

CANBY CONTRACTS PHONE CENTRAL LOWEST BIDDER

Canby, Or., July 27.—The Canby Cooperative Telephone company has just let the job of "central" in its exchange to the lowest bidder. The company announced that the person agreeing to do the work at the lowest price would get the place. When the bids were opened there were nine of them, ranging from $1000 a year to $2000 a year. John Wells, a farmer of Macksburg, bid lowest and was awarded the job.

The salary the company has paid the present operator, Mrs. Roper, who has served for 14 1/2 years, is $125 a month, but it has been necessary for her to pay an assistant out of this amount.

The officers of the company are James W. Smith of Macksburg, president; George Koehler of Canby, secretary-treasurer. Each district is represented by one to compose the board, there being seven districts.

Mrs. Roper, retiring operator, has lived in Canby since childhood, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, having crossed the plains and taken a homestead in Canby. She is to make her future home in Newberg.

There are 400 local subscribers of the telephone company. Besides from 700 to 1000 local calls each day there are from 800 to 1000 long distance calls each month, necessitating two operators.

The new operator probably will be assisted by his two daughters.

NEARLY 400 CAMPERS CHURCH OF GOD MEET

Woodburn, Or., July 27.—Nearly 400 campers at the Church of God here are enjoying the annual meeting in the church's grove here and a spiritual feast. Included among them are many of the prominent ministers of the church, three services being held daily.

The campers are from Washington, Oregon and California. The camp meeting will close next Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Scollard, widow of John Scollard, aged 72 years, who died at Salem, was buried here yesterday. She was Alice Kelly and married Mr. Scollard at St. Paul in the seventies, having resided in this section for many years. Surviving her are a daughter and five sons, Mrs. A. A. McDonald, Raymond, Canada; Frank and Maurice Scollard, Seattle, and Charles, Joseph and Edwin Scollard, Portland.

MOORE ELECTED AGAIN HEAD OF VETERAN SOCIETY

The Dalles, Or., July 27.—Frank M. Moore of Portland was reelected grand chief degare della grande volture des Oregon, La Societe des Quarante Hommes et Hu et Chevaux, at the first annual state convention here.

The election of Moore was unanimous, as was the case of reelecting Ben Dorris, Eugene, as grand chief de trais, and Harry N. Nelson, Portland, commissaire independant et grande correspondant.

There were two contests in the race for cheminots, State Executive Committeemen Edward B. Hamilton of Medford winning in district No. 1 and Frank R. Prince of Bend being reelected from district No. 2. Walter B. Gleason, present cheminot from district No. 3, was renamed Portland's representative amid loud cheers from the gallery and the former artillery captain himself.

NEWS FROM THE OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL

Superintendent J. A. Churchill visited the Normal on Monday and addressed the students at the chapel hour. He discussed in considerable detail the changes which are being made in the course of study for the elementary schools, which course is to be ready for distribution September 1. The subject was one of particular interest to normal school students as nearly all who teach will use this course of study.

President and Mrs. Charles K. Edmund of Christian college, Canton, China, accompanied by Miss Marvin of Salem, were guests of Miss Todd at lunch last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds are returning to their work in China after having spent several months in the United States.

Many students will leave Monmouth on Friday evening, having completed six weeks of the work in the summer school. Several courses which were organized particularly for this group of people will be supplemented by others of the same sort for the last half of the term. More than half of the present student body are remaining to complete the work of the whole term which will close September 1.

President Campbell of the University spoke at the chapel hour last Friday evening. President Campbell always a loyal friend of O. N. S. was cordially welcomed by the student body who listened with great interest to his address on character building.

The training schools in Monmouth, Independence, and the rural centers will close Friday after a most successful term of summer school.

Mr. L. Robinson was a visitor at the Normal last Friday morning. On Tuesday morning, S. A. Barton of the Forestry Service spoke to the students regarding the protection of white pine trees from blis ter rust. Mr. Churchill had in mind a definite campaign through the schools against this disease, so all teachers and prospective teachers are interested in the subject.

A very lovely gift in the form of a three volume edition of Tissot's "Life of Christ" has recently been presented to Miss Todd for the dormitory library. The books are exceptional in several respects: they contain the Biblical text in a three fold form, the Latin and the English in parallel columns on one page, and a narrative account on the opposite page. Perhaps the most attractive features of the books are the illustrations, 350 pictures, many in color, depicting events in the life of Christ. These pictures are, of course, reproductions of the well known paintings by Tissot, which are exhibited in the United States in the Chicago Art Institute about 1902-3, being brought here from exhibitions in Paris and London. The books, therefore, are a valuable addition to the library at the dormitory, and a gift which is very much appreciated.

AUGUSTUS THOMAS TO BE THEATRE BOSS

New York, July 27.—Woodrow Wilson was among the first to felicitate Augustus Thomas, playwright, upon his appointment by the Producing Managers association to a position in the theater comparable to that of Commissioner Landis in baseball and of Will H. Hays in the movies.

"I am heartily glad to learn of the well deserved honor that has come to you," said the message from the former president, made public today.

A group of traveling evangelists are holding a tent meeting in town.

The contractors have begun work on the new school building. Mrs. B. G. Briggs and children, Bernice and Harold, are spending their vacation at Newport.

POCKETBOOK MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARS

Silverton, Or., July 27.—A pocket book containing several twenty-five dollar bills, a diamond ring and a professional grip which lay on the desk of Dr. A. E. Wrightman, whose offices are in the First National bank building, mysteriously disappeared Monday afternoon. Dr. Wrightman was in his offices at the time of the theft but was occupied with the treatment of a patient. It is supposed that while he was thus engaged someone coming for medical advice saw the wallet on the desk and made away with it.

The wallet was picked up at the city limits on the Silverton-Salem road, the money and ring being gone. The wallet was returned to the owner, being identified by a driver's license.

Henry J. Leaf, who for the past five years has been actively engaged as superintendent of the sawmill in this city for the Silver Falls Timber company, has accepted the general superintendency of the mills at Marshfield for the Coos Bay Lumber company severing his connections with the Silver Falls the past week.

Mr. Leaf had the Coos Bay position tendered him unsolicited and has only accepted it as an advancement. Mr. Leaf came to Silverton in 1917 to take charge of the construction work at the Silver Falls when that mill was building.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaf and son, Raymond, left Monday for their new home.

Government Pays Up

Ninety-four checks of various denominations amounting to approximately $2844, arrived Tuesday morning from government headquarters to Captain Thomas of company I, O. N. G. The sum received represents the federal pay for the guardsmen for the past six months, the dates being from January 1, 1922, to July 1, 1922.

BAKER ARBITER IN COMMERCE COURT

Cleveland, Ohio, July 27.—Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, has accepted a place on the arbitral court of the International Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Baker, who is president of the Cleveland chamber of commerce, yesterday sent his acceptance to A. C. Benford, chairman of the American section of the international chamber.
