HOOVER TO DISTRIBUTE COAL TO RAILROADS

PLAN TO KEEP RAILROADS OF NATION GOING

Distribution of Coal During Strike Emergency Through Special Commission By Hoover.

Final details of the scheme were said to be still incomplete but in general the plan was understood to contemplate a central committee working through local committees in 15 or 20 districts corresponding roughly to the localities represented by non-union coal operators who took part in the voluntary agreements fixing maximum fair prices for coal.

The scheme was understood to be based mainly upon voluntary cooperation of producing operators, the railroads and government agencies to insure distribution of fuel to the carriers, but it was planned that a weapon for enforcing the committee's instructions for distribution was understood to be contemplated through placing the interstate commerce commission official upon each of the local committees.

Washington, July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—Distribution of coal during the strike emergency through a special commission was understood today to be the administration plan to make certain the fuel necessary to continued railroad operation.

The matter was discussed at today's cabinet meeting and later it was understood that Secretary Hoover, acting for the president had undertaken the formation of the commission. Formal announcement of the plan was expected before night.

IRISH CAPTURE INSURGENT CITY AFTER BATTLE

London, July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The city of Limerick has been captured by the Irish national army, says a Central News dispatch from Dublin this afternoon. The nationalists took many prisoners together with arms and ammunition.

Dublin, July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The town of Waterford on the southeast coast of Ireland, which was stoutly defended by republican insurgents, has been entered by national army forces who have already taken 50 prisoners, say an official report issued by the nationalist general headquarters early today.

The irregulars have retreated from the infantry and cavalry barracks and from the postoffice, all of which now are in the hands of national troops, the statement says. The irregulars now are retreating southward.

Cork, July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—An official bulletin issued early today by the republican insurgents' headquarters says that national army forces are shelling Waterford from Mount Misery. The shelling was reported yesterday evening after a comparatively quiet afternoon.

Dublin, July 21.—A message from Nenagh, passed by the military censor today says the situation in Limerick is very grave. So far as is known there have been more than 20 killed and 40 wounded in the fighting there.

Ask Telegraphers to Help.
St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—E. J. Marion, president of the order of railroad telegraphers, today addressed an appeal to the 30,000 members of the order, asking that each man give one day's pay to help the cause of the striking railroad men and coal miners.

Is Sent for Caustic Asks for Hoss-Tick Fatal Duel Follows

Los Angeles, Cal., July 21.—The pronunciation—or mispronunciation—of a word was blamed by the police today for the slaying last night of Chas. Cole, a negro porter, and the arrest of A. D. Matthews, negro proprietor of a cafe, for murder.

He asked Matthews to go to a store and purchase some caustic for him. Matthews, anxious to oblige a patron, did so. But he misunderstood what he said and asked the drug clerk for some "hoss-tick."

The denial of the clerk that he had any such object in his stock convinced Matthews that Cole had been joking him. He remonstrated with Cole. Both were said to have left the cafe and to have returned with pistols. Nine shots were fired before Cole was killed, the police said.

OLCOTT TO FILE REPLY ON TUESDAY

Although Governor Can Demure to Petition for Recount Such Action Not Likely, Reported.

Despite the fact that, with the re-registration point eliminated from the Charles Hall petition for a recount of primary election votes, it would now be possible for the governor to demure to the petition, such action will in all probability not be taken, it was learned here today.

Persons closely associated with the case indicated that an answer will be filed to the remaining allegations in the Hall petition and that this answer probably will not be filed until next Tuesday—the last day on which such action may be taken.

Allegations Made.
Several allegations stand out prominently in the Hall petition, as follows:
That in certain precincts more votes were counted for Olcott than were cast.

That a large number of votes for Hall were rejected.
That persons registered as democrats and independents were permitted to vote the republican ticket.

That votes were erroneously counted in excess of the number of ballots cast.
That democrats wrote Olcott's name on democrat ballots and that the boards placed their votes to the governor's credit.

That election boards refused to allow Hall challengers to be present during the canvassing of votes.
Attorneys for the governor declined to indicate what the nature of their answer will be in regard to any of these points.

The decision of Judges Percy Kelly and George Bingham yesterday afternoon in which they held that a voter may change his party affiliations at the polls, was held here to be an important victory for the governor. Their decision followed argument on a motion, filed by Olcott's attorneys, to strike from the Hall petition that point having to do with re-registration on election day.

In view of the fact that the Hall faction must show definite cause for opening any election ballot boxes, friends of the governor declared that a large job looms for Mr. Hall's attorneys.

PRESIDENT TO SEE HOOPER IN CONFERENCE

Next Move in Railroad Strike is Full Discussion of Questions at Issue—Gloomy Prospect.

