Family Has Reunion For W. N. Savage

A huge birthday cake covered with 75 little lighted candles centered a table around which twenty four members of the Savage family gathered to honor W. N. Savage on his seventy fifth birthday. It was a combined family reunion and birthday party for Mr. Savage, a pioneer of 1850, and a resident of Salem since that time. Lighted tapers circling the cake also added to the effectiveness of the tables, and the rooms were decorated with lovely cultivated flowers, magnolias, zinnias and gladioli, arranged in artistic bouquets.

The reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage and later in the afternoon Mr. Carter took a picture of the group there. The dinner was served by Mr. Savage's three daughters, Mrs. William McElchrist, Jr., and Mrs. Merlin Harding of Salem, and Mrs. Walter Reynolds of Portland.

During the day congratulatory telegrams were received by Mr. Savage from both relatives and friends. The members of the family who were able to attend the reunion were, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage, J. T. Savage, Mrs. Martha Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Savage and son Jean of Cascade Locks, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Savage of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Savage and daughter Melva Bell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William McElchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds and daughter Mary Elizabeth of Portland.

A very ordinary paper sack concealed some very lovely linen gifts for Miss Jennie Thompson at a shower given her last week by Mrs. Carrie Phillips at the home of J. J. Longcor near Salem. Miss Thompson's wedding will be an event of the early fall.

The rooms were decorated with flowers now in season. The hostesses served delicious refreshments assisted by Miss Alice Bratzel, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Miss Lucille Robinson and Miss Pauline Ritchie.

The guests who enjoyed the afternoon were: Mrs. Carrie Phillips, Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mrs. George W. Stoner, Mrs. William Powers, Mrs. H. D. Watson, Miss Viola Larson, Miss Juanita Hockert, Miss Lucille Robinson, Misses Hattie and Alice Bratzel, Mrs. I. H. White, Miss Pauline Ritchie, Miss Jennie Thompson and Miss Muriel Robinson.

Mrs. John Pollock and son Jack have returned home after a two months motor trip in California. Mrs. Pollock's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Slickinger of Spokane, and Mrs. Freeman, a sister from St. Paul, Minnesota, motored to Salem and took Mrs. Pollock on the trip. They went to the Shriners convention, visited in San Francisco, spent two weeks in Los Angeles, and went across the Mexican border for a short trip. On their way to the convention the party stopped at Yosemite national park, and on the way back they stopped at Crater Lake.

A very simple but impressive marriage was solemnized at 9:30 Saturday morning at St. Paul's rectory when Father J. R. Buck married Miss Blanche Susee and Lloyd Dickinson of Woodburn. Only a few immediate friends attended the ceremony. The bride was dressed in white organza and carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, and was attended by Miss Harwith, who wore a blue organza and carried sweet peas. Charles Susee stood with the bridegroom. The young couple will make their home in Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Waters have returned home from a two weeks trip to Alaska. This is a very popular trip this summer and every year more tourists take the trip. It includes several very interesting Alaskan ports, Ketchikan, the first port of call, Wrangell, a quaint old Indian place, Juneau the territorial capital, Petersburg, perhaps the most prolific of Alaskan ports, if any could be called so, Skagway, the scene of so much tragedy during the gold rush, and Sitka, one of the most ideal spots on the trip.

Miss Grace Taylor, professional nurse, who has spent a short time with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Taylor and family of Corvallis, has returned to her home.

Mrs. W. C. Hawley and daughter Annabelle, have returned after a week spent in Portland visiting with Mrs. Hawley's cousin, Mrs. Croston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Thompson were guests of Mrs. Thompson's sister, Mrs. George Scott, of Jefferson on Tuesday.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh is visiting at the beach with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry. The Frys have been at Seaside for some time now.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Brown left for their vacation this week. They expect to visit different places on the Tillamook beach.

