Lawn Fetes Planned For Next Week

A garden party and lawn fete have been announced for next Tuesday afternoon by the Woman's Progressive club of Salem Heights and will be given at the residence of Mrs. Charles Sawyer, just two houses from the end of the South Commercial street car line. The club, which has recently petitioned to become a member of the State Federation of Women's clubs has planned the affair with the hope of augmenting the fund in the organization treasury.

The affair will be dainty and lovely and will open with the garden party in the afternoon. The lawn fete will be held in the evening when the place will be lighted with bright lanterns. Various features are being planned for entertainment. Fancy dances will be given by Elizabeth Waters and Cynthia Delano, of Salem. Twelve little girls will give a drill, an orchestra will furnish music, the woman's quartet will sing and there will be vocal solos.

A general invitation has been extended to Salem people to attend the affairs and especially to the Salem Woman's club and the North Salem Woman's club. Various refreshment booths will be maintained.

The fetes were planned by the program committee, headed by Mrs. A. M. Chapman and including Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mrs. F. A. Erickson. The following women of the club are included as heads of committees: Mrs. Van Etten, invitations; Mrs. Charles Sawyer, cake; Mrs. Robert Hulse, strawberries; Mrs. Ed Souder, sandwiches; Mrs. F. A. P.E.O. Has Big Picnic at Chemawa

Members of chapter G and chapter AB of P. E. O. entertained their families and friends with a lovely picnic last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall at Chemawa. Baskets of good things were brought by members and were spread for supper served about 7 o'clock. Tables were arranged on the school campus in the form of the letter U. Appointments were dainty and table decorations were done with large art baskets of flowers in various colors. Covers were placed for 98 persons.

Japanese lanterns illuminated with electric lights were strung above the picnic spot and as darkness came a festive setting was gained. The party was serenaded by members of the Chemawa choir who sang a group of old favorite melodies. Mr. and Mrs. Hall entertained in their reception hall where their rare collection of Indian baskets and pottery were of unusual interest.

The affair was informal and very charming, serving as a means of acquaintance for the older chapter G and members of the newer chapter AB, their husbands and friends.
