SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS

First Steps Taken For A.A.U.W.

With a fair showing of enthusiasm, first steps toward organizing a Salem branch of the American Association of University Women were taken yesterday afternoon at the meeting in the Commercial club when representatives from Eugene's chapter were present. Miss Frances Richards, dean of women at Willamette university, was chosen temporary chairman of the group. Names were taken of those who wish to join and more than the necessary ten signified their interest.

An interesting point made at yesterday's meeting was that although to be branch members or general members of the society one must hold a B. A. degree from one of the accredited colleges, associate membership will be given to one who has had one year of work in an accredited college or to one who has a B. A. degree from an unaccredited college. This provision will include Willamette graduates for associate membership.

Some dissent was voiced at the meeting. One member of the group when asked for her ideas concerning organization said she considered Salem organized and over-organized. She cited the Woman's club and the University of Oregon Alumnae association as scholarship groups already in existence. She referred to the Mary Spiller scholarship of the University of Oregon, kept up by alumnae of the university. By joining national organizations, she said, money needed in Oregon is diverted into other channels.

The need of an organization exclusively for college women was sounded by other speakers, one in particular telling of her recent arrival in the city and the desire to be associated with women of similar interests. The point that the organization would bring women just out of college in contact with older alumnae for mutual benefit was well received. And the possibility of international work was touched by one of the speakers.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh introduced the visitors who were Mrs. Sarah Tingle, president of the Eugene branch, Mrs. Eric W. Allen and Miss Louise Fitch, all active members of the Eugene chapter and widely known throughout the state for their club work. Each of the visitors gave information concerning methods of procedure for organizing, membership requirements and advantages to be derived from the accredited list.

Those eligible to membership who signified their interest were the following: Mable Brownell, Gertrude McGilchrist, Adelaide Lake, Mrs. Raymond Walsh and Marie Churchill, of University of Oregon; Susie Miller Klein, Vassar; Susan H. Chaffee, Carleton; Francis M. Richards, University of Michigan; Inez J. Goitra, Reed; Mrs. George H. Alden, Carleton; Mrs. William Kuser, Wellesley; Mrs. James H. Fairchild, Pomona college and University of Illinois; Miss Flora Case, University of Illinois.

Those interested in associate memberships were: Doris C. Weller, Eileen T. Hall, Mrs. Marlon S. Downs, University of Oregon; Lucille Boise, Ohio State; Helen Pearce, Willamette university; Mrs. Ruth Chapman, Earlham; Mrs. Iva H. Kirk, Nebraska Wesleyan; Mrs. Myrta M. Richards, Boston university, Morningside.

Another meeting for election of officers and other important business will be held soon. Other Eugene women who were present at yesterday's meeting were Mrs. Morgan Watson and Mrs. Herbert Clark.

Bouffant Skirts With Novel Basque Effects

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

WHAT more can one ask of Fashion than that she retain the basque dress in its entrancingly youthful interpretation and add a few distinctly new touches to set it definitely apart from its predecessors? Surely she would not consider that it be laid aside as long as its development contains any such delightful possibilities as this model of brown taffeta with collar and overskirt sections of organdie in a slightly lighter tone.

Two groups of pin tucks arranged in horizontal band effect in the underskirt combine with the crispness of taffeta and organdie to emphasize the bouffant note in the skirt. Indicating each deep scallop of the overskirts are oval rosettes of cream colored Val.

The decidedly flared cuff attached at a point high on the sleeve, which is certainly not far removed from a drop-shoulder armhole line, is a piquant note entirely in harmony with the youthfulness of the other details of the design.

WILLAMETTE STUDENTS LEARNING CLASS SONGS

For the first time in the history of freshman glee music contests at Willamette university the student body is learning the class songs written for the occasion of the contest. The initial purpose of the freshman glee was to create some college songs that would be sung by the college students. But always heretofore only a favored chorus here and there has been immortalized by being sung as a school song.

Usually the selection of even this favorite two or three choruses has been left to the private initiative of the university quartet, which would be using these in serenading. But this year Mildred Streyer, the school song leader, arranged for the entire student body to learn all four songs. These have been learned and are now ready for singing in group form upon Saturday night during the lawn frolic of May day. They will also be sung upon as many other occasions during May day program as groups of students can be gathered together.

How to make greater use of the package of KINGSFORD'S CORN STARCH in your kitchen

It is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using 1/4 cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to each cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content is increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake.

If your recipe calls for four eggs to one quart of milk, use three eggs, and for the egg omitted use one-half tablespoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch. For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessertspoonful of Kingsford's instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour.

For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with one-fourth cup of Kingsford's and three-fourths cup wheat flour.

What's New on the Market

By REX STEWART

Cantaloupe arrived today in a shipment of fruit and will be on the market tomorrow. They have never arrived in Salem so early before, and commission men were surprised at their appearance. June has heretofore been the date of their arrival. What their retail price will be is uncertain.

The first of the Columbia river salmon since the opening of the season, May 1, was on the market today selling for 30 cents a pound, which is rather high. Fishermen are receiving 13 and 15 cents in the round which accounts for the high retail price. The market looks like it might go up instead of down.

If salmon is too high, buy shad at 15 cents or sturgeon at 25. They are both excellent eating. Though shad is a little boney, Silver perch and fresh herring will also be on the market tomorrow.

New potatoes are scarce at this time, but will be in greater supply by Saturday and are expected to be somewhat cheaper than the former price of 20 cents a pound.

No Disappointments

Millions of housewives use Calumet Baking Powder because of its dependability—because when they place their baking in the oven, they know it will "turn out" all right. They are confident of results because they know that no matter what they bake—pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins—the results will be the same—light, perfectly raised, wholesome foods.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER never disappoints. Don't prepare bakings with expensive ingredients and then have them spoiled because of an inferior leavener. Have the same assurance that the majority of other housewives have. A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
