ARMY FLYERS STAY IN AIR RECORD TIME

All Former Endurance Marks Bettered by Aviators Circling Over San Diego in Plane.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 6.—Shortly before 11 o'clock this morning Lieutenants MacReady and Kelly, flying the army monoplane T-2 in an endurance record flight, dropped a note on Rockwell field stating that the airplane was performing perfectly and they would remain in the air until their gasoline and oil are exhausted.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 6.—All aviation endurance records have been smashed by Lieutenants John MacReady and Oakley Kelly of the United States army, who at 5:30 o'clock this morning had been aloft in their big monoplane T-2 for 25 hours and 34 minutes.

The best previous endurance record was made by Eddie Stinson, who remained aloft 26 hours 19 minutes and 35 seconds.

In Air More Than Day. MacReady and Kelly began their record flight at 5:56 o'clock yesterday morning, when they started from Rockwell field on what was intended to be a non-stop flight from San Diego to New York city.

Conditions Ideal. Flying conditions all yesterday were ideal and the same was true last night with but little wind blowing and the moon shining brightly.

STRANGLER OF DERNIER FOUN POLICE BELIEVE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 6.—The arrest of a "prominent Arizona business man" as the stranger of Guy N. Dernier, club man of Phoenix and Los Angeles, whose body was floating in an irrigation ditch on the outskirts of Phoenix several weeks ago, is to be expected, according to F. M. Bell, deputy sheriff of the Arizona capital.

According to the officers, Dernier, before returning to Phoenix from Los Angeles three months ago, confided to a friend here: "If I return to Phoenix and see a certain woman there, I will be killed."

The officer stated Dernier had kept a diary in which appeared the names of 22 women, all wealthy and all except one, who was a widow, married to men of prominence.

GOVERNOR IS HONOR GUEST

Olcott Addresses Crowd Of 4,000 People; Music Is Feature of Second Day's Program.

Dallas, Or., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Governor Ben Olcott, Secretary of State Kozser and Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, head of the Oregon state hospital at Salem, were among the guests at the Polk county fair here today.

Governor Olcott expressed himself as being highly pleased with the showing made by the various exhibitors. Today's program featured a concert by the McMinnville band, a vocal solo by Hallie Parrish Hinges and a speech by Governor Olcott.

The poultry show is among the attractions which is causing some comment. White leghorns, Rhode Island reds, barred rocks, white rocks, white wyandottes, buff wyandottes, white crested black polish, Japanese silkies and brown leghorns are exhibited.

Among the finest exhibits is that of Independence. It includes sunflower stalks 14 feet high with flowers 20 inches in diameter, exceptionally fine grapes, other fruits and various kinds of vegetables.

Booths Attractive. Grange booths of Brush College and Mt. Pisgah, the county farmers' union, the Monmouth community exhibit, Oregon Grain company, the school booths and the Dallas exhibit.

Included in the amusement concessions are the dance hall, the daily roundup, merry-go-rounds and others. These are drawing large crowds. Fair officials declare that, although there may be fewer exhibits this year than during some fairs in the past the quality this year has never been approached in the past.

SUIT AGAINST JOURNAL IS DISMISSED BY COURT

The case of the Copic Service company against The Capital Journal, in which the company sought about $300 alleged due from The Journal, is no more. On motion of L. H. McMahon, attorney for the newspaper, an order by Circuit Judge Percy Kelly. The suit grew out of a contract drawn between The Journal and the Copic company on March 1, 1917. The newspaper contended that about one fourth of the matrix which the company had agreed to furnish never arrived and that many of those received previously had been used by other newspapers.

New Corporations. Articles of incorporation were filed here Thursday by the Merchants Holding company of Portland, capitalized at $200,000. A. L. Vazie, A. C. Ruby and George J. Perkins are the incorporators.

Arthur Plant, who for the past seven years has been in the floral business in Salem, is opening a retail store to be known as "Plant's Floral Shop" in the Nash salesrooms, 181 South Commercial street, across the street from the Bonesteel Motor company building, and will keep on hand at all times fresh cut flowers and potted plants in their seasons.

CONFERENCE AT MUDANIA IS RESUMED

Deadlock Reached But Delegates Hope to Find Basis for Settlement Agreeable To All.

Constantinople, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—The Kemalists in an ultimatum to the allies today, demanded the occupation of Thrace by 2:30 o'clock this afternoon but later extended the time limit to 6:30 o'clock this evening.

Constantinople, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—The resumption of the Mudania conference was postponed today until evening because replies had not been received from the allied governments to the latest Kemalist note.

The Kemalists have demanded that their troops should be allowed to enter eastern Thrace as soon as the Turkish administration is established and the allied control withdrawn, that is, within one month.

Constantinople, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—After conferring for most of the night with the high commissioners and military experts here, the allied generals this morning prepared to leave again for Mudania for a resumption of the armistice conference.

