Wedding Event Of Yesterday

At a large and beautiful wedding Tuesday morning, Miss Mabel Brassfield became the bride of Earl Kenneth McCoy, Rev. Father J. R. Buck performing the ceremony at ten o'clock at St. Joseph's church.

Six attendants made the service distinctive, this group of bridesmaids being attractively costumed in white organdy frocks, with large hats to correspond. They led the bridal procession, and were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Helen Brassfield, niece of the bride, Mrs. Harry Brassfield was matron of honor. Small Claudine Gueffroy, frocked in organdy, assisted as flower girl. The bride entered on the arm of her father, George Brassfield, and was met at the foot of the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Harry Brassfield.

All the bridesmaids were members of the Artisan drill team, of which the bride has been a member for several years. They were: Mrs. Anna Gueffroy, Mrs. Leah Clinton, Mrs. Thelma Anderson, Miss Stanis Anderson, Miss Bertha Waldorf and Mrs. Viola Taylor.

The nuptial mass followed the service, during the former Mrs. Paul Riedy rendering the "Ave Marie."

The bride made an attractive picture in her gown of white satin embellished with handsome lace. She wore a long veil and carried bride's roses.

A reception was held after the church service, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. A. Thompson, 1545 North Capitol street. A large number of friends and relatives called to offer congratulations, Mrs. Thompson being assisted on the occasion by Mrs. L. Beatty of Portland, Mrs. Fred Brassfield and Mrs. A. W. Lightfoot.

Among the out-of-town folk present at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. George Brassfield of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brassfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brassfield and William Winch of Homer, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. George Clinton and Mrs. L. Beatty of Portland.

Mrs. McCoy is well known here, but for the past year has resided in Portland, where she has been with the Meier & Frank company.

Mr. McCoy is also an employee of Meier & Frank. Following a short wedding trip the newly weds will be at home to their friends in Portland.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me."

—ROSE WALKER, 3015 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

Visitors Are Honor Guests at Luncheon

Two interesting visitors—Miss Sara Blanche Wrenn, who has just arrived in the city from three years in the Orient, and Miss Effie Kroil of Piedmont, Calif.—were honor guests at the attractively appointed luncheon which Miss Mabel Robertson gave Wednesday afternoon. The luncheon table was centered with delphinium and sweet william in tones of blue and pink. Covers were arranged for Miss Wrenn, Miss Kroil, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Margaret Looney of Jefferson, Miss Elizabeth Putnam, Mrs. George Griffith, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, and the hostess.

Tea was served later to the same group in the garden surrounding the residence of Mrs. William H. Burghardt in an additional guest. Mrs. Burghardt was also a dinner hostess for Miss Wrenn on Wednesday evening.

Cuticura Heals Intense Burning Eczema On Hands

"Eczema broke out in a rash in the palm of my hands and later spread to my fingers and wrists. The burning was so intense that I scratched and my hands were red and inflamed. I had to wear rubber gloves while doing my housework, and cotton ones at night. I lost several hours' sleep each night on account of the irritation."

"I was treated and tried different remedies but to no avail. I started using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in one month I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Elizabeth V. Rodgers, Leebick Apts., 529 W. 1st St., Long Beach, Calif.
