

MISCOSTRUCTION OF BONUS LAW IS LEGION'S CHARGE

Accusations that the state bonus commission is misconstruing the bonus law in taking into consideration "moral risks" in granting loans and by so doing is granting ex-service men three-fourths of the appraised value of their property, were made at the meeting of the American Legion in the armory last night.

The attitude of the commission in not allowing the men to see reports of appraisers, under the excuse that they were not public records was also taken up, the Legionnaires insisting that such reports should be available to them, or the public, upon request.

As a result of the discussion, Commander Joseph Minton appointed a committee of Millar McGilchrist, chairman, Robin Day and Fred Mangis to confer with the commission, present the attitude of the Legion, and ask for a statement of policy in granting loans. The committee will also assemble the grievances of the ex-service men in the form of a resolution which will be presented at a special meeting to be called within the next ten days.

The commission will further be asked to have the state attorney general render an opinion as to whether or not it has the right to consider moral risks in making loans, as well as a future valuation of the property.

Should the commission refuse to take action on grievances represented, the local organization may institute a friendly suit against the body for a supreme court interpretation of the law which they believe to have been passed for the benefit of the ex-service men and with a view to loaning them three-fourths of the appraised value of their property without considering the moral risk or future values.

Lloyd Rigdon, Kenneth Bell and C. M. Jones were appointed as a committee to confer with a committee of the Spanish-American Veterans and G. A. R. concerning the use of the veterans' room of the armory.

The matter of putting on a show was postponed until the September meeting.

MISS DU PONT STARRING AT THE BLIGH THEATRE

With the swirling sea around a lighthouse reef as the background, a strong drama of three happiness-seeking hearts is now reflected on the screen of the Bligh theatre today and tomorrow in "False Kisses," a Universal special attraction starring Miss DuPont.

"False Kisses" is realistic. It is vivid. Most of all, it presents a germ of analysis in a day when the screen play is still thought of chiefly as a medium of entertainment, of simple pleasure without meaning or benefit.

The natural performance of Miss DuPont in the central role and the portrayals given by Pat O'Malley and Lloyd Whitlock as the husband and the "friend," all three deserve commendation for subtlety, spirit and accuracy.

GRAND ARMY PLANNING ANOTHER BIG REUNION

Gettysburg, Pa., April 5.—Civil war veterans have started a movement for the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg with another great reunion here in July, 1923.

While the ranks of both the Blue and the Gray have been considerably thinned since the reunion here in 1913 when 56,000 men from the North and the South were under canvas, it is believed that the proposed celebration would receive the enthusiastic support of the surviving veterans.

OPENING GAME POSTPONED

Los Angeles, Cal., April 5.—The opening game of the 1922 baseball season between Los Angeles and Portland teams of the Coast league was postponed here Tuesday, on account of rain.

STRIKE IS HAILED AS VACATION TIME

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 5.—Suspension of operations in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania was hailed by the average mine worker as an opportunity for a vacation and most of them are planning thoroughly to enjoy the holiday. For eight years the colliers had been operated on almost a full schedule, the work being marked by unusual activity. The miners, therefore, their leaders said today, were glad that for a time at least, they would not have to answer the earl morning whistles.

To the Editor:—In one of the recent issues of The Capital Journal Mr. Hofer made the remark that the income tax system is "rotten and unamerican." If I am not mistaken the income tax system we propose to put before the voter next November is on the same principle as the United States government system. Now, according to Mr. Hofer, if our system is rotten then the United States government income tax system is rotten too.

ALLIES WOULD SUPPORT FAMILY OF EX-EMPEROR

Paris, April 5.—(By Associated Press)—The council of ambassadors today took up the question of providing for the family of ex-Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary who died in exile in Madeira last Saturday. The allies are ready to contribute to the support of the family but some of the countries that benefited by parts of the fortune of the Hapsburgs, including Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia are declared to have refused to release for this purpose any part of the property of the imperial family that was handed over to them.

