Convention At Eugene October 25 Visitor Is Honored By Afternoon

Mrs. J. F. Hill of the Oregon Parent-Teachers association has issued a call for the forthcoming annual convention to be held in Eugene and the Eugene chapter has sent an invitation for the Salem association to participate in the convention. At the next meeting of the association here which will be October 17, the plan for sending delegates will be discussed.

Mrs. Hill in her announcement says:

"The Oregon Parent-Teachers association calls its affiliated circles, through their delegates, to meet in convention on October 25-28, 1922, at Eugene, a 1 1/2 round trip fare on the certificate plan, contingent upon 150 tickets being sold. Delegates are to pay the regular fare going, ask for receipt and, if the required number is sold, pay half fare returning.

"Each affiliated circle of 10 members or less shall be represented by its president, or her appointee, and one delegate for each additional 10 members. All members of the state board and past presidents have all privileges of the convention."

A splendid program is being prepared and plans are being made to care for the delegates while in Eugene. Several matters of importance will come up at this meeting and all organizations are urged to send a representative, especially the weaker ones.

In the presence of just a few relatives and friends Elma E. Grimm and Austin H. Wilson were quietly married Tuesday afternoon at the First Congregational parsonage by Rev. W. C. Kautner.

Miss Grimm is employed by the Metropolitan Life insurance company, and Mr. Wilson is employed in the Capital ice and cold storage company. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are well known in Salem where they have lived for some time and after a short wedding trip to Portland they will make their home at 530 Union street.

Pledging of the girls entering the university of Oregon this fall took place yesterday at the different sorority houses and among the list of pledges of the Kappa Kappa Gamma house is Catherine Slade of Salem. Miss Slade entered the university for the first time this fall and is a very well known and popular girl in Salem.

Mrs. Glenn Norris and baby, Luree of Idaho were guests for a few days of Mrs. L. J. Chapin. Mrs. Norris returned Tuesday morning to Dallas where she is visiting with her parents.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson will entertain the Woman's alliance of the Unitarian church at her home at 1971 Market street on this Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Jennie Muscott of Portland left Sunday evening for her home after visiting with her sister Mrs. L. J. Chapin.

Distinctly autumn was the background of vivid, varied colored zinnias, dahlias and autumn foliage arranged in lovely art baskets and vases about the rooms of the B. L. Steeves home yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Steeves was hostess for the first of a series of informal afternoons honoring her house guest Mrs. Ernest Morse of Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. Morse has been in Salem since August and will remain until the last of this month.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained with solos by Miss Jennelle Vandevort, accompanied by Miss Josephine Brose, and with readings by Mrs. Ronald Glover and Miss Pauline Findley. The clever entertainers were greatly appreciated by the guests.

Matrons who assisted Mrs. Steeves throughout the afternoon were, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. Paul Morse, Mrs. F. A. Legge, Mrs. J. B. Little, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Ronald Glover and Mrs. Laban Steeves.

The guests bidden to meet Mrs. Morse were Mrs. J. D. McCormack, Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. Duvall Jackson of Portland, Mrs. R. R. Jones, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Pauline Josse, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, Mrs. J. A. Baker, Mrs. Almira Hale, Mrs. B. C. Carrier, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. Clemens, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. F. A. Legge, Mrs. Kenneth Legge, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. Walter C. Winslow, Mrs. O. E. Price, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. J. B. Little, Mrs. E. C. Hickman, Mrs. F. Shank, Mrs. Laban Steeves of Dallas, Mrs. Paul Morse, Miss Frances Richards, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. J. T. Hunt, Mrs. J. A. Mills, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. E. E. Underhill, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. B. E. Blatchford, Mrs. E. J. Swafford, Mrs. Lloyd Swafford, Mrs. Breyman Boise and Mrs. R. E. Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stevenson of Portland were the week end guests of Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Stevenson were classmates at the University of Oregon and graduated in the class of 1896.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman motored to Portland to spend the day at the invitation of one of the Portland specialists, who wished to discuss with Dr. Saurman a paper which will be read at the meeting of the Portland medical association sometime in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stevenson of Portland were the week end guests of Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Stevenson were classmates at the University of Oregon and graduated in the class of 1896.

Oak Grove, Oct. 4.—The community gathering at Oak Grove on Saturday evening, September 30, under the management of the Ladies Aid was a success from a musical standpoint as well as socially and financially.

No pains had been spared by the social committee in charge of details in the matter of decoration. The tans, browns and mahogany tints of wood work, walls and furniture, harmonizing in a wonderfully artistic way, with the elaborate arrangement of the greens, yellows, reds and browns of the wealth of autumn leaves in Indian art baskets, and the jardineres of dahlias, gold and maroon, asters and other autumn blooms also, as well as crimson shaded candles being utilized.

