Butterflies In Beautiful Ball Tonight

A real fairies' ball is the treat in store tonight and tomorrow afternoon for the people of Salem in the form of "Butterflies Ball" to be given at the Grand theatre by dancing pupils of Mrs. Ralph White. The event is a tremendous undertaking, and those who watch the performance will readily realize that the fairy dancers have been tirelessly trained and painstakingly costumed and that the work was not accomplished by so slight an effort as the stroke of a fairy wand.

Mothers and sponsors consider all their labor well spent, for in addition to giving an entertainment which is wonderfully delightful a children's ward in the new Salem hospital will be benefited. The children who have practiced so faithfully have felt this urge too and have been the more faithful because they knew they were helping.

A pretty fairy story is woven about the many little dances and a brief resume of the principal events is given here. In addition to the names given there are many other children who appear in the groups.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem, and Clarence Bishop, of Portland, departed today for Brownsville to be present there tonight for a grand opening and celebration in observance of the opening of the Bishop woolen mills at that place. It has been sixty years since the industry operated there and the affair is being given tonight prior to the installation of machinery. Thomas Kay, father of Mrs. Bishop, came out from New Jersey and established the industry in Brownsville about sixty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop plan to return to Salem tomorrow.

Mrs. Marie Flint Bride of Mr. McCall

The wedding of Mrs. Marie A. Flint and William F. McCall was solemnized last night at the residence of Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett, the judge officiating at the marriage service. The couple is well known in Salem and both Mr. and Mrs. McCall are prominent in fraternal circles.

Grand Ball Pretty And Impressive

From the stately and spectacular grand march to the very final dance last night, the grand military ball given by military organizations of Salem to benefit the hospital fund of the Salem chapter American War Mothers was a huge success. And adding most materially to the evening's enjoyment was the hour of music directed by Dr. John R. Sites which proceeded the event. At that time many of Salem's prominent musicians appeared.

The grand march, led by Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Oloott was an auspicious opening, and was done in true military style, the couples joining again and again until they marched across the floor the final time sixteen abreast. American flags, placed all about the big armory hall, were a most appropriate setting for the military event.

Many beautiful gowns were in evidence, some of the most striking coming to the floor toward the close of the evening. The event was especially impressive to watch—as the couples flashed by, the men in uniform or civilian formal dress suits, the women in formal evening gowns. Those who danced found the music and the floor enjoyable and remained until the final number.

Representatives were present from Portland, Corvallis, Silverton, Dallas and other towns. It is reported that in addition to being a success socially, the financial outcome was especially good as well. Punch was served by the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Walter J. Kirk headed the committee and those who dispensed were Priscilla Fry, Izzetta Walker, Florence Howe and Miss Jones.

The musical numbers of the evening were very much enjoyed and were enthusiastically applauded. The numbers were the following:
Trio for flute, violin and piano "Serenade," Miss Viola Ash, Messrs. Devier and Sites.
Songs, "Until," "The Lilac Tree," Mrs. H. C. Brumbaugh, accompanied by Lucille Ross.
Violin, Meditation from "Thais," Miss Viola Ash, accompanied by John R. Sites.
Trio, "Au Printemps," Bruce Putnam, Misses Ash, Putnam and Mr. Hicks.
"Indian Song," Mrs. O. B. Glingrich, accompanied by Miss Ruth Bedford.

Songs, "I know a Lane in Spring time," "Sing Me to Sleep," Mrs. Leah Perkins Wyatt, accompanied by John R. Sites, violin obligato, Miss Ash.

Songs, "Morning," "You'll be Coming Back," Mrs. Carlton Smith accompanied by Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr.

Songs, "Pale Moon," "Mammy's Song," Miss Sadie Pratt, accompanied by Helen McInturff.

Mrs. Kirk Federation President

Salem was honored yesterday at the semi-annual meeting of the Marion county federation of Woman's clubs held at Aurora when Mrs. W. E. Kirk was chosen president of the body. She succeeds Mrs. E. N. Hall, of Woodburn. Other officers elected are Mrs. H. B. Latham, Silverton, vice president; Mrs. J. G. Fontaine, Jefferson, secretary; Mrs. Hiram Overton, Woodburn, treasurer; Mrs. J. C. Currie, Willard, auditor; Mrs. J. W. Sadder, Aurora, and Mrs. Scholz, Shaw, directors.

