Weddings Of Social Interest

Lavender and yellow asters in handsome art baskets formed the principal decorations at the Spaulding home last night when Miss Ila Spaulding became the bride of Louis Dalrymple Griffith in the presence of about 50 friends and relatives. The couple stood before the fireplace which had been transformed into a lovely altar, while Reverend Ward Willis Long read the marriage ceremony.

Little Jean Marie Spaulding and Ila Mills, dressed in dainty frocks were the flower girls who led the bridal party, followed by the Roberta Mills carrying the ring. The bride came down the driveway with her father, Charles Spaulding, while Ruth Heinrich played the wedding march. The bride wore an elegant gown of satin-backed crepe, with a veil with a slight train, with trimmings of real Brussels lace. A lovely string of pearls accentuated the richness of the costume. The bride's shower bouquet was made up of roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

The lavender and yellow color scheme was carried out in the gowns worn by the attendants. The colors alternating in the materials and flowers. Mrs. Roy H. Mills, matron of honor, wore lavender taffeta and carried yellow flowers, while Miss Grace Hohl, maid of honor, was gowned in yellow taffeta and had lavender flowers for flowers. The bridesmaids were four in number, two in yellow and two in lavender tulle frocks. Silver wreaths were worn as hair ornaments and wreath baskets were used to carry the delicately shaded flowers which blended so effectively with the frocks worn. The bridesmaids were Miss Olga Gray, Miss Olga Fisher, Miss Nathel Donack and Miss Grace Humphreys.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith, the groom's mother, gowned in black velvet and georgette, trimmed with steel bands, and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, who was charming in a gown of pinkish silk crepe with bead trim, and the bride's father, stood by the young couple after the ceremony for the wedding reception in the living room.

Miss Ruth Barnes and Miss Gladys Tillinghast presided over the punch bowl which was placed on the front porch. Catherine Hohl opened the door for the guests while Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Virginia Holt directed the guests about the rooms. The matrons assisting about the home were, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. H. Clifford Spaulding, Mrs. John C. Griffith, Mrs. E. C. Tillinghast, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. Frank Owen.

The bride's table which was in the billiard room downstairs in the Spaulding home, was decorated with lavender and yellow canes, topped with clever shades in the same colors. The bride's party was seated at the bride's table.

The guests were served to a buffet supper at a long table in the billiard room. The young brides assisting in serving were Marie Marshall, Miss Berce Craig, Miss Clara Breitenstein, Miss Amelia Babcock, Miss Anna Von Readon, Miss Ruth Hultz, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Caroline Starker, Miss Bess Hebler, Miss Lucille Helmer, Miss Florence Graden, Miss Genevieve Spriggs, Miss Rose Heine.

The young couple left by motor for a trip into British Columbia. They will be at home later in a charming new bungalow on Court street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffith attended high school in Salem later going to the Oregon Agricultural college and they are very prominent in the younger set in Salem and in college circles.

Mrs. Griffith is a member of Phi Chi Omega sorority and Mrs. Griffith is a member of Phi Theta. Several of Mrs. Griffith's sorority sisters from California attended the wedding with a host of other out of town guests.

The guests were allowed to see the wedding presents which were displayed in a room on the second floor of the Spaulding home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry and daughter, Priscilla, Mrs. Kitty Haver and Mr. Fry's niece, Mrs. Mills from the east, left yesterday morning for Newkown where they will remain in their cottage until the week end.

Miss Mildred Rogers of Corvallis was visiting in Salem Wednesday with friends.

Veterans Graves Are Decorated

The graves of two veterans of the war of 1812 were decorated yesterday at a very effective ceremony in charge of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Daughters of 1812. Several women from out of town were guests for the occasion and were entertained at a luncheon at the Marion hotel yesterday for which the local Daughters of the American Revolution were hostesses. It is a custom of the societies to mark the graves of the veterans and Mrs. J. M. Knight of Portland, an officer of the Daughters of 1812 was in charge of the services yesterday at the Odd Fellows cemetery.

The luncheon included from out of town, Mrs. J. M. Knight of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Riggs, son Robert, and Mrs. Klein of Portland, Mrs. John Keating, a member of both the D. A. R. and Daughters of 1812 and former state regent of the D. A. R., George Himes, president of the Oregon historical society, and Mrs. Esther Allen Jones and Mrs. Lulu Crandall of The Dalles. Salem women who represented the D. A. R. at the luncheon were, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, regent of Chemeketa chapter of the D. A. R., Mrs. Seymour Jones, state committee woman of the D. A. R., Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Miss Lillian Applegate, Miss Ola Clark.