Miss Dorothy Ruef, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ruef, became the bride of Joseph Claire Winegar in a wedding which was quietly celebrated on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hastings in Monmouth, former schoolmates of the groom.

While the romance of these young people had been in progress for some time, the tying of the nuptial knot was not anticipated at this time, and they sprung a surprise upon their friends. Mr. Winegar is a son of J. E. Winegar, owner of the Monmouth hardware, and has been identified with the business since the completion of his normal course.

The bride has grown to womanhood here. She was active in high school affairs, and has a large circle of friends. Best wishes are being freely offered to the happy pair.—Independence Enterprise.

The following item was clipped from the Independence Enterprise:

Miss Phyllis Bush, daughter of S. E. Bush of Independence, was married to Glenn Whalen of Portland last Saturday and are spending their honeymoon at Seaside. The event was celebrated without ostentation, and the announcement came as a happy surprise to the large number of friends of the bride here.

Mr. Whalen is connected with the Honeyman hardware in Portland, and is deservedly popular among a large circle of friends. The bride resided here for a number of years at the home of her aunt, Mrs. M. C. Williams, while attending school, and is a graduate of the high school and has many friends here who will offer best wishes.

Local members of Gamma Phi Beta were entertained Saturday at a luncheon for which Mrs. Carl Nelson and Mrs. Frank Spears were hostesses. Among the guests were Miss Florence Sherman of Astoria, a house guest of Mrs. Nelson, and Mrs. Robert Fraley, of La Grande, who is visiting relatives in Dallas. Miss Sherman left yesterday morning for her home after a short visit here.

A new woman's club has been organized at Fort Rock, a little inland town in Lake county, according to Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, who has just returned from an official trip to eastern Oregon. Mrs. Callahan was visiting in the capacity of president of the State Federation of Woman's clubs and has just returned from an official visit.

Mrs. M. E. Kirk arrived here Friday for a visit of several weeks with her son, W. T. Kirk, industrial accident commissioner, and family of 1259 South Liberty street. Mrs. Kirk came as far as Portland with her son, E. L. Kirk and family, who stopped off in Portland for a visit before coming on to Salem.

Major and Mrs. Harry Brumbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brock, Jr., Otto Hartman and Dean Hartman spent the week end in Seaside, returning today. Otto Hartman and Dean Hartman are from Ohio and are visiting here this summer with Mr. and Mrs. H. Hartman.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bligh, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Ross, Dr. W. S. Cole and Miss Rose Amert returned Saturday morning from a two or three weeks stay at Breitenbush. A great many Salem people have made the trip to Breitenbush in the past month.

Guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davidson were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nye and daughter, Doris, of Salem. Mr. Nye has been an attaché of the state house for more than a score of years.—Independence Enterprise.

Mrs. F. R. Jessup of Portland, a former resident of Salem, is the house guest of Mrs. E. E. Waters for a few days. Mrs. Jessup has many friends in Salem who will be glad to hear of her visit.

Miss Gertrude Roberts is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. I. Staley, for a few days.

BLIND STENOGRAPHER TAKES DICTATION

Miss Grace E. Keator, stenographer at the "Lighthouse," a New York institute for the blind, holds a record for having taken dictation at eighty words a minute, though sightless. Through instruction in the Braille system of stenography and typing, she is as efficient as her more fortunate sisters. She is pictured here using the Braille stenographic machine, which has six keys and a spacebar, each key indenting a paper ribbon similar to that used on the stock ticker, the indentations causing bumps on the other side, the position of each determining a phonetic character, which may be interpreted by the keen sense of touch. To transcribe these notes she runs her hands over the ribbon and then types what she has "read."

Quail, Hard Pursued By Hawk, Breaks Auto Windshield; Is Killed

To be the target for a volley of shattered glass sprayed upon them by an ordinary bob-white quail was the unusual experience of Clifford Parker, of the local Hauser Bros. store, and Ralph Schindler, manager of the company's Corvallis store, while riding on the west side highway near Corvallis Sunday.

