

FLEETING FOLK GLIMPSED IN PASSING

Ethel Barrymore, who will appear here next week and whose performance will be the most important of Salem's theatrical season, believes in making sure of her hotel rooms.

On his way to Alaska, C. B. Frank, who owns large placer mine holdings near Hot Springs, is in town for a few days' visit with friends.

Joe McPherson, who slips the glad hand to incoming guests of the Bligh hotel during the day trick, was unable to report for duty this morning.

Carl Kendrick, who has maintained a permanent sample room at the Marlon hotel for the past three months, has accepted a managerial position with a Seattle firm.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Clark of Portland have been guests of the New Terminal hotel for about a month.

Mrs. Pearl Hatarich, proprietress of the Bligh hotel cigar store, spent the week-end in Portland, leaving Friday night and returning Sunday.

R. E. E. Linquist, Miss Bertha M. Eckert and E. C. Higley, all of New York city, are here to hold a conference with Harwood Hall, superintendent of the Chemawa Indian school.

H. D. Gammon of Tacoma is registered at the New Terminal.

Mrs. Jack Harzman is a guest of the Bligh hotel.

Dr. J. W. Bancroft of Newberg is registered at the Marlon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Lebanon are registered at the Bligh.

L. A. Carson of Portland is registered at the New Terminal.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gorma of Albany are at the Bligh.

Ilo Smith, proprietor of a local cigar store, left this morning for Roseburg, in the vicinity of which he will spend a few days visiting friends.

Marc Latham, a former Salem high school student who is now attending the University of Oregon, spent the week-end visiting in Salem.

Automobiles driven by W. M. Ramsden, 771 North Commercial street, and L. G. Keene, of Shaw, were badly damaged when they collided at the corner of Ferry and High streets.

Charged with unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor, a man who gave his name as Arthur Nowak, of McMinnville, was arrested here Saturday night.

"When you find it necessary to discipline the children in your classes, don't forget that you, too, were once a pupil," Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson told teachers assembled at the Multnomah county institute in Portland Saturday.

COMING EVENTS

March 29—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club. March 29—Associated Charities benefit concert; Elizabeth Levy, violinist, army, 8 p. m. April 2—Orkan recital; Christian church, 3:30, Mrs. Gladys Morgan Farmer, organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Urub of this city left Salem Saturday for Portland where they spent the week end visiting friends.

Baby chicks, 558 State.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs of this city, left Salem for Portland yesterday afternoon.

Love, the jeweler, Salem.

Miss Agnes Sprague, 624 north Capitol street, left Salem yesterday for Portland where she will spend a short time visiting.

We buy, sell and exchange second hand goods. Phone 464.

Miss Laura Payton, Salem grade teacher, returned to Salem last night from Portland where she spent the week end visiting relatives.

People use Swift's fertilizer because it makes them money. See Clarence S. Bowne or phone 353.

Police announced today that they are anxious to determine the whereabouts of one William Huxley Foulks for whom they said they have information.

Car troubles phone 298, authorized Ford service, 326 N. Commercial St. Harbison & Cleveland.

Walter Banks, of Portland, spent the week end visiting friends in Salem.

Piano playing 12 lessons. Watterman School, McCormack bldg. over Millers.

Miss Flora Newman of this city has been confined to her home for several days following a major operation to which she submitted recently at a local hospital.

Do you like chicken? Then come to Central Congregational church, 19th and Perry on Tuesday evening.

Complaint that his bicycle was stolen from near the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night was made to the police by Elden Scott, 345 south Fourteenth street.

Come and bring your friend to the Pythian dance and card party at the Elks temple at 8:30 Tuesday March 28. (Special features.)

After spending the week end visiting relatives in Portland, Miss Hazel Browne, an instructor in the English department of the Salem high school, returned to Salem last night.

Miss Lorna Coolidge, of La Grande, and Miss Peggy Beatty, of Oregon City, were in Salem visiting friends this week end.

Leather goods, harness, traveling bags, F. E. Shafer, 176 S. Com.

