Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Kuser, Mrs. E. A. Jaquins, Mrs. Louise F. Brickell and Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall.

Iris Show Today and Tomorrow

The Iris show, given under the auspices of the Salem Floral society, opened today in the grill room of the Hotel Marlon. The exhibit will be open this afternoon, this evening and all day tomorrow and many flower lovers are expected to be visitors. Those who have in their gardens other interesting flowers were asked to display them.

The committee in charge of the Iris show is headed by Mrs. H. J. Clements and includes John Giesy, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Frank G. Dekebach, Mrs. Arthur M. Vassal, Mrs. Fred S. Stewart is president of the Floral society. Six exhibitors of Iris are Dr. Clements, Professor Florian Von Eachen, E. Hofer, Mrs. James Culver, Homer H. Smith and Monroe Gilbert.

When visited this morning the exhibit included only display of Dr. and Mrs. Clements' flowers. They are showing at least 100 varieties of Iris, now at the height of their blooming season. In addition they are showing a jar of beautiful scarlet poppies and a specimen Juliet rose. Dr. and Mrs. Clements probably have the most complete collection of Iris in the city. Their grounds are full of Iris beds and the cultivation of the flower is a hobby with Dr. Clements. His conservative estimate is that he has in his grounds 25 varieties of Holland Spanish Iris; 12 varieties of Siberian Iris; 100 named varieties of Japanese Iris and about 250 seedling varieties of Japanese Iris; 150 varieties of bearded Iris; 15 varieties of Spanish Iris and 15 various irises which fall into other groups.

One of the most striking types on display occupies the center of the long table in the exhibit. It is called the Catarina and has an immense lavender blossom. From the top of the tallest bloom to the ground the flower measures 46 inches. Another interesting variety is the water iris, grown in the Clements' garden on the bank of Mill creek, where the plant is covered with water most of the year. There are two colors of the water iris, one a gold and the other blue.

The Iris shades range around lavender, yellow, gold and brown and there seems to be scarcely any thing out of these colors. The exhibit, which opens this afternoon, will be a beautiful thing to look at in addition to the information in the matter of Iris to be derived from attending. Each variety is in a vase by itself and is labeled. Dozens of small vases were donated for the occasion by William Gahlsdorf. The grill room was furnished for the exhibit by the hotel.

The public is invited to attend the exhibit. Hostesses have been provided to preside for the two days. Mrs. W. P. Lord and Mrs. Fredrick Lampert are hostesses for this afternoon and Mrs. Fred S. Stewart and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris will be hostesses tonight. During tomorrow Mrs. Lowell Tweedie and Mrs. Ennis Watt will preside.

Women of City Attend Exhibition

A program of special interest which took a number of Salem people to Eugene was the formal opening and dedication of the Murray Warner collection of Oriental art on Monday at the University of Oregon. The collection was presented to the University of Oregon art museum by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner. The exercises took place in the Woman's building at 2:30.

Among those attending from this city were Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. W. P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord. Dr. P. L. Campbell, president of University of Oregon, presided at the program. Addresses were made by Dr. Campbell and Judge Charles H. Carey. A speech in behalf of the students was made by Lyle Bartholomew, of Salem, president of the associated students. He assured Mrs. Warner that the students would gain information and inspiration from the collection.

Among the many classes of subjects which comprise the Warner collection, the most interesting to some is the large group of priceless tapestries, brocades, embroideries and textiles of ancient China and old Japan. One of the tapestries is 16 feet long and 6 feet wide and is valued at $10,000. A large collection of porcelain is included in the display. Do you know all about these new and money-saving uses for Kingsford's Corn Starch?

It is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using 1/4 cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to 1/2 cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake. If your recipe calls for 4 eggs to 1 quart of milk, use 3 eggs and for the egg omitted use 1/2 tablespoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch. For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessert spoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch, instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour. For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with one-fourth cup of Kingsford's and three-fourths cup wheat flour.

A little Kingsford's Corn Starch dusted on top of cakes before icing prevents the frosting from running off. A quarter teaspoonful of Kingsford's put into each of your salt-shakers will prevent salt caking. Pastry made with Kingsford's Corn Starch makes lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins.