Taking advantage of the first day of the open season under the new law the hunters were on their way into the grouse country by automobile when the bob-white, closely pursued by a large hawk, darted straight for the automobile at about a 15 degree angle. Mr. Parker says that he saw the birds as they swooped down on the car and, fearing that they were going to hit him, threw up his arms to guard his face.

The quail flew straight as a bullet into the windshield, breaking the lower half and showering glass over the two hunters. While the impact with the windshield killed it, the momentum which it had while travelling carried it through the car and out into the road. Mr. Schindler, who was driving, was cut in several places on the hands by the flying glass and Mr. Parker had his lip slightly cut.

The hawk had time to change its course as it bore down on the machine, but shot by only a few inches from Mr. Parker's head. "You haven't any idea how fast one of those birds travels until one swoops by you at close range," said Mr. Parker this morning.

These recent rains have just about written the death knell of the hot season. Now if someone will settle the strike La Grande will settle down and enjoy Indian summer in the good old-fashioned manner.—La Grande Observer.

'PERAMBULATORY' COURT METHODS UNDER ATTACK

The "perambulatory" practices followed by some of the circuit courts of Oregon is attacked by attorneys for Mabel Stelwer in briefs filed with the supreme court here to which appeal has been taken from the decree of Judge Tucker of the Multnomah county circuit court dismissing a suit for divorce.

The "perambulatory" charge hurled by attorneys for Mrs. Stelwer is not directed at Judge Tucker, however, but at circuit courts of Oregon in particular and the court of the eleventh judicial districts, comprising Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties in particular.

Leland Stelwer, it seems, was granted a decree of divorce from Mabel. But the decree was based upon testimony taken by a referee appointed by the court, a practice said to be common in default divorce cases in this state.

Later Mabel Stelwer, holding that the decree granted to Leland Stelwer was void because the court lacked jurisdiction in the case in that it had acted through a referee and had not heard the testimony in person, files suit for a divorce. This suit was dismissed by Judge Tucker and it is from this decree that Mabel has appealed and which appeal gives her attorneys an opportunity to attack the "perambulatory" habits of Oregon circuit courts in general.

"If the courts of this state are perambulatory courts, composed solely of judges who carry the court within and about them, and conduct court wherever they may be, whether at home, in the mountains or at the seashore, or upon the streets, then the practice of the honorable members of this court (the supreme court), every Tuesday morning, in donning their judicial garb and assembling in the court room in all solemnity in the presence of the clerk and the bailiff who announces that the honorable supreme court of the state of Oregon is now in session, is but idle mockery and sham."

Statistics on Potatoes
Washington—The early Irish potato crop on June 1 was 78 per cent of normal, according to the department of agriculture. This was an improvement of one point since May 1, but two points below the average for the seven preceding years.

An Iowa woman killed the leeman day before yesterday. Did it in cold blood, probably.—Eugene Register.

Kansas City, Mo.—Because her husband was a cave man and bobbed her hair in defiance of her wishes Mrs. Mae G. Turk was granted a divorce in Judge Thomas B. Buckner's court here.

Mrs. Turk testifies that her husband, John Turk, forcibly bobbed her hair.

