FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1922.

Mr. and Mrs. Ursule Wolfer of Hubbard are registered at the Marion hotel. Mr. Wolfer's fath-er is in one of the local hospitals being treated for Bright's disease He is a merchant in Hubbard and is well known in Salem. * theater * theater Dance 50c tonight, Elite hall. * theater. adies free. 84* * April Ladies free.

George Hitchkiss Street, well & dance. known Portland baritone, was in * Salem last night giving instruc- * Salem Arts League with art * tions to his regular pupils of * exhibit, under auspices of * which he has a number here. Mr. * photographic art section. Street plans giving a recital soon, * City library. arrangements for which will be * announced later. He was register- * ball sponsored by military * ed at the New Terminal hotel and * organizations to benefit War will return today to Portland.

Trade in your old furniture. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 84'

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walters and their family of San Francisco were registered at the Marion ho tel last night. Mr. Walters is Pacific coast salesmanager for the tain real property filed by Ferdi-Fruit Produce company.

Red Star, Art Jewel and Perfec tion oil stoves. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 84"

W. R. Read of Corvallis is registered at the Bligh.

New shipment of grass and rattan furniture just received. H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. 844

James B. Clay of Glendale registered at the Marion

Baby chicks, 558 State,

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hurst of Eugene are registered at the Bligh gel.

Love, the jeweler, Salem.

F. F. Maison of Portland is at the New Terminal.

Special children's matinee 10c Saturday at 2 o'clock to see "The Four Horsemen" at the Liberty theatre.

stolen from his residence at 257 home of West's parents during the north Liberty street was made to next two months at the expense of court that he could "not hide like the police this morning by Lyle Sheppard. The wheel was taken some time last night. Hoff.

Hoosier Schoolmaster tonight, Grand theatre, 8:15. Tickets 50c. Benefit American Legion auxil-83* iary.

Investigating a report that a burgiar was endeavoring to gain tion, to enforce an eviction order, entrance into a home at 2486 which was supposed to have be-Mill street early this morning, Patrolman George White discovered that there is no such address. The woman who telephoned the com plaint to the police refused to give W. G. EVANS, PIONEER her name, officers said.

Baseball and long walks are delightful these days, but a year W. G. Evans, Marion county the time spent.

ness.

Ladies free.

Phone 111F3.

April 7-Meeting of Salem Floral society, Commer- * cial club at 8 p. m. April 7-8 p m. debate, * * Willamette university vs. * * University of Denver, Colo., * * subject, "Trade Unions." April 8-Meeting of Sa-

COMING EVENTS

April 17-Woman's Com-* munity building benefit

> April 18-General meeting April 20-Grand military *

* * * * * * * * * Court House

Circuit Court Complaint to quiet title to cer-tain real property filed by Ferdi-nand Kurz vs William Bennett. Reply filed in the suit of F. B. Arbuckle vs J. R. Nellson. Return filed on habeas corpus proceedings and motion for con-tinuance in the case of Levi M. Hammer, ex parte William F. Hammer vs John W. Haines and Elizabeth Haines. Phez company, now the Northwest nand Kurz vs William Bennett.

Elizabeth Haines. Divorce complaint filed by Cora Miller vs Ira J. Miller. Divorce complaint filed by Johnson vs Edgar Johnson. Marriage Licenses David Delano, 40, Scotts Mills and Winnifred Frazier, 25, Salem.

Joe Van Tersch, 21, Mt. Angel and Mamie Kraemer, 18, Mt. An-

STATE OFFICIALS RUSH TO AID OF TWO BLIND MEN

Portland, Or., April 7 .- Harold Bishop and Carl West, recalcitrant father was arrested on a similar

Your Horsemen" at the Liberty heatre. Complaint that his bicycle was tolen from his residence at 257 home of Wast's porter to the bind by control, found it necessary, for the sake of discipline in the institution, to enforce an eviction order.

Spurns Big Interests COMPTON QUITS For Teacher's Job

L. H. Compton Thursday submitted to Governor Olcott his res- Attorney Carson, this morning, in gnation as warden of the state penitentiary here, to become ef-fective May 1. Compton is resigning to become head of the Hamilon Narcotic institute, with headquarters in Seattle.

Simultaneously -with the announcement of Compton's resignation, Governor Olcott announced scrap, didn't you?" asked Carson. that he would appoint J. W. Lewis, present deputy warden, to sucseed to the wardenship on May 1. E. C. Halley, principal keeper at the penitentiary, will succeed Lewis as deputy warden.

Both Lewis and Halley have een connected with the prison administration throughout Compcon's incumbency, which dates oack to February, 1920. Prior to chat he was for several months parole officer for the prison.

