

OVATION GIVEN READ BY CROWD AT CHAUTAUQUA

This evening at 8 o'clock there will be presented at the chautauqua tent the great comedy "Cappy Ricks," by the Percival Vivian Players of Broadway, New York. This is the play that ran an entire season in New York city and five months in Chicago.

So far in the history of this season of the Ellison-White chautauqua, this play has been drawing the largest houses of any of the attractions. The company has been receiving the enthusiastic approval of the public. There is mirth and laughter for an hour and forty-five minutes.

Last evening Opie Read, speaking on "Human Nature and Politics," was given a most enthusiastic reception. Mr. Read, whose novels "The Jucklins," and "The Kentucky Colonel," have been known among fiction readers for 20 years, lived fully up to the expectations of the audience in his wonder word painting and for his speciality talent in illustrating his ideas by story telling.

This evening just before the beginning of the play, pledge cards will be distributed among the audience, asking those who are interested in chautauqua to indicate the number of tickets each will take for the 1923 chautauqua. This is following the custom of past years, only this time, efforts will be made to secure a larger number of individual pledges.

As is customary with every chautauqua in the country, a local committee is organized to underwrite the chautauqua for the coming year. And before this committee is secured, it will be necessary for those interested, to sign individual pledge cards, the total number of tickets pledged being evidence to a committee that Salem really is interested in the 1923 chautauqua.

The program this year is going over stronger than in the past few years. That is, the talent presented has made such a favorable impression that it is thought there will be no difficulty in securing a committee to take charge next year.

But in order to secure this committee, there must be individual pledges and the securing of these pledges will begin this evening. As to whether Salem will have a chautauqua next year, will depend upon the number of pledges secured.

For those interested in civic reform, the address Tuesday afternoon by J. C. Herberman on "Fundamentals of Nation and Character Building," and that of Dr. Elmer Lynn Williams of Chicago, speaking Tuesday evening on "The Big Game," will be of special interest.

Dr. Williams was formerly pastor of the Grace M. E. church of Chicago and it was in that city that he was obliged to mix up in politics in order to secure certain social reforms. He will tell of his experiences Tuesday evening.

MOB LYNCHES 2 REPRIEVED MEN

Jesup, Ga., July 2.—James Harvey and Joe Jordan, negroes, convicted of criminal assault and reprieved by Governor Hardick, were taken from a deputy sheriff near Lanes Bridge, Ga., and lynched Saturday, a telephone message to Sheriff Rogers here said. The negroes were removed from Wayne county to Savannah for safe keeping. J. R. Tyre, deputy in charge of the prisoners, reported the lynching.

The prophet who said fitness would empty the street cars can sympathize with the one who said prohibition would empty the jails.

"It is a great thing to come from a state of poverty," says an industrial magnate. It is if you come far enough from it.

Life will never be comfortable for the pedestrians until he invents some kind of disguise that will make him resemble a tack.

It stands to reason that you couldn't expect to get a Sahara on the sea.

Rheumatism at 60

Now gloriously you will feel, neither, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let the S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, feel larger - is the more economical.

Open Forum

Contributions to This Column must be plainly written on one side of paper only, limited to 300 words in length and signed with the name of the writer. Articles not meeting these specifications will be rejected.

Editor of the Journal: May I add a word on the subject of Mrs. Hong's letter in yesterday's Paper, showing that teachers as well as parents have a solemn responsibility in building character?

We who are the teacher who have assumed that responsibility tries to slip out from under! We all know her kind, the teacher who does not because she will not, see wrong doing go on steadily from day to day and lacks the courage to rebuke it. If a flagrant sin has been committed, just watch her and see if she does not lay it to the weak and defenseless, some child who has not much prestige in the school. Take the matter of cheating, for instance. How is it that the big, dull girl, who, God pity her, never receives anything but snubs and slights, is the only one to be caught at it, when the whole school knows, and knows that the teacher knows, that certain of her pets carry on systematic copying and cheating every day under her very eyes? Ah, there isn't the slightest danger that they will be detected. That instructor may have the apparent respect of her pupils, but deep down in their hearts they know her for the weakling and hypocrite that she is. All honor to the teacher who had rather fail, than succeed by using such policies!

—JANE MOSER.

Salem, Or., June 29, 1922.

"WILD HONEY" FILMED

The thread of romance that carries the interest through the plot of "Wild Honey," at the Oregon theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, is based on the independence of spirit of Lady Vivienne, the English lady of rank who is the heroine of Cynthia Stockley's novel, from which the picture was filmed. Priscilla Dean portrays the character.

How many women would brave the dangers of a trip through the barren spaces of the Transvaal, alone and unacquainted with the nature of the country and its people? Lady "Viv" does it for the sake of looking up the land which represents the only wealth she possesses and which every one says isn't worth the paper on which the deed is printed.

An independent spirit in a woman is one thing men always admire—until they get better acquainted with it. But it can lead to happiness, for the woman who has an indomitable spirit is sometimes the more easily dominated by "the right man."

"The right man" in "Wild Honey" is impersonated by Robert Ellis. Noah and Wallace Beery enact the chief roles of "villainish" hue. Other players are Lloyd Whitlock, Raymond Blathwayt, Helen Raymond, Harry DeRoy, Carl Stockdale, C. J. Frank and Landers Stevens.

Wooley Ruggles directed the picture.

