LIBERTY THEATER

Last Time Tonight—"THE OATH"

Mrs. L. D. Bennett
Hostess for W. R. C.
Mrs. L. D. Bennett was hostess on Friday afternoon at a strawberry feast at her home near Hazel Green for members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. About seventy members of the two organizations attended.

She used to be plain

Now it is possible for even the plainest woman to be really attractive, even though her hair is straight, lifeless and full of dandruff.

The new Wildroot treatment soon makes a remarkable change.

Cuticura Healed Eruptions On Baby's Arms Body and Legs

"My baby's trouble began with little red spots on her arms, body and legs. After a time the eruptions got bigger and itched terribly causing her to scratch and irritate the affected parts, and I had to change her clothing quite often to relieve her. She was cross and fretful and would toss about in her bed and keep me awake for hours.
"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using them about four days she got relief. I bought more and in three weeks she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. A. Elkins, 454 W. So. Temple St., Salt Lake City, Utah.
For every purpose of the toilet and bath, Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are wonderfully good.
Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden 44, Mass." Sold everywhere. Beware of cheap imitations. Talcum Soap—Cuticura Soap shines without soap.

GIRL HAD PAINFUL TIMES

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial."—STELLA NEWTON, R. R. Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from hitting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure her.

Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden 44, Mass." Sold everywhere. Beware of cheap imitations. Talcum Soap—Cuticura Soap shines without soap.

Convention to Be Held At O. A. C.

Delegates from all parts of the United States are expected to attend the fifteenth annual convention of the National Home Economics association to be held at the Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis, August 1 to 5. The program will offer material of special interest to teachers, home makers, business women, institutional workers, extension specialists, vocational instructors, research workers and social service workers. This is the first time the association has met at a college west of the Mississippi river.

At least 500 delegates from all parts of the United States are expected to attend the national convention in August, according to letters coming to the office of the dean of home economics at the college. The Oregon delegation promises to be unusually large with home makers, alumnae of the college and teachers in attendance.

Many lecturers and authors of national and international fame have been obtained as speakers for the convention. Among them are Florence Ward, extension worker for women, United States department of agriculture; Dr. Caroline Hedger, medical director of Elizabeth McCormick memorial fund and formerly on the board of Infant Welfare society, Chicago; S. Agnes Donham, educational director and author, Boston; Lucy A. Studley, assistant professor of household management, University of Minnesota; Harriet E. Vitum, Northwestern university settlement house, Chicago; Mary Brooks Picken of the women's institute of domestic science, arts and science, Scranton, Pa.; L. Ray Baldwin, author of several college text books and instructor at Teachers' college, Columbia university, N. Y.; Dr. Charles F. Langworthy, chief office of home economics, United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C.; Katherine Phillips Edson, industrial welfare commission, state of California; Mary Anderson, chief of women's bureau, Washington, D. C., and Margaret Ebbitt, assistant manager of the Congress hotel, Chicago.
