

PLANS MADE TO REHABILITATE HOG INDUSTRY

By C. M. McAllister

We are familiar with the fact that there is a serious shortage of hogs in Oregon as well as other states of the Pacific northwest. We have been aware of the fact that large shipments of live hogs have been brought into the Oregon market centers from as far east as the Dakotas and Kansas. It has been apparent for some time, especially since the price of wheat has come down that the farmers of Oregon can profitably go into the raising of hogs for market. It may be interesting to review at this time what has been accomplished in the way of increasing hog production in Oregon in the past two or three months.

Around the first of the year it was comparatively easy to assemble a carload of breeding sows for sale; in fact several such sales were held, and wherever good breeding sows were offered in a sale, they brought prices satisfactory to the seller, as well as the buyer. It is apparent now that brood sows have been scattering out over the farms of Oregon, not only through carload sales but in sales of one, two or three head, with the result that at the present time it seems next thing to impossible to find a brood sow that is for sale. Apparently so far as the supply of brood sows in Oregon is concerned, they are being put to the maximum use. In the past two or three months quite a large number of good quality brood sows have gone through the Portland Union Livestock market to the killers. Steps have been taken now by the Livestock Exchange and the Portland Union Stock Yards Company whereby no good piglet brood sows are allowed to be killed, but whenever offered they are picked up and put in a special division in the stock yards where they are immunized and held for sale to the farmers of the Pacific Northwest at practically pork prices. Quite a business is being done in these brood sows at the

Bottle Tossed in Sea in 1919 Brings Note

Wooster, Ohio, April 20.—While returning home from overseas service aboard the George Washington, and while former President Wilson was addressing the men on board, Leonard Forrer, Orrille, threw a bottle overboard on July 4, 1919.

In the bottle was a note containing the request that the finder "drop me a line."

A few days ago Forrer received the following:

"Wakeley Hill, North Wairhampton, England, Dear Sir:—While walking on the sands of St. David's, a small city situated on the south coast of Wales, where I have been staying for a holiday, I found the enclosed letter in a bottle. I hope you had a pleasant voyage and reached home quite safely. Hoping you will receive this letter from your friend of the sea, I am stock yards at the present time. On account of so many hogs arriving at the market, it will be probably possible to assemble as many as a carload of these brood sows on fairly short notice. This indicates that every effort is being made to conserve the hog breeding stock of Oregon at this time. It is possible that the point may be reached where it will be necessary to bring in brood sows from outside points because the demand is so strong. Here is an opportunity for farmers living within a radius of fifty miles or so of the stock yards at North Portland, and who want one or two of the piglet sows, to get what they want at reasonable prices. Write the Portland Union Stock yards company at North Portland if you are interested.

Salem police yesterday were requested by Albany officers to be on the look out for Joseph Kula, 15, and Kenneth Riddler, 15, both of whom were reported to have run away from their homes. Each of the boys is about five feet tall and dark complexioned. This morning officers had no trace of the youths.

FOUR SEEK ONE OFFICE IN POLK

Dallas, April 20.—Everything is set for the primary election May 19, all candidates now being fairly before the electorate.

So far as Polk county is concerned the big "scrap" will be for county commissioner. Four candidates are seeking the republican nomination for this position with but one running for the democratic nomination for the same position.

The republican candidates are William Riddell, Jr., George D. Stewart, T. J. Graves and William Ellis. This end of the campaign has been lively for some time and promises to be still more interesting as the primary election approaches. All efforts to get against Mr. Graves have been of no avail. At the opening of the formal fight the Graves supporters are claiming an easy victory. What will be their attitude after a couple of weeks of campaigning is another question.

Ira C. Mehring of Falls City, former postmaster of that city, is the democratic candidate. A. B. Muir, the Dallas man, who was generally discussed in connection with the office, decided it were wiser not to cast his name. This was after he and Mr. Mehring had indulged in a general pow-wow. This assures the nomination to Mr. Mehring.

