Wedding of Interest Is Solemnized

Walla Walla, Wash., Sept. 20. (Special.)—Miss Harriet Broughton, second daughter of Mrs. Charles J. Broughton of Dayton, and Clarence Bishop of Portland were married in the presence of the families and a few lifelong friends of the couple. Rev. W. C. Gilmore of the Congregational church of Dayton read the service. The bride was attended by her sisters, Misses Helen and Frances Broughton, and Mr. Bishop was accompanied by his brother, C. R. Bishop of Pendleton.

A wedding reception was given at the Broughton home following the ceremony, about 200 guests attending. The couple will spend their honeymoon at Victoria and will be at home after November 1 at the Ambassador apartments at Portland.

In the receiving line at the reception with Mrs. Broughton and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem, parents of Mr. Bishop; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broughton, Jr.; Misses Helen and Frances Broughton and C. R. Bishop of Pendleton. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. A. A. Monnett, Mrs. W. A. Frary and Mrs. Edward Davis of Dayton and Mrs. Clarence Guernsey of Portland.

Mrs. F. W. Guernsey of Portland poured coffee. Mrs. E. H. Van Patten served ices and cakes were served by Mrs. Gilbert Harvey, Mrs. Merle Gillis and Miss Ernestine Peabody.

Among the out of town guests not previously mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Honeyman and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spencer of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Kleinstick of Kalamazoo, Mich., Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Croup of Fort Bayard, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bendiz, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Williams and Mrs. Wilhelmina Crawford of Walla Walla and Carl Gabrielson of Salem.

The bride is a native of Dayton. She is a graduate of Annie Wright seminary of Tacoma and of Smith college. She is a director of the Broughton National bank.

Mr. Bishop is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is president of the woolen mills at Washougal and Eureka, Cal., and vice president of the woolen mill at Pendleton.

On Tuesday evening the Writers club met with Miss Renka Swart for their regular meeting, and had a very interesting literary program. Special guests for the evening were Miss Elsiebeth Schultz and Miss Garfield. The program was largely comprised of poems, original poems by Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Miss Audred Bunch, Mrs. Elmer Ross and Mrs. W. F. Fargo. Mrs. Edna Bailey read a scenario of about three hundred words that she has written. Then the members of the society discussed the story written by Mrs. Elmer Ross "Phebe Baxter's Confession" which appeared in the October issue of "True Confessions." The story was first edited in a trade publication.

Mrs. George H. Burnett and Mrs. Paul Hauser will go to Portland tomorrow to attend the reception tomorrow evening at the Pythian hall honoring William Boon, grand sentinel of the grand chapter of the order of the Eastern Star. Mr. Boon is a very prominent musician. Mrs. Hauser is grand Esther, and Mrs. Burnett grand patron of the order of the Eastern Star in Oregon.

The Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow, Friday afternoon, in the church parlors for the first meeting of the fall. There will be an interesting program and the committee in charge is, chairman, Mrs. Weller; Mrs. Altman, Mrs. Gillon, Mrs. Hager, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Siegmund and Mrs. Wohlrick.

Mrs. Helen Southwick left today for Des Moines, Iowa, where she will attend the convention of the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans as the delegate from the local chapter here. She will meet Mrs. Clara Scholt, department president of Oregon, at Hood River and the two will make the trip together.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Farrar and D. Farrar and son John Herbert of San Francisco, left this morning for Pendleton where they will attend the annual round up in that city.

Mr. Farrar and his son have been visiting here for about a month.

Mrs. C. E. Cashatt and niece, went to Cottage Grove Marjorie Knox, spent a few days in Portland last week and then for the week end. Dr. Cashatt and Mrs. Ipha Knox motored there Saturday evening and the party returned home Sunday.

Miss Margaret Griffith and Milton Steiner motored to Eugene yesterday to spend the day. They will both return the first of the week to enter school at the University of Oregon.

University Engagement Announced

From the Pied Piper tea room yesterday tiny golden bugles were the means by which word went forth of the engagement of Esther Parounagian and Ralph Barnes, both popular in university circles and among the younger set in Salem. The bugles containing music scores were passed to the guests during the tea hour, and told of the engagement.

Gorgeous varied colored fall blossoms formed the background for this attractive tea, to which Miss Parounagian had bidden her friends, many of them Willamette university girls. She is a senior at Willamette this year and is living at the Beta Chi house of which she is a member. Miss Parounagian is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. B. Parounagian of Forest Grove.

Ralph Barnes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes and a graduate of Willamette university in last years class. He was very prominent in athletics and in all university activities. This year Mr. Barnes is attending Harvard university, having left sometime ago for New Haven to take up his work there.

The guest list for the tea included quite largely sorority sisters of Miss Parounagian: Miss Ruth Barnes, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Miss Odell Savage, Miss Anna Lavender, Miss Margaret McDaniel, Miss Margaret Legge, Miss Elaine Oberg, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Pauline Rickli, Miss Mable Davies, Miss Caroline Staiger, Miss Jennelle Vandevort, Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Winifred St. Clair, Miss Alma Wells, Miss Wilma Spence, Miss Phyllis Palmer, Miss Carol Cheney, Miss Dorothy Owen, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Lola Millard, Mrs. Paul Morse and Miss Mary Jane Albert.

Attractive Tea Honors Guests Here

Matrons and maids were bidden yesterday afternoon to the home of Mrs. S. W. Thompson for an informal tea honoring Mrs. W. C. Kiltz of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Louise Thompson. Mrs. Kiltz will be here with her husband until next week while Miss Thompson will remain in Salem for some time. The rooms were very prettily decorated with pink roses and a lovely basket of them centered the tea table over which Mrs. Louis Lachmund presided.

Assisting the hostess in the dining room were, Mrs. Curtis Cross and Mrs. W. Connel Dyer. The guests who came during the hour set for the tea were: Mrs. W. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Max Hofer, Mrs. Lawrence Hofer, Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Ben Olcott, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Earl C. Flegel, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, Mrs. Jim Lynn, Mrs. Victor Mackenzie, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Ansel Bush, Mrs. Frederick Thielson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Catherine Carson, Misses Dorothy and Helen Pearce, Miss Eunice Craig, Miss Mary Chadwick.

First elimination round matches in the women's championship at the Portland Golf club Tuesday found the favorites running in form. Mrs. Ercei Kay of Salem, ex-Oregon state champion and low medalist in the qualifying round Monday, defeated Mrs. Jack Yates, 5 up and 3.—Oregonian.

Miss Laura Ross and Miss Lucille Ross have returned from a trip in the east, which they started about the first of August. Laura Ross will resume her work in the music department of Willamette university and Lucille Ross has gone to Roseburg where she will teach in the high school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Abrahams of San Francisco who have been visiting friends here for the past few days, left Wednesday for New York where they will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Fasching are rejoicing over the birth of a baby boy, Tuesday September 19, to be named Ray A. Junior. This is the Faschings second child, Nona Maxine having been born in Alaska two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevely of Stayton have moved into the William Fleming house where they will stay until Mrs. Fleming returns from California where she is visiting her daughter, Ruth who is doing library work there.

Miss Estelle Grette who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clayton Jones, has returned to her home in Portland.
