RAAS HERE AGAIN FOR CHERRIES; PRICES GOOD

A. C. Raas, representing Lyons California Grace Fruit company, is in Salem buying cherries for his firm.

Mr. Raas offers the highest market price at the opening of the Royal Anne season with an extra five dollars a ton for the grower for his time in hauling them to Salem if the distance be within a radius of 8 to 12 miles.

The cherries are packed in barrels and shipped to California. This necessitates early picking which is a good feature for the grower.

"I have bought cherries in Salem and vicinity for the past 12 years," states Mr. Raas, "and I am always glad to come back. Large stocks of Italian cherries will be shipped into the United States this year but we don't like to buy outside cherries if we can get them in Oregon and California, and each year we make special efforts to handle all of the Salem cherries that the growers will let us have."

Mr. Raas will remain at the Marion hotel until next Wednesday when he will leave for San Francisco, returning again the latter part of May.

TRANSPORTATION ACT ENDORSED BY DONNELLY

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 21.—The federal transportation act of 1920 was endorsed by Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific railroad in an address at the international dinner of the traffic club of Pittsburgh last night.

Almost 1000 railroad men from all parts of the country were present. "Whatever are the merits or demerits of the transportation act," said Mr. Donnelly, "after removing the confusion caused by the conflict of state and federal acts, all recognize in it an interest and intelligent effort to harmonize the measure of regulation which it is thought the public demands with private operation, and with a due regard for the interests of the owners of these carrier properties. The opinion is entertained widely that if it breaks down government ownership would ensue."

OVERDORF CARD STANDS; BOUTS STAGED TONIGHT

The card of the company F smoker tonight as arranged by Jack Oberdorf stands as announced with no substitutions in prospect.

"Frankie" Krites, who is in on the headline bout with "Battling" Sylverson of Salem came down from Newberg a few days ago and has been putting the finishing touches on his training under the watchful eye of the Salem matchmaker who hopes to put Krites on with Dawson of Eugene as the headliner for his May bouts.

Everybody believes that Sylverson will put up a battle. He always has, though his punch, which has been considerably re-titled since his last bout here, has held him back. At least Salem fans are with the home lad and hope he wins.

Oberdorf has been wonderfully fortunate in not having any of his preliminary bouts backfire on him. Phil Bayes and Jack May are to do the semi-final in six rounds while the remaining two preliminaries are between Roy Bovler of Salem and Graves of Independence and Jack Movin and Ted Montgomery.