The day was devoted to business and reports, a luncheon at noon and addresses in the afternoon. It was decided to hold the October meeting in Salem when the Salem Woman's club and the Etokta club, formerly known as the North Salem Woman's club, will be joint hostesses. About seventy five women were present for the convention.

Mrs. Lola Baldwin, retiring head of the woman's protective division of the Portland police department, made an interesting and instructive talk on various phases of the work of her department, illustrating with human interest stories. She is much concerned with the dropping of the age of delinquency and stated that her department often had to deal with such cases when the girl is a child of only six years. Mrs. Baldwin served as an overseer of welfare work, going from camp to camp during the war. She stated that she never saw a girl who was properly dressed insulted by anyone. Such things come to those who wear short skirts, low waists, bobbed hair, use lip sticks and smoke cigarettes, she said.

C. M. Panunzio, of Willamette university, made an address on the subject "Americanization as the Immigrant Sees It." He illustrated from his own experiences and those which have come directly to his notice, telling the attitude of different immigrants.

Musical numbers were given during the program by Aurora musicians. Mrs. J. W. Sadder, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Miller, gave a musical reading; Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Robinson played a piano duet.

Women who attended from Salem are: Mrs. L. T. Harris, Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Miss Mattie Beatty, from the Salem Woman's club; Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Frank Toothacre, Mrs. Vick, Mrs. Richard Erickson.

Salem women who attended the convention are especially enthusiastic in their comments of the reception they received yesterday from the Aurora club. The hospitality of the hostess society was most gracious, they state, and much of the success and interest of the convention is due to them. The Aurora women were hostesses for the noon day luncheon and supplied the musical numbers of the program as well as being responsible for the meeting place and other important arrangements.

Former Teacher Will Visit Here

Miss Beatrice Thompson, of Portland, formerly a teacher in the English department of the Salem high school, will visit over the week end at the home of Miss Miriam Lovell. Miss Thompson is now an instructor in the Benson Polytechnic school of Portland and is coming to be present at the high school student body play on Friday night.

Willamette To Feature In Program

The musical program to be given tonight at the First Methodist church by the music department of Willamette university will bring the music week activities practically to a close. The only remaining feature for tomorrow is the concert to be given on the streets by the Chemawa band.

Tonight's program which is being directed by Professor Hobson, follows:

- Organ, Marche Pontificale (Lemmens), Lucile Ross; chorus,
- (a) Fly Singing Bird (Elgar),
- (b) Will o' the Wisp (Spruss),

Ball; cello, (a) Romance (Matys), (b) Gavotte (Popper), Avery Hicks; duo, Kamenoi-Ostrov (Rubenstein), piano, Laura Hoyt, organ, Lucile Ross; vocal, The Winds in the South (Scott), Kathlene La Raut; piano, (a) Shepherd's Hey (Grainger), (b) Octave Etude (Campbell-Tipton), Eugenia Meyers; violin, Ballad and Polonaise (Vieuxtemps), Mary Talmadge Headrick; chorus, (a) The Trumpeter (Salter), (b) Sea Fever (Andrews), Men's glee club.

Miss Pearce Hostess For Modern Drama Club

Miss Helen Pearce on Wednesday night entertained members of the Modern Drama club at her residence. This is a group of young women who have been meeting more or less irregularly every two weeks during the winter. The meetings are most informal in nature, it is said, and the time is spent in reading modern drama. A feature of this week's program was the reading of "Jon" by Miss Odell Savage. This is a one act play written by Miss Savage and has recently been published.

Members of the drama group are Miss Frances Richards, Miss Mirpah Blair, Miss Van Zante, Miss Nelson, Miss Nell Thielson, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Miss Marie Churchill, Miss Alice Holman, Miss Flora Case and Miss Helen Pearce.

Count-On-Me Class Has Meeting

The Count-On-Me class of the First Baptist church held their monthly business and social meeting Wednesday evening in the church parlors. Hostesses were Mrs. Mark Skiff, Mrs. Tweedale, Mrs. Harry Ralph and Miss Noran. The rooms were tastefully decorated with spring flowers. Refreshments were served.

An exceptionally good program in keeping with the spirit of music week was given and included the following numbers: Duet, Schubert's "Hark, Hark, the Lark," Mrs. George O'Neil and Miss Grace Falk; group of songs, Miss Falk; reading, "When Ruby Played," Mrs. Ed Ross; piano solo, Mrs. W. F. Foster.

