Plans For New Society Progress

Plans for the organization of a middle west society to take the place of the different state organizations took more definite form yesterday when at the Iowa picnic held at the state fair grounds it was decided to have a meeting of all the committees during state fair week. The organizations that have not met this year are asked to appoint committees and take the matter under consideration. William Cummings is temporary general chairman and all communications should be addressed to him at 333 Mission street, Salem.

The Iowa picnic yesterday was the largest one ever held, and more transients and newcomers were in attendance than ever before. Some of the "old timers" were not there on account of vacations, but the newcomers made up for it. A basket dinner was served at noon on long tables.

After the dinner a program was planned, and W. T. Rigdon, in the absence of the president presided. The program is as follows: America, by the audience; piano solo, Little Lucille Mosher; piano duet, Paul and Louise Allen; reading, Mrs. School, of Albany; vocal solo, Mrs. Cora Hendry; talk, by Reverend Laughridge; piano solo, Gordon Barton; march, Mrs. E. A. Young, of Albany; piano solo, Franklin B. Launer. Perhaps one of the most effective things during the day was the response by five pioneers who had crossed the plains from Iowa to Oregon with ox teams, telling of their experiences or some incident especially interesting.

Officers elected for the coming year are: Mrs. E. A. Young of Albany, president; Mrs. School, also of Albany, vice president; U. S. Dotson of Salem, secretary-treasurer.

The committee appointed by the Iowans to confer about the new plan of organization are: W. T. Rigdon, L. H. Roberts, Mrs. E. A. Young, Albany; Mrs. C. D. Childs and Glenn Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Day returned today from a vacation trip to Newport. They are staying with Mrs. Day's mother, Mrs. Ida Garrett. Both Mr. and Mrs. Day are graduates of Willamette university and they are planning to leave for New York very soon where they will take up work in Columbia university. Before leaving for the east they will visit in Bremerton with Mr. Day's parents. Mrs. Everett Wagner, formerly Mable Garrett, and her husband will also be in New York this winter. It will be remembered that the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Day were events of the early spring.

Mrs. J. T. Brooks and her two grandsons, Charles and Robert Gjedsted, left this morning for a trip to Seaside. They will meet other friends in Portland who will make the trip with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowman are to be congratulated upon the birth of 9 1/2 pound baby girl yesterday afternoon. The daughter will be named Deloris Elaine. Mrs. Bowman was before her marriage, Miss Mable Pindall of Shelburne, Oregon.

Scientific Englishwoman Wins Big Prize

Miss Anne Catherine Davies

Miss Anne Catherine Davies, Englishwoman, scientist at the Royal Holloway College, Englefield Green, has been awarded the annual prize of $1000 by the Association to Aid Scientific Research. Her essay on "Investigation of Original Electronic Energy Associated with the Excitation of the Spectra Helium" was adjudged the best of thirteen submitted, including five from Americans.

Recent house guests at the Chas. P. Bishop home were his son Roy Bishop, wife and children of Portland; also Kingsley Roberts of Hood River and John Lambert, banker, of Pendleton, the two latter being guests of Chauncey Bishop and his sons Robert and Charles on an outing trip to the Newport beaches and to Eureka, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rostus of Seattle were the guests Sunday and Monday of Mr. and Mrs. John Bayne.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with Eczema, Blisters, Ringworm, Rash and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. Get it today and save all further distress.

Mrs. Charles A. Gray will be hostess this evening at Independence for an informal dinner party in honor of Mrs. Josie Stewart who leaves soon for Corvallis where she will chaperone the girls in one of the college sorority houses for the coming school year.

The guests who will motor to Independence from Salem for the dinner are: Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Boise, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Patterson, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Miss Margaret Cosper, Frank Lovell and Dr. Willis Morse.

Of interest to Salem people will be the announcement of the engagement of Miss Valeska Bacon of New Haven, to Dr. Theodore Evans, an interne in the Roosevelt hospital, in New York. Miss Bacon was the guest of Miss Margaret Rodgers in Salem in the summer of 1921, and during her stay here was very extensively entertained. Miss Rodgers and Miss Kay Kennell, of Providence, Rhode Island, a guest of Miss Rodgers at the same time, will be the bridesmaids. The wedding date has been set for September 16.

R. L. Hoffline of St. Joseph, Missouri, arrived in Salem yesterday to make a months visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Miller. His son Bert Hoffline lives at the Miller home.

Mrs. E. Hofer and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer motored to Portland yesterday and spent the day.

A group of fifteen women called at the home of Mrs. William McGilchrist Wednesday afternoon for 4 o'clock tea to meet Mrs. Edward Powell of Woodland, California, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Millar McGilchrist during the month of August. The rooms were effectively decorated in the beautiful varied colored flowers now in season. Nothing could be more charming than these flowers arranged artistically in baskets.

Miss Ethel McGilchrist and Mrs. Hopkins, of Annapolis, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Valton for the summer, assisted the hostess in serving tea.

The invited guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames William Hamilton, Allen Hopkins, Henry Cornoyer, R. J. Valton, Joseph McAllister, Clifford Sims, Homer Smith, Frederick Schmidt, W. F. Poorman, C. A. Downs and Miss Ethel McGilchrist. Out of town guests were, Mrs. Hopkins and Miss McAllister who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph McAllister.

W. M. McMorris of Dayton, Washington, has purchased the beautiful home located at 160 North 18th street, which belonged to Charles Emmett, the real estate dealer. The household effects have been shipped from Dayton and Mr. McMorris and his family will take possession immediately.

Mrs. E. E. Knox spent yesterday in Albany at a family reunion. The family gathered for the day and a big basket dinner was served.

A birthday surprise that really turned out to be a surprise was carried out last night by Mrs. Lynn Gleason and Mrs. O. A. Olson, when they entertained honoring Elmer Daue on his birthday. The guests went to the Oregon theater for a line party, and Mr. Daue found them waiting for him when he arrived. After the theatre the guests motored around the city finally arriving at the Gleason home where refreshments were served. The decorations were all in yellow and the lighted birthday cake made an effective center piece for the table.

Those enjoying the surprise party were: Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cantfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Cravatt, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daue, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Gleason and Mrs. L. C. Davis of Portland who has been visiting friends here for a week. She is staying now with Mrs. Gleason.

Sergeant H. M. Bibby and wife with their small sons Delbert and Raymond, are spending a few days at the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. Gus Bond and her son William of The Dalles, are visiting at the home of Mrs. R. W. Craig.

Miss Selma Olson and Mrs. M. C. Byrd leave today for a brief outing at Lafayette springs.

Mrs. William Entress and her daughter Evelyn were Portland visitors Tuesday.
