Church Folk to Gather For Event

Former members of the First Congregational church, who now reside elsewhere, are expected to come to Salem for the seventieth anniversary celebration of the church, which begins with special services Sunday and continues over into Tuesday, with a banquet for church members in the church parlors, on that evening.

Among the out of town folk will be Rev. and Mrs. Philip E. Bauer, who will come from Seattle, where Mr. Bauer is pastor of the Green Lake church. During their stay they will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William Fleming. Mr. Bauer is a former pastor of the local church, after leaving Salem taking a pastorate in Alaska.

Sunday evening a musical program will be featured, members of the choir participating, under the direction of William McGilchrist, Sr. On Monday evening members of the Christian Endeavor of the church will journey by motor to Spong's Landing, where they will enjoy a picnic supper. The banquet on the following night is anticipated as one of the most pleasant affairs in connection with the anniversary observance. Women who have been identified with church work for a great many years will be asked to assist on this occasion. This group will include Mrs. J. J. Murphy of Portland, who will come to Salem especially for this event.

It is interesting to note that Dr. W. C. Kantner has been pastor of the Salem church on both its fiftieth and seventieth anniversaries. During the former anniversary he had been with the church twelve years, his most recent identification covering a period of five years.

At the fiftieth anniversary, the late Rev. F. S. Knight gave the anniversary sermon, R. P. Boise delivering the address. Both the anthem and a featured song, "Peerless Oregon," were composed by Clifford Kantner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Kantner. George H. Himes of Portland, was another speaker at that time, using as his subject, "The Religious History of Early Oregon." Rev. S. M. Freeland of Portland, a former pastor, was also among those who was called upon for an address.

IRISH MIDLANDS ALL CONTROLLED BY FREE STATERS

Belfast, July 7.—(By Associated Press)—All of the Irish midlands are now under control of the provisional government forces.

The fighting at Clonay castle and Rosmead house at Belvin, county Westmeath, ended with the surrender of the republican garrisons to Captain Conlon of the Free State forces. The prisoners were removed to the Mullinger barracks. A lorry load of ammunition was taken from both buildings, including sacks of bombs, boxes of gallinets, forty revolvers and 100 rifles. Plans also were discovered for the destruction of barracks and bridges.

Boyle, county Roscommon, was taken by national troops under Major General McKeon after an attack lasting several days. The republicans driven from pillar to post, made their last stand in a hotel.

No trains have yet reached the west from Dublin. Four weekly newspapers which are printed in Boyle were not published this week.

It is learned that in the fighting at Boyle, Brigadier General Michael Dockery of the government forces was shot dead.

Dublin, July 7.—(By Associated Press)—Approximately 700 irregulars were taken prisoner by the national army during the struggle in Dublin which was brought to a virtual close by the surrender of the remnant of the republicans in the Sackville street area Wednesday.

DE VALERA AIDE VICTIM OF RIOT

Dublin, July 7.—(By Associated Press)—Cathal Brugha, one of Eamonn DeValera's chief lieutenants, died today of the wounds he received on Wednesday while trying to fight his way clear at the surrender of the republican garrisons in the Sackville street area.

Cathal Brugha (Charles Burgess) was one of the most prominent of the republican leaders who opposed the terms of the Anglo-Irish treaty from the start and fought against it to the finish. He was DeValera's minister of defense in the first Dail Eireann cabinet, directing the campaign against the British in South Ireland up to the time the truce was signed in July of last year.

When the terms of the treaty negotiated by Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and their fellow delegates who met the British representatives in London late last year became known he declared his opposition to the pact and fought against it in the Dail debates and in public speeches.

His address against the ratification of the pact was one of the principal features in the debate of June 1 last. He charged Griffith with having broken an agreement not to sign the treaty until the document was submitted to the Irish cabinet and then he gave active support to the campaign of DeValera against the provisional government after the treaty was ratified.

Sometimes, the election returns show, the people actually do send to congress the man they want there.