Washington, July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—President Harding was said by administration advisers who conferred with him today, to contemplate as his next move in the railroad strike the summoning to Washington of Chairman Hooper of the railroad labor board for a full discussion of the questions at issue between employes and executives.

New Move Proposed.
The probability of a new move will be revealed today after the president had been informed by Chairman Cummins and Senators Watson of Indiana and Kellogg of Minnesota of the senate interstate commerce committee that the three principal points at issue in the strike were restoration of the seniority and pension rights of the strikers and setting up a national board of adjustment as provided in the transportation act now in force.

The latter was received as a new factor by the president who was said to have been advised that this was a strong point at issue. Chairman Hooper, it was said, had not informed the president that the national board question was prominently involved, although labor leaders have informed senators that it was being pressed as a condition precedent to return of the strikers to work. On this question the executives were reported to be adamant.

Conference Proposed.
On leaving the White House the senators said they had merely made a report to the president concerning the meeting with the executives. It was said that future conferences "probably" would be held but it was not stated who would participate.

Senator Cummins seemed rather pessimistic but Senator Watson was in an optimistic mood, declaring he believed some way would be found to end the strike. The early conference between the president and the senators was arranged, it was thought, so that Mr. Harding could lay the matter before the cabinet at its meeting today.

Settlement Remote.
A settlement of the strike of railway shopmen appeared more remote than ever today following what was said to have been an insistent refusal by railway executives who conferred here with members of the state interstate commerce committee to accede to some of the unions' demands.

The position taken by the heads of the leading roads at the suddenly arranged conference last night, said to have been called on the initiative of Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate committee, was viewed by those participating as making further such efforts at a settlement appear fruitless.

ARREST WHITE FOR FREE SPEECH

Emporia, Kan., July 21.—(By Associated Press.)—William Allen White, Kansas editor, awaited today the service of a warrant for his arrest for alleged violation of the industrial court anti-picketing law, he was informed last night by friends of Governor H. J. Allen who in preparation by Attorney General R. J. Hopkins. It was understood that the attorney general prepared the information lodging charges against Editor White last night.

Editor White and Governor Allen are life long friends, both publicly and personally. Mr. White has supported the governor throughout his administration.

The occupation of a chauffeur, who is also a competent mechanic, is now as highly specialized as a locomotive engineer.

PLACING THE KLU KLUX KLAN UPON A MONEY MAKING BASIS

"The Modern Ku Klux Klan"

The Capital Journal today prints the sixth installment of Henry P. Fry's expose of the Ku Klux Klan. The narrative began Saturday and the previous chapters relate the origin of the order, how the author joined under misapprehension and became a kleeagle, how his suspicions were aroused, resulting in investigation and confirmation of his opinions and his resignation.

A chapter of this remarkable book appears daily in the Capital Journal. It thoroughly exposes the vicious and sinister dominating purpose of this secret order that capitalizes racial and religious animosities for the benefit of its promoters.

Kluxers Seek To Control Law Enforcement Offices By The Recall Of Sheriff

Medford, Or., July 21.—An application for an injunction to prevent the county clerk from proceeding with the recall election of July 29 against Sheriff Terrill, has been filed in circuit court and Judge Calkins announced he would set the hearing for Wednesday, July 27. The complaint consisted of eleven typewritten pages and charged among other things that leaders of the recall whose names were mentioned were all members of the Ku Klux Klan, and the recall was an effort on the part of the organization to gain control of the law enforcement offices of Jackson county.

Motives of Recall.
The purposes and motives of the recall, which have been labeled by its proponents as a "righteous movement," as a "wet and dry fight," are set forth as follows:
"That prior to the circulation of the pretended recall petition hereinafter set out a notorious secret political organization known as the Ku Klux Klan had been formed in Jackson county, Oregon. That among other purposes the said society had conspired to secure the secret control through the election of its members to the various public offices in said county.

"That coincident with the formation of said society certain acts and outrages of mob violence were perpetrated upon the persons of divers citizens of said county, said society commonly and openly being charged with responsibility therefor. That at said time it was generally known and understood that a grand jury was to be summoned to investigate said outrages and the activities of said society.

