Member of Class Gives Test Dinner

The last of a series of large dinner parties arranged by members of the graduating class from the Chemawa domestic science department was given last night at school by Miss Elizabeth Church. Each member of the class must give a seven course dinner as the final test of her work and this year the series included ten dinners, all supervised by Mrs. Louise F. Brickell, instructor of the department. The hostess is required to do all planning, cooking and serving of her own dinner.

Other young women who have served similar dinners are Miss Rose Gray, Miss Laura Waun, Miss Dorothy Holst, Miss Ethel Henry, Miss Ione Henry, Miss Joyce Simmons, Miss Mellie Bennett, Miss Frances Fitzpatrick and Miss Tacoma Snyder.

The decorations for last night's affair were violets and daffodils arranged in a silver basket as a centerpiece. Violet place cards marked each cover. Those present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Louise Brickell, Frank Perry and Eldon Brickell.

Albany Girl Is Bride of Salem Man

The marriage of Miss Mabel Patchell of Albany and M. E. Snyder of Salem was the occasion of a pretty wedding Sunday at 4 o'clock at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Josephine Snyder, 1210 North 19th street. Rev. Thos. Acheson officiated and the ring ceremony was used.

The groom was attended by Alden Roberts. The bridal party approached the altar to strains from Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Bertha Vick. Following the service light refreshments were served.

MONMOUTH TO LICENSE ALL PASSENGER BUSES

Monmouth, Or., April 6.—At its last regular meeting the city council passed an ordinance compelling all passenger autos operating in or through the city to obtain a franchise from the city. The measure, it is said, was instigated by the bus which meets the Independence trains and the city trucksters, and is directed against the Salem stage, operated by J. W. Parker. The Salem stage carries passengers to Independence for 5 cents less than the bus and accommodates citizens of Monmouth and normal students by delivering baggage. It is said that this is offensive to the city trucksters who would compel Mr. Parker to unload trunks at the hotel, that they might reload them and deliver at a charge of 50 cents.

The ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote of the council.

In Jefferson City the democrats elected four of five candidates for aldermen and carried the city by nearly 500 votes.

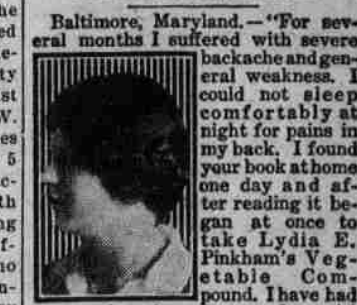

Returns from St. Joseph indicated the election of a republican mayor and the whole republican ticket with the exception of candidates for auditor and treasurer.

The democrats elected mayors in Macon, Butler, Fulton, Carthage and Sedalia.