The result of the deliberations here was not announced. It was conceded that the situation was very serious, but it still was hoped that a basis for common agreement among the British, French and Italian delegations could be reached.

The warships bearing the allied delegates were scheduled to leave at noon, arriving at Mudania at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Timme's Divorce Case Is Abandoned

Mrs. Lizzie Timme of Salem has decided she doesn't want a divorce from her husband, E. C. Timme, local drayman. Her complaint yesterday was dismissed by Circuit Judge Percy Kelly on her own motion.

Mrs. Timme alleged desertion in her complaint filed March 23, but Mr. Timme, in his answer, charged his wife with various acts which served to make his life nothing but more burdensome. He alleged that, among other exhibitions of her "usual temperament" that:

She had torn the telephone from the wall. Pushed him down stairs. Pushed him off the seat of his truck. Chased him down an alley while he was in his bare feet. Tried to stick him in the face with a table fork. Went to his office, upset his desk and chairs and cursed his employees.

His wife, Mr. Timme set forth, was of strong, robust build, weighed between 200 and 250 pounds and "showed pugilistic inclinations not usually possessed by one of her sex."

Repeatedly, his answer said, she struck him with her hands and fists, and with stove wood and dishes.

Kemal Confident

Angora, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Mustapha Kemal Pasha has sent the following message to the people of Constantinople: "I offer greetings to my friends in Constantinople and hope soon to meet them personally. Peace will be concluded with the realization of our national aspirations."

Stillman Divorce Decree Is Sustained

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman and Baby Guy. (Right) Fred Beauvais.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Supreme Court Justice Morschauser today confirmed the referee's report in the Stillman divorce case and allowed Mrs. Anna U. Stillman, who defended the suit against her banker husband, costs in the case.

The report submitted to the court by Referee Daniel J. Gleason refused a divorce to James A. Stillman, exonerated Mrs. Stillman of charges of adultery with Fred Beauvais, an Indian guide, and affirmed the legitimacy of baby Guy Stillman.

BOOZE SALE ON FEDERAL SHIPS HELD ILLEGAL

Washington, Oct. 6.—Transportation or sale of alcoholic liquors on American ships whether private or government owned and on foreign vessels within three miles of the American coast was held illegal under the prohibition laws of the United States in an opinion rendered today by Attorney General Daugherty.

NATIONALS DRIVE HOYT OUT OF BOX

Yankees Downed, 3 to 0, By Brilliant Pitching of "Deacon" Scott, Who Was "Has Been."

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—The Giants played their ancient enemies, the Yankees with a coating of whitewash this afternoon and won their second victory over the American league champions by a score of three to nothing.

"Deacon" John Scott, resurrected and rejuvenated after all the major league clubs had regarded his pitching arm as ruined beyond repair, stood out there on the hurling hill and made the Yankees look foolish. He had speed, guile, mixed with a fine curve. Hoyt pitched a loose game for the Yankees.

Ruth and Groh Tilt. The dramatic feature of the game aside from the come back of the "has been" was the tilt between Babe Ruth and Heinie Groh, the Giant's third sacker in the fourth inning. Ruth got to first when Scott's pitch struck him. Pipp struck out. Ruth tried to go to third when Frisch booted Bob Meusel's hard poke, but Groh was waiting for him at the bag. The Babe turned sidewise and bumped his shoulder against Groh, spilling him. The players began to argue and Groh advanced to strike Ruth, but Empire Hill-brand stepped between them.

After that Ruth was greeted with mingled cheers and boos from the crowd with the boos making the most noise. Ruth later tried to explain to Groh how the incident happened but the Giant player did not care to listen.

The official attendance and receipts for the third game which follow, show a new gate receipt record for a single day: Paid attendance 37,986. Receipts $122,354. Players' share $62,400.54. Each club's share $20,800.18. Commissioners' share $18,353.10.

First Inning. Yankees—Witt up. Scott took Witt's effort and threw him out at first. Dugan up. Dugan hit a high fly to Young. Ruth up. Frisch tossed out Ruth at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Giants—Bancroft up. Hoyt took Bancroft's bunt and beat him to the bag. Groh up. Groh singled into right field. Frisch up. Frisch singled over second, Groh going to the middle bag. Meusel up. Meusel lined out to Ward, who doubled Frisch at first with a quick throw to Pipp. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Second Inning. Yankees—Pipp singled sharply into right field. Meusel up. Meusel fouled out to Kelly. Schang up. Schang flied out to Cunningham. Ward up. Pipp stole second. Bancroft threw Ward out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Giants—Young up. Young lifted a high fly into left field for a single and when he tried to stretch it was out, Meusel to Ward. Kelly up. Scott threw out Kelly at first. Cunningham up. Cunningham got a single into right. Smith up. Smith forced Cunningham, Ward to Scott. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning. Yankees—Scott up. Scott flied out to Young. Hoyt up. Frisch took Hoyt's hopper and threw him out. Witt up. Witt walked.
