

BARMESEQUE MONK LEADER WILD OVATION

Mandalay, Burma, Sept. 20.—Mandalay gave the greatest ovation in its history recently to U Ottama, the Burmese monk and nationalist leader...

The city went wild for Mandalay. At the railroad station U Ottama was placed in a palanquin and carried through the streets. Eight thousand monks and 50,000 people lined the way to greet him.

U Ottama was called upon to make an address. He dwelt upon the country's national aspirations. "There has come a distinct change in the mentality of the Burmese people," he said.

"We are born in an age of new world-awakening. We are nurtured in new ideals. Let us take courage in our hands, and with a will and determination spring into the fire of patriotism and our road is clear before us."

AutoCamp News

Forty-two camps were made at the auto park last night. Twenty-five of the number were layovers from previous registrations while the remaining seventeen were here for the first time.

SCHOOL BILL PROPAGANDA

tant that the active agitators for the school bill are not the Scottish Rite Masons, or any other branch of that order, but the Ku Klux Klan in its many guises, and that the idealistic arguments once advanced in support of the bill are giving way to unadulterated anti-Catholic tommyrot.

Appeal to Prejudice The "organization" behind the school bill is not greatly concerned with idealistic aspects of the measure it champions. The high brow appeal directed at the discriminating voter is to be publicly voiced by the silver tongues of Charlie Hall and Walter Pierce.

tained in a fanatic religious appeal is evidenced by its methods. With the same absurd tales of Catholic atrocities and conspiracies to a super-control of the government in the name of the pope, the propagandists for the school bill are appealing to the ignorant and uneducated elements of the electorate to "rise up and kill the threat of Catholic domination." For every economic, commercial, or political ill the Catholics and their "plots to overthrow the government" are blamed.

In every community in the state the campaign for the school bill is being waged along these lines. Once his religious passions have been aroused the inspired voter becomes a promising candidate for the nightshirt brigade, or one of its auxiliaries.

HALL LEADER KICKED OUT AS G. O. P. CHAIRMAN

Hillsboro, Or., Sept. 20.—At a meeting of the republican county central committee of Washington county here Tuesday, called for the purpose of meeting with Walter L. Tooze Jr., republican state chairman, the committee unanimously adopted a resolution severely censuring M. J. George, county chairman, for his action in serving as secretary of the Pythian hall meeting of September 9, which placed Charles Hall in nomination as an independent candidate, and declaring the office of chairman of the Washington county committee vacant.

The written resignation of George as chairman was in the hands of L. McConnell, the secretary. The committee, however, refused to accept the resignation, preferring to kick the erstwhile chairman out bodily. The resolution was adopted with a noisy demonstration. M. P. Cady of Hillsboro was unanimously elected chairman to fill the vacancy caused by George's retirement.

Republican nominee Baker, for county commissioner of Washington county, withdrew as a candidate and the county central committee nominated Frank Livermore of Beaverton to make the race as the republican nominee.

State Chairman Tooze paid a high tribute to Thomas H. Tongue Jr., former state chairman, and then launched an attack upon independent party movements, independent candidates, and other non-partisan attempts to disrupt the two great political parties of the day. He pleaded for better organization and party solidarity. The plan of organization which Tooze has installed for the republican party in every county of the state thus far visited was adopted by the Washington county committee, and will be put into effect at once. C. E. Ingalls, secretary of the republican state central committee, also was present.

AGED NEWLY-WEDS TO LIVE IN OREGON

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Ella H. Ellis, 73 years old, widow of Evanston, today was busy with her plans for her marriage to Edward F. Fox, 76, of Albany, Ore., who was her college sweetheart. She said last night that the wedding had been delayed but that it would take place one day this week.

It was in the days when the Gray family lived on a farm near Wheaton, Ill., now a suburb of Chicago, that Mrs. Ellis and Fox attended Wheaton college. School days over, they became separated and each married another. Death made each of them lonely and sometime ago Mr. Fox sought out Mrs. Ellis and "love's young dream" was revived. Their plans became public a few days ago.

The plan to live in Oregon after the marriage.

Making 20 Years of Racing Serve Car Owners Today

IN the early days of automobile contests, Barney Oldfield—out to win every race—studied tires. His consistent success led other drivers to ask for tires constructed to his specifications.

Twenty years of road and track victories—with a steady and increasing demand for tires as he built them—convinced Barney Oldfield that these speed tests pointed the way to a better tire for everyday use.

The enthusiastic reception of Oldfield Cords by the public proved he was right. Scores of the most prominent dealers in the country—and many thousands of car owners, experienced in the use of tires—bear witness by their decided preference that Oldfield is doing a bigger and better job of tire making.