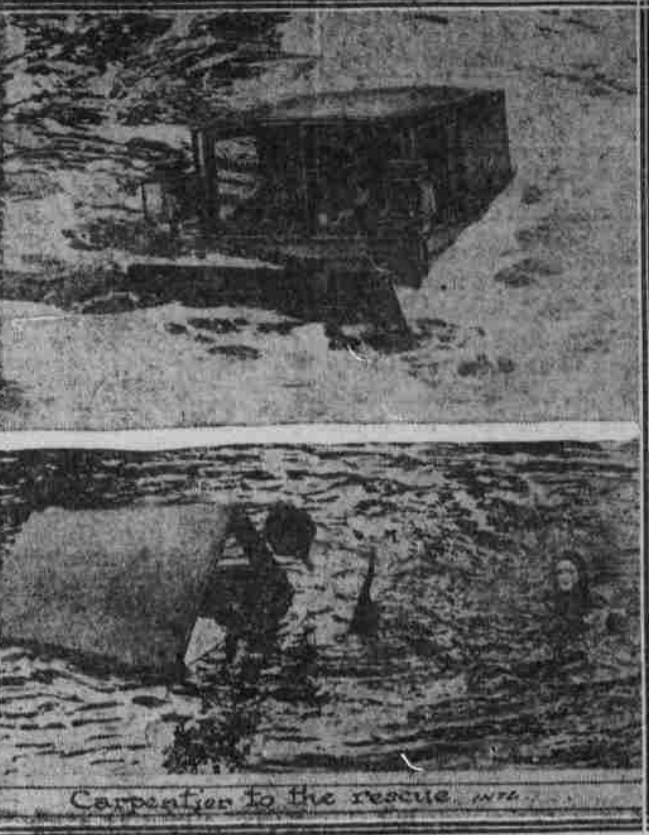

"Don't you like bobbed hair?" Judge Buckner quizzically asked.

"Well, it may be stylish, but I don't care for it and besides my husband put glue on mine after cutting it," the plaintiff explained.

CARPENTIER A REAL REEL HERO.

Georges Carpentier is a real reel hero. He is playing the lead in a production being filmed in England. During the staging of one scene in which the heroine, riding in a coach, is swept into a river, the plans went wrong. The current in the river proved stronger than was believed, and only quick swimming by Carpentier saved the actress' life. The upper photograph shows the coach being engulfed and the lower Carpentier swimming to the rescue. Note how the coach had begun to overturn. It was this danger that prompted Carpentier to plunge into the river and resulted in the filming of a scene not in the original scenario.

MORGENTHAU PLANS RESTORATION OF AUSTRIA

Paris, Aug. 21—Henry Morgenthau has had time, in the past week to receive many comments upon his proposal to rescue Austria from financial ruin which he announced in Paris July 13. These former American Ambassador to Turkey doubtless has found encouraging and helpful, for he was cheerfully ready today to elaborate his project for the formation of a $50,000,000 corporation to reorganize Austrian industry.

OVER 6 MILLIONS DISBURSED OUT OF BONUS FUNDS

A total of $6,362,311.01 has been disbursed out of the state bonus fund to August 15, according to a statement prepared by Secretary of State Kozor today. Of this amount $4,057,505.34 went to cover applications of 18,239 ex-service men for cash bonus payments, and $2,305,005.17 went to cover 924 applications for bonus loans. Every county in the state is represented in the distribution of bonus funds and loans have been made in all counties of the state with the exception of Curry, Grant and Jefferson.

Nearly one-third of the entire amount so far disbursed from the bonus fund has gone to Multnomah county, according to a table prepared by Kozor which shows that in most of the counties the cash bonus far exceeds the bonus loans. The exceptions to this are found in Deschutes, Gilliam, Klamath, Polk, Union, Wallowa and Wheeler counties in which the bonus loans have proven the most popular.

Marion county's share in the bonus fund distribution to date aggregates $399,104.70 of which $213,996.90 represents cash claims and $185,107.80 bonus loans. The claims of 1039 Marion county ex-service men against the bonus fund have already been satisfied, $62 through cash bonus payments and 77 by bonus loans.

WATER PUMP SUPPLANTS BREWERIES IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Mo.—Deprived of its 4 percent beer, South St. Louis, erstwhile center of the brewing industry, has taken to water.

Water Commissioner Wall told the board of public service that since prohibition the consumption of water in South St. Louis has increased enormously. And his recommendation the board approved the expenditure of $190,000 for a new pump in the district capable of supplying an additional 20,000,000 gallons of water daily.
