

CIRCULATION
Average for May 5936.
Member Audit Bureau of Circulation.

Capital Journal

THE WEATHER
OREGON: Tonight and Tuesday fair
and continued warm westerly winds.

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR—NO. 151.

SALEM, OREGON, MONDAY, JUNE 26, 1922.

PRICE TWO CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

SHERIFF MADE NO EFFORT TO AVERT RIOTS

Precautions To Prevent Herrin Massacre Not Taken, Investigators Find; Victims Buried.

Herrin, June 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Investigators seeking to fix the responsibility for the rioting which cost at least 21 lives at the Lester strip mine here last week, learned today from Sheriff Melvin Thaxton that neither he nor his deputies took any steps to prevent the massacre.

To Broadcast Foreign Trade News By Radio

Washington, June 26.—Distribution of foreign trade news and dispatches by radio as a means of informing American business men of developments in the fields of industry and commerce abroad will be given a trial next month it was announced today by the commerce department today.

WOUNDED VETERANS NOT FORGOTTEN STEPHENS SAYS

San Francisco, Cal., June 26.—America has not forgotten, nor will she forget the living portion of her casualty list in the great war, Governor William D. Stephens of California said at the opening session here today of the second annual convention of the disabled American veterans of the world war.

DEATH SEQUAL TO ACQUITTAL OF LEN SMALL

Wife of Illinois Governor, Stricken at Celebration of Jury Verdict, Succumbs Today.

Kankakee, Ill., June 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Mrs. Len Small, wife of Governor Small of Illinois, died this morning. Mrs. Small was stricken with apoplexy Saturday night during the excitement incident to the celebration by friends and fellow townsmen of the governor's acquittal that afternoon at Waukegan, Ill. With her at the time of her death were the governor and their three children, Leslie and Budd Small and Mrs. A. E. Inglish, all of Kankakee.

Prince of Monaco Dead

Paris, June 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Prince Albert Honor Charles of the principality of Monaco, died here this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Senate Refuses to Put Shingles On Tariff List

Washington, June 26.—The senate voted today 49 to 18 to retain shingles on the free list, senators from Washington and Oregon losing a fight to have the house duty of 50 cents a thousand restored to the bill.

FORDNEY SAYS HE IS TIRED AND WANTS TO REST

Washington, June 26.—"I'm tired; I am 69 years old; I want to rest now and be with my family," Chairman Joseph W. Fordney of the house ways and means committee declared today in announcing he had determined not to seek re-election from the eighth Michigan district after a continuous service of 24 years.

KLAN EFFORT TO CAPTURE PARTY FAILS

Republicans Refuse To Be Ku Kluxed; Tooze, Jr., Selected As New State Chairman.

Efforts of the Ku Klux Klan and federated secret societies to capture the organization of the republican state central committee Saturday at Portland and turn the influence and prestige of the party organization against Ben W. Olcott, primary nominee for governor, met with decisive defeat when Walter L. Tooze Jr. of McMinnville was elected chairman over A. H. Lea, secretary of the state fair board, the Klan candidate, by a vote of 30 to 6.

Chautauqua Program Best Ever Offered Is Word Received Here

The Ellison-White chautauqua program is the most interesting and the strongest ever presented during the ten years since the chautauqua was organized. This is the news brought to Salem not only by Mr. Ellison, but by C. E. Wilson, who arrived this morning and who will be in charge during chautauqua week.

DALLAS MAN KILLED WHEN CAR CAPSIZES

J. A. Griffin, Teacher and Athletic Coach Victim of Accident Near Eola Sunday Evening.

Joseph A. Griffin, 32 years old, athletic director and instructor of physical training at the Dallas high school, died at a local hospital at about 3 o'clock this morning following an automobile accident which occurred on the Dallas road, about three miles from Salem, shortly before 12 o'clock last night.

$5000 RANSOM FOR AMERICAN'S RELEASE ASKED

New York, June 26.—Ten thousand pesos ($5000 American money) is on its way from Mexico city into the Cuernavaca hills to ransom A. Bruce Bielaski, who was seized by Mexican bandits, it was announced today by Frank L. Sample, vice-president of Raymond Levering company, the concern of which Bielaski is an official.

CONCERT PROGRAM FOR TUESDAY OUT

Oscar A. Steelhammer, director of the Salem band, announced today the program for tomorrow night's hand concert in Wilson park.

NORTH CAPITOL STREET PROPERTY OWNERS MEET

Until the north end of Capitol street is opened to the fair grounds road, all property owners interested in the project will meet every Wednesday night at the Commercial club rooms, according to Fred A. Erickson, chairman of the special committee of the Commercial club and also head of the public affairs committee of the Kiwanians.

BRITTON MEETS LEONARD FOR 15-ROUND MATCH

New York, June 26.—Jack Britton, veteran welterweight boxing champion and Benny Leonard, lightweight title holder, will meet tonight in a 15 round decision contest at the New York Velodrome.

