Cast In Each Picture Is Announced

Interest is keen in the personnel of the cast for the living picture exhibition to be given at the armory Saturday night as an event in the Willamette May festival thirty seven Salem people will pose in the thirteen masterpieces of famous artists which will be reproduced. Daily rehearsals have been held for weeks and every care has been taken to have the slightest detail of the picture correct in the reproduction.

The pictures and the cast for each will be named in the following account in the order they will be shown at the exhibition. Each person has been chosen because of the likeness to the pictured figure.

Mrs. Ward Willis Long will pose in Raphael's "Madonna of the Chair," her baby will be Wilona Putnam and Margaret Bell will be the older child, young John the Baptist. Mrs. John R. Hines is the figure in Titian's "Artist's Daughter." Edward Hays will be Hals' "Laughing Cavalier."

"Children of Charles Stuart" (Van Dyke) will have as its cast Clayton Robertson, as Baby Stuart; Janet Green, as Princess Mary; and William Trindle, as Charles. The dog, which is the fourth member of the group belongs to R. W. Niles. Members of the Apollo club who will represent the six figures in "Syndics of the Guild" (Rembrandt) are K. DeWitte, Albert H. Gilie, A. Hansen, Lyman McDonald, John Moritz and R. H. Robertson.

Figures in Murillo's "Melon Sellers" will be posed by William Henson and Jack Harbison. Miss Agnes Zieher will pose as Romney's "Elizabeth Currie" and Adolph as Gainsborough's "Blue Boy."

The picture "Madame Lebrun and Daughter" (Lebrun) has as its figures Mrs. Frederick Thielson and Mildred Roberts. Miss Catherine Carson, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Miss Molly Schwabauer form the cast of figures in the Japanese painting "Hanging the Kakemono" (Yeshi). The figure in "Carmencita" (Sargent) is posed by Mrs. Asahel Bush.

Mrs. Ida M. Babcock is the figure in Whistler's "Mother." "The Quest of the Holy Grail" (Abbey) will have as its cast students at Sacred Heart academy, including Miss Teresa Albrich, Miss Genevieve Deranleau, Miss Genevieve Deranleau, Miss Margaret Keenan, Miss Mary Irons, Miss Mary Lebold, Miss Pauline Savage, Miss Kathryn Savage, Miss Florence Smith, Francis Alley and Clifford Deranleau.

Writers' Section
 Regular Session
 The Writers' section of the Salem Arts league met last night with Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith. Original manuscripts were read. Edwin Sherwood read two of her poems, "When Mother Goes Vote" and "My Home." Miss Alfred Bunch read the poem "Life is Like a Briar Rose" and "Mother's Day." Other poems were contributed by Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. F. S. Barton, who read "Canterbury Bells," Miss Grace Smith who gave "The Camp," written in free verse, and "Mother's Daughter" and Mrs. W. Fargo, who read several of her poems. Miss Minna Harding contributed two of her stories and Mrs. Blanche Jones read an editorial entitled "The Fitness of Things." Refreshments were served by Miss Smith.

Patriotic Orders Plan Memorial Observance

The Grand Army of the Republic and its auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, together with other patriotic organizations are making elaborate plans for the observance of Memorial day. The decorations at the G. A. R. circle this year will be uniform in nature, each grave being covered with greenery and a wreath of flowers placed in the center of the mound.

In furtherance of this plan the W. R. C. are asking all auxiliaries of patriotic orders to join with them at ten o'clock Monday, May 29th, at the armory and they are expected to aid in securing flowers and suitable evergreen.

Iris Show Is Set For June First

Plans for an Iris show to be held in Salem June 1 and 2 at the Marion hotel were made last night at the Commercial club at a meeting of a committee of the Salem Floral society. The Iris show will be the first of a series of monthly displays to be put on by the society during the flower season.

Mrs. Fred S. Stewart is president of the Salem Floral society. Members of the committee for the Iris show are Mrs. H. J. Clements, John Giesy, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Frank G. Deckebach and Arthur M. Vassal. The date decided upon for the show was chosen because from weather indications it is thought that the finest varieties of Iris will be in blossom then.

Six exhibitors have already signed up for the show and the Floral society is asking for others. The six are Dr. H. J. Clements, Professor Florian Von Schlen, E. Hofer, Mrs. James Culver, Homer H. Smith and Monroe Gilbert. Anyone who has any other kind of flowers which are especially good are asked to bring them for the show.

The Iris show will be held in the grill room of the Marion hotel, which has been donated by A. N. Pierce, and will be open Thursday afternoon and evening and all day on Friday. Hostesses will be present to explain the different displays.

Salem is especially pretty at this season of the year and those who have been about the city have been impressed with the beauty of the different yards. The shrubs at the Curtis Cross residence, at 366 North Capitol street are attracting attention, as are the colorful tulip beds in the Louis Lachmund yard at 925 Court street. The wisteria on the front porch of the residence of Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, 1465 Chemeketa street, is an impressive sight and the pergola at the Thomas Kay home, at 825 Court street, is covered with a mass of the same color. The shrubs in the state house grounds are at their best now and four bushes of Japanese azalea in the east end of the grounds are quite worth going to see. The thorn trees, which have rose pink blossoms, are in blossom now about town and are supplying many pretty spots of color.

Mrs. A. M. Chapman Hostess for Amicus Club
 Mrs. A. M. Chapman was hostess yesterday for members of the Amicus club. The time was spent socially with needle work and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Chapman. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. C. H. Stewart, of Hutchinson, Kansas, and Mrs. Gertrude Haughton, of Los Angeles. The club will hold a luncheon in about three weeks.

Woman's Alliance Will Meet Friday

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church, will meet on Friday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, 290 North Front street.

High School Classes Plan for Masquerade

Members of the junior and senior classes at Salem high school are planning for a masquerade party on Friday night at the school house.

NO GORGEOUS GOWNS IN NEW CLAYTON FILM

Ethel Clayton, popular Paramount star, who recently has been seen in several society dramas in which she wore some of the most gorgeous creations in feminine wearing apparel ever designed, plays the neatly tailored office girl and later the economical housewife, in her latest starring vehicle, "Her Own Money," which opens at the Liberty theater next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Clayton is seen as a stenographer who marries an extravagant real estate agent, and as his wife makes personal sacrifices and practices the strictest economy in order to balance his indiscretions as a spender. By the most rigid saving, she manages to save two thousand dollars from her household allowances; intending to buy a little home. But the time comes when her husband must have some money and, knowing he will not consider it an obligation if she gives her savings to him direct, she makes it appear that a friend is loaning it to him. In time this arrangement is revealed by the jealous wife of the friend and the husband quarrels with his wife and in a rage leaves her. After some dramatic complications all ends happily.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCroskey of this city, and Mrs. E. A. Farrington, of Eugene, returned to Salem today after spending Tuesday visiting in Portland. They made the trip by automobile.
