Lausanne Guild Will Hold Sale

The initial activity of the recently organized Lausanne Guild will be a cooked food sale, which will be held in Stiff's furniture store Saturday, from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. Miss Frances Richards, dean of Lausanne hall, is president of the organization, and Mrs. William Brown is presiding.

Members are contributing the articles to be placed on sale, and are soliciting similar offerings from their friends. Cooked food of numerous kinds will be given to sell, a special feature to be hand colored Easter eggs.

All money realized from this effort will be used to fill in and beautify the grounds surrounding Lausanne hall. As soon as the grounds are brought to a necessary level, a competent landscape architect will map out the grounds, some shrubbery and vines already having been donated by interested Salemites.

It is the ambition of Guild members to not only make the grounds beautiful and interesting to the youthful dwellers at the hall, but to create a spot that will be a credit to the city as well.

Mrs. E. T. Barnes heads the committee in charge of the sale, and she is being directly assisted by Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Mrs. G. H. Allen, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. E. C. Richards and Dean Frances Richards.

Prof. Sites to Be In Charge of Concert

The latest and most attractive announcement in connection with the forthcoming military ball is that Dr. John R. Sites is to be in charge of the concert that is to precede dancing. This will be given at 8 o'clock, and continue until 9. Solo work will be featured, flute, cornet and other instruments to be employed.

The grand march, led by Gov. and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, will start promptly at 9 o'clock.

Dallas Scores Big Success In Cantata

The sacred cantata Ruth, produced in Dallas Monday night, by the Dallas Choral club, resulted not only in a splendid musical triumph for that place, but brought new laurels to Miss Sadie Pratt, a gifted young Salem girl, vocal pupil of Dr. John R. Sites.

This concert was first given in the Dallas Christian church, Sunday, March 12th, and was such a pronounced success that it was repeated this week. Credit largely is due Mrs. Mary H. Parrish, director, whose work whipped the large chorus into its highly finished shape. Several Salem musicians motored over Monday night to attend the affair, all pronouncing the cantata musical, dramatic and most interesting throughout. The affair took place in the Majestic theater.

The principals were, Ruth, Mrs. Bernice Bove; Naomi, Miss Sadie Pratt; Orpah, Mrs. Parrish; Boaz, Errett A. Woods, John W. Orr.

In the chorus were the following: Sopranos, Mrs. Laura Ebbe, Mrs. Mildred Berg, Mrs. Anna Imbler, Mrs. Frances Halton, Mrs. Lillie Guthrie, Mrs. Willa Loban, Miss Bessie Seyron, Mrs. Emma Koster, Mrs. Bertha Parsons, Mrs. Ione Lee, Miss Addie Martin, Mrs. Mabel Van Orsdel, Miss Ruby Ramsey, Mrs. Ethel Odell, Miss Florence Hibberd, Mrs. Lulu Robinson, Miss Miriam Hart.

Second sopranos, Miss Flora Brown, Miss Mary Cerny, Miss Ione Imbler, Mrs. Van Erden, Miss Beaula Potter, Miss Cleo Guy, Miss Bernice Newbill, Mrs. Leah C. Whitney.

Altos, Miss Adah Campbell, Miss Dora Hayes, Miss Bessie Gooch, Mrs. Marie Thessen, Mrs. Mamie Potter, Miss Opal Robb.

Basses, Erret A. Woods, F. M. Parrish, R. R. Imbler, George Gohrke.

Quartette, Miss Roxana Fiske, Miss Bessie Gooch, John Cerny, F. M. Parrish.

The last half of the program was composed of a piano solo by Miss Elizabeth Hayter; readings by Miss Katherine Arbutnot; vocal solos by Miss Sadie Pratt, and community singing.

At a glance, it will be seen that the chorus is composed largely of young folk, with the result that the voices are fresh and beautiful. Dallas is doing much for its youth in a musical way—setting an example that might well be followed by other valley places.

These singers will, for the most part be heard when Salem puts on the oratorio, "Creation," May 26th. Through this cooperation musically, the two places are being cemented in a way that portends well for the future.

Writer's Section Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Modern Writer's section of the Arts league, which was to have been held this evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Nelson, has been postponed, owing to illness in the Nelson family. The meeting will be held next Monday night at the residence of Mrs. Byron F. Brunk, 1545 Highland avenue.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains and before and after my marriage. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."—Mrs. Wm. JOHNSON, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to a run down condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. Why not to yours?
