds raised go for the support of the association, paying a Y. W. C. A. secretary and doing the charitable work.

The point was made at a recent financial discussion when Mrs. W. S. Kinney, of Astoria, was present that an active Y. W. C. A. cannot be self supporting. The majority of people receiving benefits from the association are able to pay for it, but there are those who are assisted who have not the money to pay and it is in doing this work that the association wins its right to live. The local association comes nearer being self supporting than nine out of ten, it is said, as that proportion of Y. W. C. A. cafeterias do not make enough to pay expenses. The local cafeteria is self supporting and last year was able to show a small balance.

The girl reserve work of the Y. W. C. A. is equivalent to the scout movement among boys, although not so well known. This work aims to add interest to the every day achievements of the girl when she most needs it. Through competition she is encouraged to observe a strict health code which will develop good habits for her. Captains and workers in the campaign for funds will be announced some time next week, it is said.

Eva Scott Is Bride of Mr. Myers

The wedding of Miss Eva L. Scott and LeRoy N. Myers was quietly solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, J. E. Scott, at 1185 Marion street. The double ring service was read by Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, of the First Methodist church, before a group of relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and her bouquet was a corsage of Ophelia roses, violets and maidenhair fern. The couple was unattended as they stood to take their vows. Music was supplied by Miss Miriam E. Anderson, who played Mendelssohn's wedding march as a professional and sang Cadman's "At Dawning" and "Oh Promise Me" (de Koven). The house was decorated with daffodils, fern and ivy.

Following the service a reception was held. Luncheon was served by Miss Eva L. Walker, Miss Pearl Scott, Mrs. W. H. Adrian and Mrs. J. E. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Myers departed by automobile for a trip to northern points and will be at home to their friends after April 15 at 1840 Chemeketa street.

Mrs. Myers is a popular and beloved young woman of Salem. She came to this city thirteen years ago with her parents from Lake Charles, Louisiana. She was graduated from Salem high school and afterward was in business with her father. In November of last year she closed fifteen months successful work as girls work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. There she gained the love and confidence of high school girls thru the girl reserve work which she built up during her secretaryship. She is active in the work of the First Methodist church.

Mr. Myers, who is the son of Mrs. L. D. Myers, has resided in Salem for the past four years, coming to Oregon seven years ago from Wisconsin. He is bookkeeper in the state highway department. Mr. Myers is well known in Salem musical circles and for three years was baritone soloist in the choir of the First Presbyterian church.

Vacation Is Inspiration For Affairs

Miss Ila Spaulding was hostess at two pretty affairs this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding. Miss Spaulding, who is a student at Oregon Agricultural college, is home for spring vacation. On Wednesday night she was hostess for a dinner party, preceding the O. A. C. dance at the Elite hall. Her guests were sorority sisters of Alpha Chi Omega and their partners for the evening.

Table decorations were accomplished in yellow. Daffodils were used and yellow candles were arranged in silver sticks. Those present were Miss Nathel Donaca, of Albany, Miss Amelia Babcock, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Grace Humphrey, Miss Genevieve Spiggs of Corvallis, and Miss Anne Jones, of Pocatello, Idaho, Lewis Griffith, Ordo Irwin, of Albany, Cyril Sykes, of Corvallis, Patrick Ireland, of Corvallis, Frank Deckebach, Allan Jones and Frank Johnson, of Portland.

Miss Spaulding was again hostess on Thursday night when she sponsored a get together party for the members of the Breakfast club, a high school organization which existed a few years ago. Members of the club were present and the evening was spent as a reunion. Pussys willows were used for decoration. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Grace Holt.

Those present were Mrs. Arch Jerman and daughter Wilda, Mrs. Howard Eberle, Miss Grace Holt, Miss Olga Gray, Miss Bernice Craig, Miss Irene Curtis, Miss Vivian Hargrove, Miss Laura Marr, Miss Clara Breitenstein, Miss Edna Howd, Miss Marie Marshall, Miss Ruth Schultz and Miss Ila Spaulding.

Oratorio Ensemble Is Effective

A little sample of what the ensemble will be for the oratorio "Creation" to be given during the May Festival was heard on Tuesday night at this week's chorus practice for the production. At that time the Salem Symphony orchestra, which is in fact the foundation for the oratorio, practiced with the chorus, and those who listened declared the effect was very good.

The chorus now numbers more than one hundred voices and with the added bulk of the Symphony orchestra, it may be necessary later for practices to be held in larger quarters. For the last practice, choruses from Falls City, Dallas, Monmouth and Independence will join with the local group. This will make a bulk of voices adequate for the huge oratorio.

No announcements have yet been made concerning other features of the festival. It is known, however, that an evening of living pictures is being planned as well as other worth while undertakings.