Daughter is Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington are today being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter last night. She has been named Shirley. Mrs. Huntington, who was formerly Marjorie Kay, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay. Mr. Huntington, arrived yesterday in the early evening from Medford where he is athletic coach in the high school.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Huntington are graduates of the University of Oregon, where Mrs. Huntington was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Huntington was a Phi Delta Theta. They have hosts of friends in Salem, Portland and Eugene. Next year Mr. Huntington will be athletic director of the Salem high school.

Dinner Is Affair of Last Night

Lawrence Hofer last night was host for a sixteen cover dinner at the E. Hofer residence before the military ball at the armory. The early evening following dinner was spent with conversation and later all attended the ball. Table and house decorations were done with yellow tulips.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bynon, of Portland, Miss Allyn Johnson, of Portland, Mrs. G. W. Rosebraugh, of Salem, vice president; Mrs. May Hadley, of Turner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ora A. Bear, Turner, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie McLeilen, West Stayton, treasurer.

Eugene People In Town for Day

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emery, of Eugene, and daughters, Gladys and Helen, were visitors yesterday in Salem. They were on their return from McMinnville where they attended a convention of insurance agents.

Mrs. Dan Fry Entertains Club

Mrs. Dan J. Fry entertained the Wednesday Bridge club this week at her residence. Additional guests were Mrs. J. L. McAllister and Mrs. E. L. McMechan. The society will meet next week at the home of Mrs. W. C. Byer.

Salem Party Will Visit Over Week End in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Egan will form a motor party this week end to Portland. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bynon.

The O. A. C. club will be entertained tomorrow night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carle Abrams.

WCTU of County To Meet Soon

Child welfare and law enforcement will be subjects for special consideration at the Marion county convention of W. C. T. U. to be held Wednesday, April 26, in the W. C. T. U. hall in Salem. Dr. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church of Salem, will read a paper on "Law Enforcement" and Mrs. H. N. Gregg, of Turner, will present a paper on "Child Welfare." Discussion will follow the papers which are to be read in the afternoon.

Matters of interest in connection with the Children's Farm home to be established near Corvallis will be discussed. It is possible that steps will be taken toward further organization in the county to raise funds for the home. Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, of Portland, state campaign manager for the home fund, will probably be present for the convention. Mrs. Unruh was a Salem visitor on Wednesday.

The business meeting of the convention will include reports of officers and election of officers. There will be a memorial service for members who have passed away during the year. Luncheon will be served at noon. Delegates will be chosen to attend the state convention of the organization to be held in October in McMinnville.

Present county officers are Mrs. Sarah E. Oliver, of Salem, president; Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, of Salem, vice president; Mrs. May Hadley, of Turner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ora A. Bear, Turner, recording secretary; Mrs. Jennie McLeilen, West Stayton, treasurer.

Miss Cartwright to Attend Country Club Dance in Portland

Miss Florence Cartwright will depart tonight for Portland where she will be a guest at the home of Mrs. Leonard Raymond Shaver. She is going to attend the opening dance of the season at the Waverly country club. Miss Cartwright was a Portland visitor last week when she went that far with her house guest, Miss Margaret Phy, of Union, who was returning home. Both young women attended the Kreisler concert.

Salem Boy Married Corvallis Girl in Eugene

Alonzo Patchin, of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund J. Patchin of this city, and Miss Hazel Bullis, of Corvallis, were married on February 6 in Eugene. Mr. Patchin is a student at Oregon Agricultural college and following his graduation in Eugene, the couple will make their home in Salem.

Portland People Week End Visitors

Mrs. Harry Perrine Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Raymond Shaver, of Portland, and Miss Constance Cartwright, of The Dalles, were in Salem over last Sunday and were guests at the Richard Cortwright residence.

Insist upon Kellogg's the original Corn Flakes

—they're wonderful

Kellogg flavor and Kellogg crispness are so different that there can be no comparison between Kellogg's Corn Flakes and imitations.

Little folks quickly say, "Get Kellogg's, Mother—please," because Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Kellogg's are always so delicious that big bowls quickly disappear and eager little mouths appeal for more! And big folks appreciate the superiority of Kellogg's because their flavor is so inviting. Kellogg's are wonderful!

Insist upon Kellogg's—the kind in the RED and GREEN box that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!
