

AUTO TOURISTS CARRY ALONG PRIVATE COOK

To Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Guy of San Diego goes the prize for being the first party to register at the local camp grounds this year who have with them a private cook. This morning while Mrs. Guy was filling her diary and while Mr. Guy was off talking to other campers, the young Filipino was busy washing the dishes and getting things ready to go. All Mr. and Mrs. Guy have to do is the driving, enjoy the scenery, keep the diary and visit. The servant does most of the work of putting up and tearing down, does the cooking, and all the laundry work that is not sent to the laundry. Other campers registered at the camp grounds last evening looked upon Mr. and Mrs. Guy with a great deal of pity. Most campers believe that preparing a meal over a camp fire and making camp for the night or packing it for the trip is about half of the fun. If that is the case, people who take servants with them miss a good share of the pleasure of camping.

Last evening there were 63 camps made at the local auto park. This is but two less than the number registered Wednesday evening, which was the record for the season so far. The inhabitants of 25 of last night's camps had remained over from the previous night. The remaining 38 camps were registered for the first time. They were:

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Guy, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Onell and family, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chatham and family, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Howell and family, Mabton, Wa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCalheur and family, Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Broz, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. George Foster and family, Pomona, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Daniels, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Roney, Seattle; W. T. Miller, his mother and sister, Vancouver, Wa.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holt, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bavin and family, Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Calton and family, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lee and family, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Willis and family, White Lake, S. D.; R. Christenson and S. Christenson, Ferndale, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. L. COUNTY WARRING ON NOXIOUS WEEDS

By order of the county court all noxious weeds growing along the highways are being cut. The ruling also extends to any weedy fields that infest the neighborhood. The Canadian thistle is the worst weed to kill and is also the easiest to spread. Other weeds that are in the same class are the Russian thistle, Chinese thistle, or Jim Hill mustard, the cockle burr, the silver salt bush and quack grass.
