Mexico City, June 29.—Mexican government officials believe that the kidnaping of A. Bruce Bleaski in the state of Morelos and capture of 40 other Americans near Tampico within a few hours of each other are isolated cases of banditry which will be adequately attended to by the federal troops now in pursuit.

Secretary of War Serrano has not yet been officially advised of the seizure of the Cortez oil property near Tampico and the detention of the 40 employees but newspaper reports caused him to direct General Guadalupe Sanchez, federal commander in that zone, to start a campaign against the rebels in the entire region.

No news has reached here from Tampico concerning the capture and local representatives of the Cortez interests said they had no information other than that contained in dispatches from Washington. It is rumored here that of the 40 captured, less than a dozen are Americans, the remainder being British subjects.

HAYS TALKS TO WOMEN'S CLUBS

Chautauqua, N. Y., June 29.—Motion pictures had the stage at Wednesday session of the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Representatives of the producers, exhibitors and censors spoke and teachers and women's club members led discussions. At night W. H. Hays, president of the motion picture producers and distributors, lectured on "Upbuilding the Nation's Life Through Motion Pictures."

Today's talks will bring to a focus the controversy between the advocates and opponents of censorship and between those with conflicting opinions concerning the means of cooperation between the federation and members of the motion picture industry. Further discussion and final action by the convention is expected tomorrow.

Masons Mindful Of Obligations Cannot Be Klansmen, Edict

There is no law in Masonry forbidding a Mason to become a member of the Ku Klux Klan, but no Mason mindful of his obligation can belong to such an organization, is the declaration of Grand Master Prince of Massachusetts in his recent admonition to Masons of that state regarding the Klan.

The full report of the denunciation of the Klan by Grand Master Prince is presented in the Christian Science Monitor as follows: "Masonry in Massachusetts is warned by Arthur D. Prince, grand master, to have none of the Ku Klux Klan, which, he says, is being organized in this state. The adjuration issued to the several lodges of the state is couched in language unusually emphatic and direct for official Masonic documents, thus indicating the depth of the thought of the first Freemason of Massachusetts on the subject.

"Mr. Prince declares that this society, alleged to consist of night riders and self-appointed law enforcers, is un-Masonic utterly and that the propaganda intimating that Masonry is secretly in sympathy with the movement is entirely false and malicious. He indicates that there is no law in Masonry forbidding membership in the Klan or any such society, but plainly states that no Mason, mindful of his obligation, can belong to such an organization.

Text of Official Notice.
"The text of the official communication to the lodges of Massachusetts follows:
"Every member of this fraternity knows that one of the great fundamentals of Freemasonry is obedience to and respect for the majesty of the law.
"When our fathers wrote Masonic precepts into the constitutional law of this republic, they declared that every man was guaranteed life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They also declared that every man was entitled to the protection of the law and could not be punished for crime except after due trial by a jury of his peers under duly constituted authority. They also declared that men could worship as they pleased, without interference.
"Freemasonry believes that any organization which does not uphold these principles is un-American and un-Masonic.

"Within recent months we have heard a good deal about an organization called the Ku Klux Klan, the principles and financial foundations of which were quite thoroughly aired in a congressional investigation, from which we learn that the objects of the Klan are political, sectarian and racial.

Klan's Claims Repudiated.
"As a grand lodge, we would take no interest in this organization but for the claim made by its officers and organizers that its membership is largely Masonic and that it has Masonic approval and support. This statement is absolutely false, as the Klan has no connection with and neither does it have the support of any Masonic jurisdiction. To the contrary, in jurisdictions where the Klan has been active grand masters have repudiated its claims in the strongest terms and some have issued edicts warning their members against the Klan under penalty of Masonic discipline.

"It was not supposed that an organization with such principles could gain a foothold in this commonwealth, but from information I have received, the organization is beginning activities here, making the same false claims of Masonic sympathy.

"You have placed in the hands of the grand master the honor and reputation of the Masonic fraternity in Massachusetts, and I should fall in my duty if I did not, without fear or favor, warn our membership against a movement which, if not thwarted in its inception, will prove derogatory to the reputation of the craft in a dangerous degree.

"Without hesitation I declare the Ku Klux Klan an un-Masonic organization, utterly without Masonic support or sympathy.

Masonic Law Violated.
"Its avowed principles violate Masonic law at every point and it would be impossible for me to conceive of a Mason who could so far forget his Masonic teachings as to affiliate with an organization which advocates taking the law into its own hands, condemning men and women in secret trials, and imposing the punishment of the whip, the tar bucket or unlawful banishment.

"How long will it be before the law-abiding people of this commonwealth visit dire punishment upon those who forget or flout the sovereignty of the law?"

"This is not an edict against the Ku Klux Klan. We cannot prevent misguided men from joining it and the arm of the law will soon reach those who join in its overt acts. But we must protect the fair reputation of Freemasonry from being spotted by a connection, official or otherwise, with such an organization. No Masonic temple or apartments must be used for their purposes, and let every Mason who is tempted to join the Klan consider well if he can harmonize his obligations as a Mason with the principles of the Klan."
