A bower of spring flowers and green was fashioned on the beautiful lawn at the Sherwood residence and it was there that yown vere repeated. Pedestals, bearing ouquets of mock orange arranged with pink blossoms, formed an aisle to the alter. All appoint-ments were simple but very lovely and the spot chosen for the service seemed an out-of-doors temple. A color scheme of pink and white was used throughout the decorations. Following the service. the wedding breakfast was served

The bride's costume was a white satin fashioned with Spanish overlace with pearls. Her bouquet was a shower of Cecil Brun-ner roses and maldenhair fern.

Affairs at Mill City

Mill City, June 10-The Lades Literary Society held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. A. Holthouse, discussing the works of the American authors. The question of building a community club house was discussed at some length, and a committee appointed to look into the matter further and advise their findings at the next meeting. The city needs a building of this character very much, there being a constant demand for a place to give small entertainments and parties, and the ladies should building pay for itself in rental for such purposes.

Election of officers was held, Mrs. Kahler being re-elected president, Mrs. G. A. Smith, first vice ond vice president, Mrs. A. A. Holt house, secretary and Mrs. Chas. Gentry vice secretary, Mrs. O. D. McLane, treasurer and Mrs. Harry Mason club leader, It was con-cluded that the works of Amerian authors would continue to be their subject of study, and that more attention to music would be given next session. This was the B. L. Steeves, Dean Pollock, pres last regular meeting for the club ident of the senior class, and Miss until the first Tuesday in Septem After the usual club session a delightful luncheon was served