Bank Call Is Issued. Washington, July 3.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the condition of all national banks at the close of business on Friday, June 30.

One mystery in ancient history has been cleared for us. The reason things went wrong at Babel was because Lloyd George wasn't there.

BILIOUSNESS—SICK HEADACHE, call for an NR Tablet, (a vegetable extract) to loosen and strengthen the organs of digestion and elimination. Improves Appetite, Relieves Constipation.

Get a 35¢ Box of your Drugist. Used for over 30 years. Chips off the Old Block. NR JUNIORS—Little NR One-third the regular dose. Made of same ingredients, then candy coated. For children and adults.

Daniel J. Fry

SLAYERS OF TIL TAYLOR TO HANG HERE ON FRIDAY

Governor Olcott, upon his return here today from Seaside, indicated that he would not interfere in the executions of Elvie Kirby, alias James Owens, and John Rathie, which are scheduled for Friday morning. Rathie and Owens were convicted and sentenced to hang for the murder of Sheriff Taylor in Umatilla county in 1920.

Last January reprieves were granted Owens and Rathie in order that they might appeal their cases to the United States supreme court. These reprieves expire at midnight Thursday.

Governor Olcott said today that he had not received any official information from Washington as to whether the appeals had been perfected there. Private advices, however, indicated that the supreme court has refused to review the cases. The time for filing the appeals expired June 21. Neither Kirby nor Rathie has shown any indications of weakening, and in recent conversations with penitentiary officials expressed the opinion that they exhausted all legal means of escaping the noose. They consider commutation of their sentences to life imprisonment as improbable.

TREATY EVASION DENIED BY JAPAN

Tokyo, July 3.—(By Associated Press.)—The admiralty today issued a formal statement flatly denying recent reports that Japan was evading the Washington naval treaty by increasing construction of auxiliary vessels. The statement, which outlined the tentative auxiliary program, also announced that Port Arthur, taken from the Russians in the Russo-Japanese war, would be abandoned as a naval port.

Chicago is to undertake to clean up labor. If Chicago cleans up labor as effectually as labor cleaned up Chicago, the undertaking will be a success.

President Harding says that congress should pass the ship subsidy bill before it adjourns. Which is another way of saying that it should not adjourn.

The reason why one can't tell where some politicians stand is because they are running so hard for office.

PARK IS GIVEN CITY OF ASTORIA

Eighty two years young, Dr. Owens-Adair was in Salem Saturday in search of material for her book, dealing with the history of the eugenic movement.

To finance her work she has just entered into a contract with the Montana-Warrenton Development company—for the disposal of a portion of her property fronting for nearly a mile on the Columbia highway.

In her will she has set aside 40 acres for a city park at Astoria to commemorate the memory of her father and mother, who were pioneers of '43, her father having been the first sheriff of Clatsop county. She states that her will provides that the balance of her estate is to be held in trust to be used for the benefit of humanity and to further the great work she has started.

This is the laudable aim of a woman who came to Oregon on an emigrant train in 1843, who was unable to read or write at 18 years of age, but who, entirely through her own efforts, became a college graduate, a doctor of medicine and surgery, an author and a maker of laws.

The Springfield Republican asserts that in Turkey the dominance of man over woman is still preached. It is preached in the American home, but the audience goes on dominating.

If Jack Dempsey were only a Congressman, what a pleasure it would be to have Senator Tom Watson of Georgia differ with him.

Cigarette

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a rare and delightful quality—impossible to duplicate.

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

The Extra Pair Means Double Wear

Our Semi-Annual Sale of Suits $25 to $50

is proving a wonderful success. Men who have been discriminating in values have learned through years of experience that this sale really cuts clothes costs in half.

You make your own selection of materials and style. We do the rest. The extra pants are absolutely Free.

SCOTCH WOOLEN MILLS

426 State Street

"The Modern Ku Klux Klan"

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL of Salem, Oregon, will on July 15th begin the publication in serial form, a chapter a day, of the above authoritative book by Henry P. Fry (copyright 1922, by Small, Maynard Co., Boston.)

Is the modern Ku Klux Klan anti-Semitic, anti-Catholic, anti-Negro, anti-Foreign born, a skilfully contrived organization for making money, or is it a sincere, genuine fraternal order emphasizing the true principles of Americanism? The contention of the author is that the modern Ku Klux Klan is a distinct menace to the American people and is set up in defiance of all legal and constitutional provisions.

The book is an expose of the methods, purposes, obligations and operations of "THE INVISIBLE EMPIRE of the KNIGHTS of the KU KLUX KLAN", including the history of the original Ku Klux Klan of civil war and reconstruction days and its modern imitation.

Mr. Fry is the author of the New York World expose of the Ku Klux Klan, which brought about the Congressional investigation. He is a former "kleagle" and reveals the sinister secrets of the order from within.

SPECIAL BARGAIN OFFER

So that those who desire, may learn the truth about the Ku Klux Klan, The Capital Journal will be sent to new subscribers by mail, three months for one dollar. This special offer closes July 15, 1922, and applies only to mail subscribers outside of Salem. Fill out and mail the enclosed:

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL, Salem, Oregon.
Gentlemen: Enclosed find One Dollar for which send me The Capital Journal for three months by mail from date, as per your special offer.
Name _____
Box _____ Route _____
Town _____