HEAD OF MINE UNIONS AND HARDING CONFER

Washington, June 26.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, who arrived in Washington yesterday for a series of conferences with government officials, will confer with Secretary of Labor Davis at 11 o'clock and later, accompanied by Mr. Davis' son, will go to the white house to discuss the coal strike with President Harding.

JOHNSON'S FIGHT STOPPED

Washington Court House, Ohio, June 26.—The "Tut" Jackson-Johnson prize fight scheduled for July 4 here was ordered stopped today by Common Pleas Judge C. A. Reid, who ordered Jackson "to refrain from engaging in the fight."

RESERVE BANKS ARE RESTRAINED

Portland, Or., June 26.—Federal Judge C. E. Wolverton today issued an order making permanent a temporary injunction issued last December against the federal reserve bank of San Francisco in which methods used in the collection of checks drawn on the Brookings State bank of Brookings, Or., was restrained.

Today's Scores

Table with columns for American and National scores, listing cities like St. Louis, Cleveland, and Boston with their respective scores.

Ruth Gets Eighth

Boston, June 26.—Babe Ruth knocked out his eighth home run of the season in the Yankee's game with Boston today. He made the hit in the fifth inning.

GOLF MATCHES DOWN TO FINALS

Results of the four golf matches for the president's cup and the director's cup played at the Ilhee Country club yesterday place the finals between Thielson and Daus in the first instance and Mrs. John Farrar and Mrs. Oliver Locke in the second.

NO BOOZE SOUGHT BY ALBANY RAIDER

The late Rev. Roy Healy, pastor of the First Christian church of Albany who was slain by Dave West, moonshiner, during a raid led by Sheriff Kendall, Linn county sheriff who also lost his life at West's hands, at no time appeared at the West household for whiskey, according to G. F. Booth, 1720 Chesapeake street, who ran down an anonymous report to that effect.

WIFE'S RELATIVES SUED FOR $15,000 DAMAGES

Charging that they were responsible for alienating his wife's affections, Arthur Albert Schwab has filed suit in the circuit court against her parents and relatives, J. B. Barnes, Teresa Barnes, Ralph and Simon Barnes of Gervais, asking for $15,000 damages.

LUTHERANS HOLD JOINT SERVICES

The largest gathering of Lutherans ever assembled in Salem filed the new auditorium at the state fair grounds to capacity during two services yesterday, the occasion being the joint celebration of the diamond jubilee of the synods of Missouri and Ohio and other states and the mission festival of the local congregation.

CAR CATCHES FIRE AND BURNS UP NEAR SALEM

An automobile driven by Dr. A. R. Andrews, Salem, veterinarian, caught fire from an indetermined source and was completely destroyed by fire about midnight last night. The accident occurred on the slough road, south of Salem.

BONUS COMMISSION BUSY; PASSES 1096 CLAIMS

The largest day's business ever transacted since it came into existence through the vote of the people, was done by the World War Veterans State Aid commission Friday.

THREE DROWN IN RIVER NEAR IONE

Newport, Wash., June 26.—Miss Ivy Richards, aged 17, and her brother, Elbert, aged 22, of Tiger, Wash., and Frank Shephard, aged 17, of Seattle, were drowned yesterday afternoon in the Pend Oreille river at Ione, Wash. Miss Hazel Shephard, aged 17, a cousin of the drowned youth, climbed out of the water on a log boom after she had been in the river for five minutes.

YANKEE TROOPS REMAIN IN HAITI

Washington, June 26.—Indefinite continuance of American military occupation of Haiti, but with a reduction of the marine force, was recommended in an unanimous report presented by the special senate committee which for months has been investigating American administration in Haiti and Santo Domingo.

CORNELL JUNIOR CREW WINS REGATTA OPENER

Regatta Course, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—Cornell junior varsity crew captured the first event of the inter-collegiate regatta on the Poughkeepsie course this afternoon, winning by more than a length with Columbia second and Syracuse third.

UNION GROWERS GET GRAIN BONUS

Spokane, Wash., June 26.—Members of the Washington wheat growers' association, numbering about 3000 will receive approximately 10 cents a bushel for their 1921-22 wheat crop over the average price paid growers outside the pool, it was declared today by Walter J. Robinson manager of the Washington-Idaho Wheat Growers, associated, at the annual convention of the Washington association here today.

MELLON ASKS DAUGHERTY FOR RULING ON LIQUOR

Washington, June 26.—Secretary Mellon has formally requested Attorney General Daugherty for a ruling as to the legality of the sale of liquor on shipping board vessels outside the three-mile limit, it was stated today at the treasury. It has been officially held by counsel for the prohibition enforcement unit that the treasury regulations, as now drawn, do not prohibit such sales, but the ruling when made will definitely determine the question.

MURDER CHARGED TO SLAYER OF WILSON

London, June 26.—(By Associated Press.)—A verdict of wilful murder against James Conolly and James O'Brien was returned this afternoon by the coroner's jury in the inquest into the killing of Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, assassinated last Thursday.