

RAIN QUENCHES FOREST FIRES

Cobalt, Ont., Oct. 6.—A heavy rain today had virtually quenched the forest fires about the city which took a toll of possibly sixty lives and wiped out the town of Halleyburg and several smaller settlements.

Thirty three bodies have been recovered in the scarred wreckage that a week ago was Halleyburg. Many more persons are missing.

NOTICE OF REVIEW AND EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENT ROLL

The State Tax Commission will sit as a board of equalization at the Capital in Salem, Oregon, on the third Monday of October, 1922, and publicly examine the assessments made by the assessor, and review the same, and correct all errors in valuation, description, quantities or qualities of property by it assessed and in apportionments of assessments made by it; and it shall be the duty of the persons and companies interested to appear at the time and place appointed. Petitions or applications for the reduction or change of apportionment of a particular assessment shall be made in writing, verified by the oath of the applicant, its president, secretary, managing agent or attorney in fact, and be filed with the Commission during the first week it is by law required to be in session, and any petition or application not so made, verified and filed shall not be considered or acted upon.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned was, on the 28th day of September, 1922, by the county court of Marion county, Oregon, duly appointed administrator of the estate of G. J. Ward, deceased, and has duly qualified as such. All persons having any claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same, duly verified, to the undersigned at room 306 United States National bank bldg., Salem, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

Dated this 29th day of September, 1922.

CHARLES A. WARD,
Administrator of the estate of G. J. Ward, deceased.

STATEMENT of the Ownership, management, circulation, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Of the Capital Journal published daily at Salem, Oregon, for October 1, 1922.

State of Oregon, county of Marion, ss.

Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared G. Putnam, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Capital Journal and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
 - Publisher G. Putnam, Salem, Or.
 - Editor G. Putnam, Salem, Or.
 - Managing editor Harry N. Crain, Salem, Or.
 - Business manager H. N. Yockey, Salem, Or.
2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.)
 - G. Putnam, Salem, Or.
 - Mary M. Putnam, Salem, Or.
 - H. N. Yockey, Salem, Or.
 - Capital Journal Printing Co., Salem, Or.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state.)
 - Title and Trust Co., Portland, Or., trustee for bond holders not of record.
4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and that affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.
5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 666. (This information is required from daily publications only.)

G. PUTNAM,
Notary Public for Oregon, residing at Salem. My commission expires Nov. 12, 1923.

Total distribution as shown in statement issued April 1, 1922, 5517.
