FIVE CANDIDATES TO BE NAMED ON RECALL BALLOTS

Five names will go on the two recall ballots for the special election, May 19, according to Secretary of State Kozer based upon filings up to closing time of his office Monday afternoon.

Fred G. Buchtel, present incumbent, will be opposed in the western Oregon district by Newton McCoy of Portland, nominee of the Duncan convention, and by Edward Ostrander of Portland, nominee of the West-Balley convention.

Linn Not Candidate.
Fred A. Williams, chairman of the commission and representative of the state at large, will be opposed only by a. M. Kerrigan of Portland who was nominated by the Duncan convention as a running mate of Newton McCoy. James R. Linn of Salem, president who was nominated by the West-Balley convention as a candidate against Williams today declared that he would not accept the nomination. Without his acceptance the certificate of nomination which was filed with the secretary of state this afternoon is void.

On the official certification of the recall ballot which Secretary of State Kozer will forward to all county clerks Tuesday will be a brief explanation of the demand for the recall election as set forth on the recall petitions. There will also be brief statements from both Buchtel and Williams in justification of their course in office.

Buchtel States Stand.
In his statement of justification Buchtel makes use of a number of excerpts from newspaper editorials expressing confidence in the members of the commission and declaring against the recall, and concluding with this statement:

"When I assumed office I took a solemn oath to faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of such office. Having kept that oath and my pre-election pledges without regard to personal or political consequences I willingly submit my case into the hands of the people for their verdict."

The postal department's position on the matter of daylight saving is made clear in a communication received from Washington by Postmaster August Huckelstein this morning. It says, in part: "Postmasters will be held responsible for the prompt handling of the mails and any changes of schedule deemed expedient to conform to the provisions of local or state laws regarding daylight saving may be inaugurated provided such changes comply with the laws governing hours of service of post office employees and will not cause delay or impair the service."

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since. I have taken seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings."—Mrs. B. LANSER, 1638 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble. Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

OLCOTT TO SING IRISH MELODIES

In his new play, "Ragged Robin," fairies attend the tuneful hero, for it is a sort of Irish "Peter Pan," and fully as delightful and entertaining as that famous play. Of course, it is a typical Olcott offering, as regards its romance, clean humor and tuneful songs. This is the recipe that has made him loved, respected and wealthy otherwise, and be it known, Mr. Olcott is a good business man as well as a good actor.

No bedroom farces, triangle plots of sex-problem plays for him: He has his own recipe which never fails to satisfy the amusement palate of his clientele. Here it is: The love of a man for a maid, complications galore, frustrated villainy, plenty of laugh-making incidents, a happy ending; the whole garnished with tuneful melodies of the "old sod."

A scenario writer does to equal literature what the average contractor does to real architecture.