Complaint that he had lost a traveling bag on the road between Salem and Silverton was made to the police yesterday by F. E. Watson, of Portland.

Frank Chapman of Salem, a freshman at the University of Oregon, is spending this week visiting friends here. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

A bicycle, found abandoned in an alley in the business district, yesterday, was taken to the police station last evening by Patrolmen Stanton and Putnam.

With the exception of very short stretches, which cause but slight inconvenience, the roads between Salem and Calapoocha are excellent, according to Frederick Schmidt, manager of the Northwest Fruits Products company.

Attention of Masons, a joint meeting of Salem Lodge No. 5 and Pacific Lodge No. 50 will be held in Masonic temple, Monday evening, March 27.

Court House

Circuit Court Divorce complaint charging cruel and inhuman treatment filed by Margaret P. Terry vs Roydon L. Terry.

Probate Court Inventory and appraisal filed in the estate of John R. Fouda giving value as $796.50.

Marriage Licenses Emory A. Ream, 30, William, Or., and Alice Winn, Marlon, La. E. Butler, 21, Silverton, and Ida E. Lincoln, 23, Silverton.

Written communications, not constituting permissible parcel post material is enclosed frequently at fourth class postage rates.

"The Essential Mineral company" is the name of a business concern to be operated by Myrtle Hill Lytle and Dan J. Fry, Jr., at 230 North Commercial street.

Cruel and inhuman treatment is the charge brought by Margaret P. Terry in her divorce suit against Roydon L. Terry.

Man accused of killing mother placed on trial Los Angeles, Cal., March 27.—Joseph Studer went on trial before a jury in the superior court here today on an information charging him with the murder of his mother.

Everett editor is called Everett, Wash., March 27.—J. V. Best, publisher of the Daily Herald of this city, died this morning at Sierra Madre, Cal.

Pardon denied agitator Albany, N. Y., March 27.—Governor Miller has denied the application for a pardon for Jim Larkin, the Irish agitator, convicted of criminal anarchy.

Ponzi to face trial again Washington, March 27.—Charles Ponzi, whose financial exploits in Boston resulted in his plea of guilty in November, 1920, in the federal courts to one of two indictments, and his sentence to imprisonment for five years.

Card of thanks We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, kindness and help during the sickness and death of our beloved mother.

Died Flanders—Grace Flanders of Chemawa, at the age of 15 years, body is at Rigdon's.

Jones—In Corvallis, Friday, March 24, Mrs. Nellie B. Jones, age 41 years, wife of Frank L. Jones, mother of Morris L. Jones, Richard R. and Baby Han Elizabeth Jones, residents of Hoskins, Polk county.

Savage nominated Washington, March 27.—Frank Adelbert Savage was nominated today to be received of public monies at Spokane, Wash., and Arthur Wellington Doland to be register of the land office at Spokane, Wash.

Fired by the seductive charm of the notorious Montmartre belle, young Armand forgot family, honor, ambition. And the woman—SEE

Charged with unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor, a man who gave his name as Arthur Nowak, of McMinnville, was arrested here Saturday night.

Automobiles driven by W. M. Ramsden, 771 North Commercial street, and L. G. Keene, of Shaw, were badly damaged when they collided at the corner of Ferry and High streets.

Charged with unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor, a man who gave his name as Arthur Nowak, of McMinnville, was arrested here Saturday night.

"When you find it necessary to discipline the children in your classes, don't forget that you, too, were once a pupil," Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson told teachers assembled at the Multnomah county institute in Portland Saturday.

With the exception of very short stretches, which cause but slight inconvenience, the roads between Salem and Calapoocha are excellent, according to Frederick Schmidt, manager of the Northwest Fruits Products company.

Attention of Masons, a joint meeting of Salem Lodge No. 5 and Pacific Lodge No. 50 will be held in Masonic temple, Monday evening, March 27.

TWO SEEK PLACE ON BENCH; THREE ASPIRE TO HOUSE

Two aspirants for circuit judgeships and three candidates for seats in the house of representatives of the state legislature, filed their formal declarations as candidates for nomination.