Mrs. Riggs is a daughter of Leven Nelson Riggs, whose grave was decorated. The other grave decorated was that of John P. Gaines, a veteran of the war of 1812 and later territorial governor of Oregon.

Mrs. George Sheels was pleasantly surprised last night when a number of her friends surprised her honoring her birthday. The evening was spent in playing 500, and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served. Those who enjoyed the evening were, Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jerman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Serrel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boszell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benhen and Mr. and Mrs. George Sheels.

Beautiful Wedding Is Solemnized

One of the most magnificent weddings of the season was that of Miss Lesla Ruby and Dr. Ernest Quisenberry at the beautiful A. C. Ruby home on the Base Line road, Portland, solemnized Wednesday evening in the presence of a host of friends, several of them from Salem. Miss Ruby graduated from Willamette university this spring and was well known in university circles and musical circles as she is a talented violinist.

The spacious rooms of the Ruby home had been decorated by a Portland decorator in a profusion of lovely summer blossoms. Art baskets filled with the most gorgeous of flowers were everywhere, and a magnificent bouquet of roses centered the table in the dining room where the wedding supper was served.

The bride stunningly attired in silver lace over white satin with a court train and full length veil, caught with a bandeau of orange blossoms, came down a flower lined aisle on the arm of her father, while Miss Gretchen Brown of Salem played the wedding march. Miss Mildred Severson, "Oh Promise Me." The ceremony was read by Dr. DuBoise of the United Presbyterian church at the altar of flowers.

The bride was attended by Miss Martha Ferguson of Gresham, a Willamette girl, and Miss Jeston Quisenberry, as bridesmaids, gowned in orchid and silver taffeta, and by her sister, Mrs. Privett, matron of honor. Archie McKowen was best man. The bride's shower bouquet of roses was caught by Miss Martha Ferguson. Mr. and Mrs. Quisenberry left in their car for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Portland where Dr. Quisenberry will assist at the Dental college.

Salem people who motored to Portland for the wedding are, Miss Frances Richards, Professor and Mrs. Ebsen, Miss Gretchen Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lerge, Miss Margaret Legge, Miss Pauline Remington and Miss Alma Pohle. Many other friends were invited who were unable to attend the ceremony. Miss Legge, Miss Remington and Miss Brown assisted in serving with a number of other Willamette university girls.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayne left for Corvallis Tuesday of this week with Mrs. Hubbs and Dorothy Hubbs of Silverton and two other members of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. The girls went to Corvallis early so that they could get their house in good condition before the opening of school Monday September 18.

Mrs. S. R. Jessup, who has been the house guest of Mrs. E. E. Waters for about three weeks will go to Portland the last of the week and visit friends for a few days before returning to her home in Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Jessup formerly lived in Salem and since she has been here has been quite extensively entertained by her old friends.

Underwear

Closing the years work and the election of officers occupied the attention of the women at the meeting of the Woman's foreign missionary society Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick's home. Officers elected for the coming year are, Mrs. E. E. Umeyer, president; Mrs. M. C. Findley, vice president; Mrs. J. B. Littler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg, recording secretary; Mrs. A. A. Lee, superintendent of the young peoples and childrens work; Miss Isla Gilbert, treasurer. Mrs. Umeyer and Miss Gilbert were also elected to attend the meeting of the Columbia river branch to be held in Tacoma the latter part of the month. District Superintendent E. B. Gilbert gave a short inspirational talk yesterday before the meeting on missionary work.

Announcements of the marriage of Frances Cramer, a graduate of Willamette university in the class of 1920, to Miss Marie Clare Osterling at the bride home in Walla Walla, Washington, have been received by friends in Salem. Mr. Cramer was very well known in Salem having graduated from Willamette and also taken his masters degree here. He was a member of the Websterian literary society, of Sigma Tau fraternity and sang tenor in the Willamette glee club and quartet. Mr. and Mrs. Cramer will make their home in Milton, Oregon, where Mr. Cramer is head of the chemistry department.

Mr. and Mrs. Northrup Waters are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Waters. Mr. Waters is the son of Mrs. E. E. Waters and has just returned after a year spent in school at Schenectady, New York, studying electrical engineering. The trip from New York was made by motor and they come by the southern route stopping in Mexico and other interesting points. However,

Mr. Waters declares that there is no place like Salem and he is mighty glad to be back again.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Warner, former residents of Salem, now living in Portland, while touring around visiting some of the smaller towns in the valley stopped in Salem for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist were Salem visitors from Portland Wednesday. Liljeqvist who is retained as a special assistant to the attorney general was here on business with the state's legal department and Mrs. Liljeqvist accompanied him to the capital city for the trip.
