"Main Street" Men Ask Court to Help Put Down Flapper

Chicago, July 24.—Flapperism, how, when and why—promises to be investigated, studied, condemned and approved in erstwhile staid Evanston, where the campus of Northwestern University offers much in the way of examples of the dreaded and beloved type.

Rev. Almer Pennewell, pastor of the Covenant Methodist church, is for the flapper. "Flapperism is not a disease; it's a diversion," says he. "Bobbed hair, knickerbockers, short skirts are not signs of sin, but a declaration of independence. The girls are arriving. They will give us the finest generation of women the world has ever known."

INDIANS PROTEST AGENCY CHANGE