The legislative material includes R. J. Carsoner of Spray who wants to come back for another term as representative from Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties.

Washington, Mar. 27.—A new way out of the four power treaty tangle was suggested in the senate today by administration leaders.

London, March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—The Irish Free State bill passed its third and final reading in the house of lords today.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader declared on the senate floor that the best solution of the situation occurring to him was to include in the resolution ratifying the formal supplementary agreement a resolution re-stating the informal "declaration" signed with the treaty.

It was because of the senate's failure to act specifically on this informal supplement that the treaty opponents had challenged the validity of the Friday's ratification of the pact itself.

MAN ACCUSED OF KILLING MOTHER PLACED ON TRIAL

Los Angeles, Cal., March 27.—Joseph Studer went on trial before a jury in the superior court here today on an information charging him with the murder of his mother.

Everett editor is called Everett, Wash., March 27.—J. V. Best, publisher of the Daily Herald of this city, died this morning at Sierra Madre, Cal.

Pardon denied agitator Albany, N. Y., March 27.—Governor Miller has denied the application for a pardon for Jim Larkin, the Irish agitator, convicted of criminal anarchy.

EVERETT EDITOR IS CALLED

Everett, Wash., March 27.—J. V. Best, publisher of the Daily Herald of this city, died this morning at Sierra Madre, Cal.

PONZI TO FACE TRIAL AGAIN

Washington, March 27.—Charles Ponzi, whose financial exploits in Boston resulted in his plea of guilty in November, 1920, in the federal courts to one of two indictments, and his sentence to imprisonment for five years.

YOUTH and PASSION

Fired by the seductive charm of the notorious Montmartre belle, young Armand forgot family, honor, ambition. And the woman—SEE

SAVAGE NOMINATED

Washington, March 27.—Frank Adelbert Savage was nominated today to be received of public monies at Spokane, Wash., and Arthur Wellington Doland to be register of the land office at Spokane, Wash.

DIED FLANDERS

Flanders—Grace Flanders of Chemawa, at the age of 15 years, body is at Rigdon's.

JONES

In Corvallis, Friday, March 24, Mrs. Nellie B. Jones, age 41 years, wife of Frank L. Jones, mother of Morris L. Jones, Richard R. and Baby Han Elizabeth Jones, residents of Hoskins, Polk county.

LIBERTY THEATRE

With RUDOLPH VALENTINO News—Comedy Bernice Hutto at the Pipe Organ

GOVERNOR AND MAYOR INVITE HARDING OUT

Governor Olcott and Mayor George E. Halvorsen of Salem today addressed to President Harding letters in which the president and Mrs. Harding are invited to be guests of Oregon at the 1922 Rose Festival which will begin on June 9.

These invitations are two of scores to be sent to the president from Oregon. All are to be bound into a volume of about 500 pages and will contain the signatures of mayors of all Oregon cities and towns and of 40,000 Portland school children.

The invitation will be presented to President Harding personally by Eric V. Hauser, of the Rose Festival board of governors.

SEES WAY OUT OF TREATY MUDDLE

Washington, Mar. 27.—A new way out of the four power treaty tangle was suggested in the senate today by administration leaders and criticized as inadequate and ineffective by the treaty's opponents.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader declared on the senate floor that the best solution of the situation occurring to him was to include in the resolution ratifying the formal supplementary agreement a resolution re-stating the informal "declaration" signed with the treaty.

LARGE EGG LAID BY HEN

One of the largest eggs brought to the office of The Capital Journal in many weeks was presented this morning by George Davis, 1962 Fourth street, West Salem.

The egg, the product of a Rhode Island Red, measured six and one-fourth inches by eight and three-eighths inches. It weighed four ounces.

TO DAY BILLY HIGH THEATRE

Two Acts Vaudeville Antonio Moreno in "A GUILTY CONSCIENCE" Matinee 25c, Evening 35c Continuous Daily

OREGON Theatre

LINOLEUM SPECIAL

This is not congoletum but a high grade Linoleum that sells regularly at $1.25 a yard.

