U. S. BUILDINGS IN CANTON HIT

Peking, June 20.—(By Associated Press)—The American buildings in Canton were struck by shells during Sunday's bombardment of the city by the gunboats of Sun Yat Sen, the South China leader, who has been trying fruitfully to recapture his stronghold. Jacob Gould Schurman, the American minister, has asked Rear Admiral Strauss to rush protection to Canton and American gunboats are expected to proceed there.

Word that Americans in Canton were endangered was received at the legation here today in a message from the American consulate Canton. The extent of the damage to American property was not stated. The consul had protested to Sun Yat Sen against indiscriminate firing along the Bund, the macadamized way on the waterfront.

What's New on the Market

Latest reports from Tillamook, where the salmon fishing season has just opened, give little hope that the price will be reduced. Sixteen cents a pound f. o. b. Tillamook, makes a 25 cent price necessary here—two cents freight and equal amount for shrinkage, with the dealer's profit.

Cantaloupe from California arrived this morning in fair supply and good condition. They have not received distribution as yet. Their retail price will perhaps be 15 cents a pound.

Eggs have not changed in price for some time. Buyers are paying 18 cents cash or 20 cents in trade. The general retail price is 22 cents a dozen. The price of 25 cents is too high.

RUTH SUSPENDED FOR THIRD TIME

Chicago, June 20.—(By Associated Press.)—Babe Ruth of the New York Yankees today received his third lay off of the season when President Ban Johnson of the American league suspended him for his argument in yesterday's game at Cleveland with Umpire Dineen.

No time limit was set on the suspension, the duration of time being indefinite until Mr. Johnson receives a full report of affairs. Ruth was out of the game at the start of the season as a result of a suspension by K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, and recently was given a one day layoff and a fine by Mr. Johnson for an argument with an umpire in New York.

UNION LEADERS FRAMING REPLY

Chicago, June 20.—(By Associated Press.)—A formal reply to the communication of leaders of ten railway unions who informed the United States railroad labor board that a railroad strike will be authorized if the present referendum favors a suspension of work, is being prepared by the board, it was learned today. The reply to the union chiefs will not be forwarded for several days, however, it was said.

Meanwhile union headquarters were speeding up the strike vote in an effort to have it completed and tabulated by next Saturday, when the general committee of 90, representing the rail unions, meets here to canvass the returns. Fifty thousand ballots cast by shop crafts employees have been almost solidly for a strike, according to John Scott, secretary of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor.

H. L. Cook, Boy Scout executive of the Albany branch, G. W. Bent, disciplinarian at the Chemewa Indian school, and F. H. CROSS NOSES OUT RHOTEN IN SCHOOL BOARD RACE HERE

Curtis Cross, Salem merchant, was chosen Salem school board director over E. A. Rhoten of South Salem at the annual school election held yesterday. Mr. Cross received 13 votes more than Mr. Rhoten.

Nine hundred seventy votes were cast, of which Mr. Cross received 466, Mr. Rhoten 453 and H. L. Clark 51. Whether Mr. Cross or Mr. Rhoten would be elected could not be determined until shortly before 10 o'clock last night when the count was completed.

Yesterday campaigners were on the streets for all candidates and in some cases an attempt was made to turn the election into a religious fight.

Mr. Cross will succeed George E. Halvorsen who refused to be a candidate for re-election.

INITIAL $2000 IS RAISED BY CLUB

Two thousand dollars was raised in the initial effort of the committee in charge of the Ill-here Country club campaign yesterday afternoon, according to John J. Roberts, chairman of the committee, this morning.

Reports of members of the committee in their solicitation of the business men of the city affirm the opinion that the club has played an important part in the community.

The entire amount to be raised is $10,000 which will be used in making improvements and the hiring of a professional golf instructor for the benefit of its members.

MRS. BUSH AND SHIELDS ARE HOSPITAL DIRECTORS

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Salem Hospital association, Mrs. A. N. Bush and Roy F. Shields, Salem attorney were elected directors of the organization. They were nominated by the citizens' committee and will take office at once.