Three men are of the firm conviction that they could grace one of the swivel back chairs in legislative halls, that is as far as the lower house is concerned, with no democratic candidate to say them nay. They are F. O. Powell, D. E. Fletcher and G. O. Holman.

There has appeared on the horizon one lone candidate for republican nomination for joint member of the lower house from Polk and Lincoln counties, in the person of B. F. Jones of Toledo. No disciple of Jefferson had the courage to file for this position.

There are two candidates for state senator from Polk and Benton counties. They are A. J. Johnson of Corvallis and E. H. Belknap of Monroe, both in Benton county. Mr. Johnson held this position on a previous occasion and was later state bank examiner. Mr. Belknap is a "tiller of the soil" and is just finishing a term in the lower house.

BELFAST RIOTS RESUMED; RIFLE FIRE IS INTENSE

Belfast, April 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Sniping was renewed today at the scene of last night's fierce riot and two persons were wounded. Mary Keehan, who was shot yesterday, is dead, bringing the death toll since Tuesday to eight, of whom four were killed last night.

Police Sergeant Brun, who was wounded last Thursday, died today.

Sniping Prevalent.

Dublin, April 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Last night was worst Dublin has experienced since Easter, so far as noise is concerned. The residents were kept awake by continuous rifle and machine gun fire and the noise of military lorries rushing to the relief of places attacked, but thus far only one casualty has been reported.

Several buildings occupied by the provisional free state government and guarded by official troops, were attacked, according to the last edition of the morning newspapers.

Headquarters of the provisional free state government were attacked but despite terrific firing, entry was not effected. The city hall and the telephone exchange also were heavily assaulted.

According to reports from an independent source, midnight had scarcely passed when heavy revolver firing was heard. Firing also was observed from the old general postoffice.

Heavy Firing Heard.

Occasionally the sharp cracking of revolvers and automatics was almost silenced by the heavier reports of rifles and later, when armored cars belonging to the regulars appeared, there was the quick exchange of machine guns.

At about 12:30 o'clock there was a comparative lull, but 20 minutes later several rapid vol-

Convict Carves Table for Attorney-General

Washington, April 20.—A handsome teakwood table of rare design stands in the attorney general's office at Washington.

It is a specimen of the skill and workmanship of a convict at Atlanta prison. The table was a gift to Attorney General Daugherty. It was sent to him with the compliments of the man who is confined behind penitentiary bars for a serious crime.

They were fired, but the uproar soon subsided.

Meanwhile firing of considerable intensity accompanied by bomb explosions, was heard in other parts of the city, especially the neighborhood garrisoned by troops acting under the authority of the general headquarters of the Irish republican army. It is not known whether the building was attacked.

Armored cars later patrolled the center of the city and everybody on the streets was searched. A party of men in a motor car speeded up when challenged by troops in an armored car and were pursued and fired on by the military.

Many windows in the telephone exchange were smashed by bullets, and work there was suspended for an hour.

Regular forces on patrol were fired on from house tops.

A statement from official sources says that Brigadier General Slattery and a party of men in uniform in a car were fired on at 11:30 o'clock last night, the car was riddled with bullets and one of the passengers wounded.

Later another party of regulars conveyed a priest to a hospital in a motor car, escorting him in an armored automobile because of the dangerous condition of the streets.

Kings Inn and the Green street court house both have been occupied by regular Irish republican army troops. The provisional government intends using the latter as a place for the sittings of the high court.

1902-1922 OUR 20th ANNIVERSARY A Score of Years of Achievement!

THE success of the J. C. Penney Company constitutes an important chapter in the history of mercantile achievement in the United States. In commemoration of the Company's Twentieth Year in business, plans have been completed to open more than 50 new stores this Fall.

We naturally feel proud of this achievement of a score of years, but we fully appreciate that its accomplishment was made possible only by the hearty support accorded us by our legion of friends.