Klan Members Named.
"That the defendants, D. M. Lowe, W. Judson Oldfield, John J. Hoogstratt, George Iverson, Clay Walker, Howard Hill, R. L. Jay, Thomas E. Goodie and W. D. Hughes, and each of them, were at all times mentioned herein, and now are members of said society. That on or about May 30, the said last named defendants, together with divers and sundry other persons whose names to the plaintiffs herein are unknown, with the intent, desire and purpose of perpetrating a fraud upon the legal voters, citizens and taxpayers of Jackson county, Oregon, and with the intent to fraudulently deprive plaintiff, C. E. Terrill, of his office and fraudulently usurp same to a member of said secret society and with the intent to obstruct justice in said county, they well knowing that the said sheriff's office in the selection of jurors to fill special venire, could select such jurymen out of and from the members of said society, said members being oathbound not to reveal the identity or secrets of its members, treason, rape and willful murder alone excepted, said fraudulent intent being hereinafter specifically set out, they, and each of them well fully and fraudulently contrived and conspired together to circulate a petition in and throughout Jackson county, asking for the recall of the plaintiff, C. E. Terrill, as sheriff of Jackson county, Oregon."

The document then sets forth the financial condition of Jackson county relative to funds and indebtedness, and taxation, and further asserts:
"That if the said recall election is held the expenditure therefore will cause said Jackson county, and the said defendant, Chauncey Florey, as county clerk, to violate the terms and provisions of said sections 10 and 11 of article 11 of the constitution of the state of Oregon in that it will create an additional liability and indebtedness of said county of Jackson, which, together with its present indebtedness outside of its bonded indebtedness will be in excess of $5000."

It is also alleged "that grave, irreparable and irremedial injury and damage will result unto Jackson county taxpayers, from holding fraudulent and unlawful election."

The following signed the application as attorneys and counsel: Briggs & Briggs of Ashland; C. B. Watson of Gold Hill, Reams & Reams, Porter J. Neff, George M. Roberts, Gus Newbury and B. F. Linds of Medford.

EDWARD YOUNG CLARKE PROFESSIONAL PROMOTER MADE VENTURE PAY BIG

Emperor Simmonds Concocted Scheme So As To Put Entire Organization In His Own Hands But Lacked Ability To Put It Over—Drive Propagandist Assisted by Mrs. Tyler Saw Big Possibilities of Capitalizing Old Name Ku Klux and Reaped Fortunes For All Three.

Contract Made With Clarke As Chief Sales Manager for Entire Country for Membership Peddlers—Eight Dollars of Every Ten Dollars Paid In For Membership Goes to Clarke and His Subordinate Organizers and Two Dollars for Each New Member Added to All Klans

By HENRY P. FRY,
(Copyright 1922 by Small, Maynard & Co.; Published by arrangement with author and publisher.)

It appears from an examination of the records, that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan made but little headway for several years, when it was under the sole management of William J. Simmons. An examination of the Atlanta City Directory reveals the fact that the present "Emperor" was engaged in other lines of activity, largely as a professional organizer. In 1915 he appears listed as "Organizer of the Woodmen of the World"; in 1916, "Imperial Wizard and founder of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan"; in 1918, the next year a directory was issued, as "State Manager, Heralds of Liberty"; in 1920, as "Lecturer"; and in 1921, again as "Imperial Wizard, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

It was not, apparently, until Simmons joined forces with Edward Young Clarke, that the enterprise was placed on a paying basis. Clarke, it is said, has had wide experience as a professional propagandist, and prior to his taking charge of the Ku Klux movement was employed to raise money for the Anti-Saloon League and the Salvation Army, conducting drives for those bodies. The city directory of Atlanta lists him as follows: 1915, "Secretary, Brooks County Industrial Club"; 1916, Secretary "Georgia Exhibit Association."

Under the direction of Clarke the entire system of field work has been perfected, and as Imperial Kleeagle, Clarke is responsible for the success of the movement.

Clarke, whose chief helper and backer was Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, was conducting the Southern Publicity Bureau at the time, and quickly saw the big financial possibilities which lay in the capitalization of the name "Ku Klux." Simmons, who had concocted the scheme of organization which placed the "entire works" into his own hands, lacked the ability to put his ideas into execution. At this point, I should like to take issue with practically every man who had made any attack on the Ku Klux Klan. The general opinion has been that "Simmons is absolutely sincere in

GOMPERS ASKS HARDING FOR A CONFERENCE

Washington, July 21.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a statement issued today invited the government to urge that the striking coal miners and the striking railroad workers and their respective employers inaugurate direct negotiations.

"We invite the federal government to see to it that employers and workers come together," said Mr. Gompers. "The government has done everything except this one logical, necessary thing."
"The government has threatened a great deal. It has not talked effectively about conferences and it has had little or nothing to say about the rights of the workers. Labor calls upon the government to talk about conferences between employers and workers both in the coal industry and in the railroad strike."

Los Angeles, Cal., July 21.—The defense rested its case today in the trial of Mrs. Madalynne C. Obenchain of Chicago charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy here last August. Mrs. Obenchain did not take the stand, this being her second trial and a transcript of her testimony in the first trial having been read. Rebuttal testimony was opened by the prosecution.