A reception sufficiently informal to be enjoyable passed the time from eight until nine o'clock. The attractively arranged tables. Coming events on the W. C. T. U. calendar names the convention at McMinnville from October 10 to 14 as the date of prime importance and the Salem association will be well represented at the sessions there. Beside the women who have been appointed as delegates others may make the trip to attend the last part of the meetings.

Officially Miss Mattie Beatty, Mrs. Ida Ross, Mrs. Mary Lafollette, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, Mrs. S. G. Oliver, county president of the association and Mrs. L. J. Nunn, local president, will represent this W. C. T. U. at McMinnville.

The regular meeting was held yesterday afternoon and outside of routine business the discussion of Sunday observance laws occupied the major portion of the time. An interesting program is being planned at the convention with many live problems and topics of the day assigned for discussion to able speakers.

Among the attractive events of the week was the party yesterday when Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mrs. William Cravatt were joint hostesses for a bridge party at the Canfield home. The rooms were brightened with great baskets of zinnias, chiefly in brilliant red and yellow shades. Six tables of bridge were played, Mrs. H. L. Stiff winning high score, and the prize.

Matrons who were bidden for the afternoon were, Mesdames Elmer Daus, C. A. Vibbert, E. C. Quinn, P. E. Fullerton, F. G. Brock, Sr., F. G. Brock, Jr., Lou Aldrich, O. L. Fisher, Earl Fisher, Phil Holmes, K. B. Kugel, E. A. Kurtz, U. S. Page, C. N. Inman, C. M. Sims, Charles Knowland, E. L. Kapphahn, C. L. Patton, L. W. Gleason, Roma Hunter, Fred Ellis, H. L. Stiff, W. I. Needham, O. A. Olson, Clyde Johnson, Harley White, David Wright and Miss Bess Anderson.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman motored to Portland to spend the day at the invitation of one of the Portland specialists, who wished to discuss with Dr. Saurman a paper which will be read at the meeting of the Portland medical association sometime in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stevenson of Portland were the week end guests of Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Stevenson were classmates at the University of Oregon and graduated in the class of 1896.

Reception Is Held For Minister

About two hundred people gathered at the First Methodist church last night to honor Reverend and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick as they remain in Salem to enter upon their fourth year of work with the church. The reception was sponsored by the women of the general aid of the church, formally greeted the pastor and his wife at the beginning of the church year.

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney presided at the program and introduced the speakers and entertainers. On the musical part of the program Mrs. Edwin Socolofsky, accompanied by Miss Kathleen La Raut sang two songs, and Miss Louise Findley and Leonard Chadwick gave a piano and violin duet. A. A. Lee, president of the official board, commented upon the harmonious relations between the board and the pastor and his wife for the past three years, while Dr. M. C. Findley, new chairman of the board, was unable to be present and say anything regarding the new work to be begun.

Mrs. J. W. Beckley, president of the general aid, told something of the family life of the church during the time that the Kirkpatricks have been here and her remarks were received with great approval by the audience.

Sheldon Sackett representing the Sunday school as its superintendent told something of the plans for the year, and was introduced by President Doney as the "youngest Sunday school superintendent in all schools as large as this one in the United States."

Miss Mildred Strevey represented the Epworth League in the absence of the president, Miss Esther McCracken, who was called away by the illness of her sister. Before short responses by both Reverend and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Dr. Doney told of the sincere harmony which has existed between the university and the church and the splendid cooperation in their work.

Miss Joy Turner has as "her house guests for two weeks her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Turner of Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Turner are also visiting an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Inman, and grandmother, Mrs. F. E. Inman.

in the rear of the church, where home made candles were sold being constantly patronized. Add from "America" the opening number, until "Good Night, Ladies," at the end of the program, offered in the songs selected, a wide range in style and sentiment being sympathetically accompanied by Mrs. Irene Lewis Rowland, pianist. Soloists for the occasion were Messrs. J. W. Orr and W. S. Bartlett. "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold" was sung with fine interpretation by Mr. Orr, who responded to the demand for a second, with "Smilin' Through," accompanied by his daughter, Miss Orr, whose work was above criticism.

Palo Tost's "Good-bye," sung by Mr. Bartlett was followed by Jamecink's "Only a Smile," as an encore, Mrs. Rowland accompanying.

To continue to belong to the national and state federation of music teachers associations and to aid in federating the small local music clubs throughout the state were the main points in the discussion led by Lillian Jeffreys Petri, president of the Oregon state federation of music clubs at a meeting of the local association last night. These suggestions were adopted by the club and will be acted upon in the future business affairs of the club. The members of the association were entertained last night at the home of Frank Spencer and after the business session was over a social evening was spent and refreshments were served late in the evening.
