

SYVERSON TO SCRAP KRITES HERE APRIL 21

Headlining "Battling" Syverson of Salem, whom he matched with Krites of Newberg, Jack Oberdorf, matchmaker for company F is now busy preparing a card for a smoker to be staged April 21 at the armory.

The cleverness of Syverson has been apparent ever since he started in the ring, but his punch has been his one drawback. This, however, has been overcome by the batter since his last appearance by a consistent course of training in Portland and in place of the open-handed slap with his right, he has got something real behind his Methodist meat hook.

Krites has won a reputation up and down the valley the last two years and is in good shape to give the local lad a hard run for his money. Odds are with Syverson because of his recent draw with Miller of Eugene. Both will fight around 135.

In the semi-main event Phil Bayes, also of Salem, is matched with Jack May. Phil has already shown pretty fair ability and his steady training with South, who is mighty clever himself, ought to place him in shape to put up the best fight he has been a participant of this season. May is a new man but has shown Oberdorf he can fight and the matchmaker is willing to give him a chance. They'll fight at 132.

Jack Movin, another Newberg lad, is booked to meet Montgomery in one of the four-round preliminaries. The curtain raisers have not been decided upon as yet.

This card should not be confused with the athletic events between B company of Portland and F company of Salem to be staged next Saturday night. Oberdorf made a statement this morning, saying that he had nothing to do with the bill for Saturday.

DEMPSEY SAILS IN GAY COMPANY

New York, April 11.—Jack Dempsey, with notable persons of various walks of life as fellow voyagers, was a passenger on the Aquitania, sailing today for England. ## SAYS BENCH AND BAR ARE LOSING PUBLIC RESPECT

Chicago, April 11.—Lawyers are one of the most important factors in the suppression of crime, Henry Barret Chamberlain, operating director of the Chicago crime commission, said in an address today before the committee on law enforcement of the American Bar association.

"American citizens are losing their respect for the courts," he said. "In Chicago they know that last year by average less than one out of four of the defendants tried for murder in Cook county was convicted and of the 6723 defendants actually tried in the criminal court for felony, that only 1674 paid any penalty. They know that out of that number only 757 received penitentiary or reformatory sentences. They know that the operations of Chicago's legal machinery, controlled by the bench and bar placed on the streets of Chicago 236 more criminals than the same machinery sent to prison last year. Knowledge of this fact brings dismay to responsible citizens and rejoicing to the hearts of the crooks."

Mr. Chamberlain declared that "part of the trouble is the nambypamby, sickening sentimentality for outlaws convicted of crime."

BELL WITHDRAWS FROM LEGISLATIVE CONTEST

Eugene, April 11.—John H. Bell, prominent Eugene business man, who has been senator for Lane and Linn counties for the last four years, has announced that he has decided to withdraw from the race for the republican nomination for senator of Lane county for which he filed a few weeks ago. Lack of time and money to make a strenuous campaign for the nomination was given by Mr. Bell as his reason for withdrawing. This leaves Jack Magladry and Walter B. Jones in the field.

Mr. Bell was elected four years ago to succeed Senator E. D. Cusick of Albany. Under a gentleman's agreement, Linn and Lane county alternate for the republican nomination of state senator. Mr. Cusick has filed again this year for his former office and friends of Mr. Bell urged him to remain in the senate if possible by making the race for the senatorship for Lane county, at present filled by Jones. While in the senate Mr. Bell made many friends among his colleagues who were desirous of seeing him remain, and it was because of their urging as well as Lane county people that he decided to file, he says.

However, Mr. Bell has reconsidered his action and issued the following statement: "I have neither the time, the inclination nor the money to enter into a strenuous campaign for the nomination. In justice to myself, my family and my business asso-
