Delegates to the annual convention of the state grange, in session here today were considering two question which are under de bate, one relating to the present method of election of officers of the state grange, and the other an issue raised by a resolution providing for compulsory attendance at state schools by all children in the state between the nges of 6 and 16 years. The lat-ter question was before the committee on education. The grange was on record toin favor of denying orientals the right to lease or own land in the state and denying all Orientals privileges of citizenship. Resolutions to this effect were manimously adopted. The grange also adopted a resolution criticising judges for laxity in enforcement of the prohibition law:

A resolution oposing a federal ales tax was adopted without debate, and another one was adopted instructing the national grange to take up with congress the question of exempting grange entertainments for tax, on the ground that they were educational in scope.

Delegates today went on tour of Yambill county and were to reconvene late today and selest next year's meeting place. The district will enjoy the hon-or of having the general president, had extended an invitation this morning.

Arguments in the case of the now before the supreme court on appeal from the decree of the Douglas county circuit court, have been set for 23. Brumfield is now under sentence of death for the murder of Dennis Russell, Douglas county hermit. His appeal to the supreme court is based largely upon failure lower court to grant his ples for a change of venue. Constitutionality of the capital pun-ishment act is also attacked in the appeal. Brumfield was sentenced to hang last January but appeal of his case to the supreme court, however, automatically stays the execution of his sentence pending action on his case by the higher court.