Overstuffed Rockers

"Craftsman leather," not leatherette. Special at $17.50

DINING TABLES

45-inch plank top, quarter sawed oak with six genuine leather seated chairs $50.00 Solid oak saddle seat dining chairs at, each $3.75

GIESE & CO.

373 Court Street Phone 464 Secondhand Goods Bought and Sold

12-YEAR-OLD BOY HALTS JAIL BREAK

Marion, Ill., March 27.—Pushing a revolver from his breast, Ralph Thaxton, 12 year old son of Sheriff Melvin Thaxton, last night ran six blocks to the city hall, summoned policemen and frustrated an attempted jail delivery.

The police arrived at the city jail while eight prisoners were pummeling Sheriff Thaxton. A shot fired by Policeman Tom "Frees" killed George Wilson, 18, a prisoner.

The prisoners, 13 in all, had been exercising when the sheriff, his son and a negro employe entered the enclosure to lock them up for the night.

FREE STATE BILL IS PASSED

London, March 27.—(By Associated Press.)—The Irish Free State bill passed its third and final reading in the house of lords today.

Mrs. Ella G. Wortman, of Medford, grand chief Pythian sister, will pay her official visit to the local temple tomorrow night.

BEACH WITNESS FOR "RICK"

Charles E. Herron, who described himself as miner, fisherman and publisher of the Anchorage Daily Times.

He also stated that Rickard had a good reputation in the northland. As to the ethics of gambling, the witness said he now abhorred it.

The witness testified that after the charges had been brought against Rickard, he had conversed with Mortimer Schiff and others interested in welfare movements for children.

BEACH WITNESS FOR "RICK"

nothing against Rickard's character. After he had stated that he had met the promoter in Toledo on the day of the Dempsey-Willard fight, he was asked what he thought of gambling.

BEACH WITNESS FOR "RICK"

"I consider that a man who ran a gambling house in the days of the gold rush may have been an honorable man."

Asked if he taught gambling in his bible classes, he said: "I have never made gambling the thesis of an argument."

The witness testified that after the charges had been brought against Rickard, he had conversed with Mortimer Schiff and others interested in welfare movements for children.

OREGON Theatre

NORMA TALMADGE In "Loves Redemption" Coming Sunday "FOUL'S PARADISE"

SPECIAL MERCHANTS LUNCH 25c

Hours: 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. HOMEMADE NOODLE and CHOP SUEY Open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. Nomking Cafe 162 1/2 N. Com'l St.

Import Shipment Just Received Imported Bead Bags

Beautiful Bead Hand Bags in wonderfully attractive designs. "Hand Woven" These bags were manufactured in Belgium and are strictly "Hand Made."

Thru a very fortunate purchase we secured these bags under market cost, which saving we pass on to our customers. Prices range from $7.50 to $12.50

MILLER'S Good Goods

Linoleum Special

This is not congoletum but a high grade Linoleum that sells regularly at $1.25 a yard.

Overstuffed Rockers

"Craftsman leather," not leatherette. Special at $17.50

DINING TABLES

45-inch plank top, quarter sawed oak with six genuine leather seated chairs $50.00 Solid oak saddle seat dining chairs at, each $3.75

GIESE & CO.

373 Court Street Phone 464 Secondhand Goods Bought and Sold

Little Town in the Old County Down

that Theo. Karle will be singin' av on the records Brunswick will be releasin' for the likes av St. Patrick and "Lassie o' Mine" Ask for No. 13033

Sure and there'll be others among these that you'll be after hearin':

- 10019—A Ballad in Erin (Traditional) County Antrim Folk Song; Soprano... Dorothy Jarven
18015—Mother Mackree (O'Connell) Tenor... Theo. Karle
Come Back to Erin (Claribel) Tenor... Theo. Karle

Theo. Karle records now $1.00

Moore-Dunn Music Co.

Masonic Temple State and High Streets Representatives Sherman, Clay & Co. Pianos