The Oregonian society columns printed the following article concerning the concert given by Miss Schultz in Portland last week. She left Sunday for New York city for the winter.

Miss Mary Schultz is a violinist whose future career will be followed with great interest by those whose good fortune it was to hear her last Monday evening at the studios of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petri, when she was presented in an informal recital. Miss Schultz's home is in Salem, where she has been spending the summer with her parents and in a few days will return to continue her studies with Alexander Bloch in New York. With a tone of exceptional warmth and beauty and a technique that is so well developed that it is never obtrusive she wins her audience at once. Franklin Launer, also of Salem, played a number of compositions on this occasion and was also well received. He is an artist pupil of Mrs. Petri and has just returned from a spell of study with Percy Grainger in Chicago. Mrs. Petri played the accompaniments for Miss Schultz.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Schuneman were guests at a dinner and card party in Albany, Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish who left Sunday to make their home in Orange, California. They have been very extensively entertained by their friends in Albany, having resided there for fifteen years. The dinner Wednesday was given by Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Austin.

Wedding Climaxes 50 Year Romance of Albany Man

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A romance that endured through a half century approached its climax today when Mrs. Ella H. Ellis, 73, of Evanston, Ill., and Edward P. Fox, 76, of Albany, Ore., exhibited a marriage license.

They were sweethearts when they attended Wheaton college together in 1868 and became engaged then, but Mr. Fox left to finish a college career at the University of Michigan. Then he went west. They drifted apart until both married others. The wife of Mr. Fox died two years ago. When he came east and called on his old sweetheart while passing through Chicago, he learned that her husband, John Ellis, a Congregational minister, had died 13 years ago.

Old memories were rapidly recalled and other events forgotten. "There's nothing half so sweet as life as love's young dream," quoted Mrs. Ellis as they planned their honeymoon.

PADEREWSKI WILL OPPOSE PILSUDSKI

Warsaw, Sept. 19.—(By The Associated Press)—The presidential contest in Poland in November apparently will be between Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, the present chief of state, and Ignace J. Paderewski. The candidacy of Paderewski has been announced by the national democrats and the party of former Premier Skulski in disregard of the pianist's declaration that he had retired from politics.

The Pilsudski candidacy is sponsored by the peasant party, led by former Premier Witos and by the socialists.

Paderewski has several times recently crated his decision that he has retired from politics. At last reports he is in Switzerland practicing assiduously in preparation for his concert tour in the United States to begin in November.