The ambassadors proposed a decision on the question, pending further negotiations. They are understood to be determined that the countries which received part of the former Austro-Hungarian territory shall assume a share of the burden in caring for the ex-emperor's children and his widow. Rumania, it is stated, has already consented to bear her share.

BRITISH HOLD ALLIES TO PAYMENT OF INTEREST

London, April 5.—(By Associated Press)—The British government has addressed a note to the allies declaring that owing to the fact that Great Britain has to pay the interest on her debt to the United States, she reserves the right herself to call on the allies in turn to pay the interest on their war debts to Great Britain.

Settlement Reached

Chicago, April 5.—Creditors here of the bankrupt firm of Karlos and Burke, a New York brokerage house, unanimously agreed last night to accept the company's offer of payment in three years on their claims. They agree to accept ten per cent cash, ten per cent at the end of each of three six month periods and 20 percent at the end of each of three additional six month periods.

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Salem

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Salem proof:

Mrs. F. R. Sonner, 1057 S. Liberty St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with benefit and gladly recommend them. My kidneys were weak and I had backache so badly I could hardly get about. I could get no relief and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon stopped the backache and regulated my kidneys. I cannot say too much for what Doan's have done for me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sonner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv.)

New Books

"The New England History from the Discovery of the Continent by the Northmen, A. D. 986, to the Period When the Colonies Declared Their Independence, A. D. 1776," an interesting old work published in 1857, written by Charles W. Elliott. The set was presented to the library by Mark Paulsen.

"Employment Psychology," the methods of selection, training and rating of employes, by mental and trade tests, by the observation and impression methods, discussed in detail by Henry C. Link. The author arrives at a practical combination of employment methods which should interest both employers and employes.

"Enduring Investments" the outstanding statistician of the country, Robert Ward Babson. The author appeals for investment in the shape of human souls, and happiness, and for the Christianizing of education and industry.

"How and Why Stories," a collection of negro folk tales, interesting for the story teller and for the student of folklore, written by John Casper Branner.

"Fish Cookery," six hundred recipes for the preparation of fish, shellfish and other aquatic animals, by Evelyn Spencer and John N. Cobb.

"Representative One-act Plays by British and Irish Authors," a collection of twenty well chosen modern plays, edited by Barrett Harper Clark.

"Life of Jean Henri Fabre," the life story of the French scientist told with manly delightful passages from his own writings of his experiences. The biography is written by a kinsman, Augustin Fabre.

"Dr. Tam O'Shanter," the story of a college girl and her dog, by Mabel Louisa Robinson. "Messer Marco Polo," by Donn Byrne. "Roads Going South," a story of New England life and of New England character by a new author, Robert L. Duffus.

HE BLOCKED STREET; TRAINMAN IS FINED

C. L. McGonnell, a Southern Pacific freight train conductor, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 when he pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon before Judge Earl Race to a charge of allowing his train to block State street.

McGonnell was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman George White and John B. Giesy, a member of the council's police committee.

"For your own good, I advise you to be more careful in the future," Judge Race told McGonnell in pronouncing sentence.

McGonnell was accused of allowing his train to remain stationary for 33 minutes.

Pioneer Miner Buried Seattle, Wash., April 5.—Funeral services were held here today for John M. Phillips, 76, pioneer gold prospector of the Pacific northwest, who died in Spokane last Thursday. Mr. Phillips was one of the early gold hunters in the Montana and California fields and in 1873 prospected in Alaska.

Herbs Used in Medicines A Manchester, England, paper urges the renewed cultivation of old fashioned medicinal herbs in English gardens. In the United States they have also gone out of fashion as a feature of the small garden, although they are imported in large quantities from Turkey, India and China, where they are grown purely for commercial purposes, as their medicinal value is recognized by many leading physicians. Tons of medicinal herbs are used annually in the preparation of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most successful medicine for women's ills. It contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and women afflicted with such ailments should try it. (adv.)