Expresses Regret.

"I deepiy regret severing my onnection with the state penitenlary and the present administraion," stated Warden Compton in naking known his resignation. "1 ilso deeply regret leaving lave had under consideration this of Birtchet, Carson asked: new connection in Seattle with the damilton Narcotic institute, a $500,000 corporation, organized or the purpose of the treatment and cure of narcotic addicts. "I became particularly interestd in this work when Governor Ol-oft inaugurated his campaign in Act For Which the Pacific northwest against the use and sale of narcotics, and have Father Jailed followed its development very closely. I believe, in my new field great work can be done along Yakima, Wash., April 7 .--- Just his line, and it is only for the as Justice of the Peace C. Roy reason that I feel greater accom-King was about to sentence Leonplishments can be brought about ard Sutton, charged with posses-.n this new field that I finally desion of liquor, to the county jail termined to leave by present polate Thursday afternoon Sutton's sition. son George confessed that the "For the last week I have been

Compton will be cotninued under pooze in question belonged to him. in Seattle perfecting arrangements He also revealed, that when his in connection with the new instiute, and will devote my entire cime to that work.

Olcott Praises Work. Governor Olcott expressed keen egret at Warden Compton's deision to leave the prison. "He has effected some wonderul improvements at the institution," said the governor. "The physical plant and the morale of was contributed out of the private pockets of the three officials, who, as members of the state board of Control found it accelerate board of liquor "for jazz parties." He dethe men both have been developed to a great degree under his management, and I am deeply sorry to see him leave. Mr. Lewis informs me that the same organization and youth deserved a penitentiary policies maintained by Warden sentence for his craven act, but allowed him to go with a suscome effective 30 days ago, but instructions to "make up to your the new management. The prison which had been ignored by the father for the dishonor and sufmanagement, both as to its interaal workings and the small numfering you have caused him." ber of escapes during Mr. Compton's handling, has been excep-Woodruff Acquitted. Des Molnes, Iowa, April 7 tionally good and deserves warm commendation. ing Lawrence Tracy, was acquit-TELEPHONE COMPANY ted of murder this morning by a

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL, SALEM, OREGON

TRIAL OF ROGERS

(Continued from Page One.) vas considerably different than at previous wtal. Lee was put on the stand by Attorney Winsow, for the defense, and described in halting statements the affair

"I did not.'

shooting took place.

"No."

for help

for

for

for

didn't say it."

nd how he had escorted his mother from the room at the entrance of Birtchet.

'Why did you take your mothe out of the room?" asked District sign it," stated the witness, a bit. the cross-examination of the wit-ing to be trouble," said Lee. "He tion.

a pillow on a chair and lodged in the wall.

Lee testified that he took his Woods, taxicab driver, witness for mother across the street and stood the state, Winslow confined himby a garage opposite the house, self to what took place in his of-960 Highland avenue where the fice between him and Wood, where elp?" asked Carson. Reading from the records of a heard Rogers say that he had former trial, Carson gave the wished he had shot the officer statements of Lee in which he said through the heart; Don Wiggins that he had heard the officer call on the condition of fire arms and "Don't you remember saying the shooting; Chief of Police Motthat?" asked Carson. "I don't believe I said that-

"What did she say?"

"There wasn't anything said."

"You mean to say that ther wasn't anything said in the roo while you were in there?"

"Yes sir," the witness said. "But just now you testified that there was something said Now just how do you want it-wa there or wasn's there anything said while you were there?"

"I didn't bear a thing. They had a paper and he wanted her to > confused at his intimation of family trouble between his sister and her husband, which it is said,

Another piece of testimony of "As a matter of fact you knew that Rogers had a gun and that there was solve to be a shooting there was going to be a shooting the bullet having passed through

> In cross-examination of Troy Wood refused to tell the attorney

Other witnesses who were examined were Miller Hayden, who the possible position of the gun at fitt, and Dr. Cashatt, who performed the operation of extract-girls' hats. The beautiful flowers, fruits and foliage. A wonderful assortment of high class merchandise. Visit this department. Very low prices. Expert trimmers at your service.

PAGE SEVEN

mattine Roswell Miller

Youth Admits

* Mothers, armory.

"Because I knew there was go

(Birtchet) was there to get him." "As a matter of fact you knew

Former Testimony Denied.

"Did you hear Birtchet call for anything concerning the case,

the former trial.

"What did Rogers want Mrs

"She said she did want to go." eplied Lee.

UREGON -Iheatre-

ing the bullet from Birtchet's hip. In all of these examinations con-

Referring to what took place at state of Oregon. For some time 1 the Lee home before the entrance siderable reference was made to with him," said the witness.