Society Mrs. Randall Is Honored By Friends

Mrs. B. T. Randall who will leave soon for her new home in Pendleton will be the inspiration for several parties this week sponsored by friends who are very sorry to have Mrs. Randall leave Salem. Yesterday she was the honor guest at a one o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. E. A. Colony and Mrs. Gunnder were joint hostesses at the formers home.

The luncheon table was well set in its Halloween decorations with a suggestion of mysticism carried out in the customary black cats, broom sticks, and fantom ladies. Covers were laid for twelve guests, neighborhood friends of Mrs. Randall's. During the afternoon the hours passed with conversation and sewing.

This afternoon Mrs. M. C. Findley and Mrs. James McClellan will entertain the Naomi circle of which Mrs. Randall is a member, in her honor. No definite date has been set for Mrs. Randall's departure to Pendleton but it will be in the very near future.

Mrs. Clarence Townsend planned a birthday surprise party for her sister Mrs. R. F. Peters Monday night and the guests surprised Mrs. Peters at her home. The home was very attractive in red dahlias and bowls of autumn flowers. Five hundred was played during the evening after which Mrs. Townsend assisted by Mrs. Perry Hubbard served a delicious lunch. The guests invited were, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bright, Mr. and Mrs. B. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Catterman, Miss Genevieve Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. O. Catterman and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters.

Mrs. W. W. Holgate and Mrs. R. H. Huston returned yesterday from Salem, where they motored several days on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Knight Peary and family. Mrs. Holgate is the owner of the newest model of the "Elizabeth" car, as she calls it, decided she had mastered the art of driving sufficiently to steer the thug to Salem and, with Mrs. Huston along to offer encouragement, managed to reach there without the slightest mishap. Detours along the road are rather unpleasant at present and the two women returned via Independence—Corvallis Gazette Times.

University of Oregon, Eugene.—With Bernice Altstock, Portland, presiding, the woman's league of the University of Oregon held its first meeting of the year in Villard Thursday, Deau Elizabeth Fox gave an address of welcome to the new girls and explained the "big sister idea" and the Oregon traditional "hello" custom. Miriam Schwartz, Salem, told of the coming drive for the foreign scholarship fund. The university point system was also discussed.

The missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church will meet at Mrs. J. Bertelson's, 110 west Lettelle street at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon instead of the regular day, Wednesday. Prior to this the missionary society has embraced both the foreign and domestic work, but at this meeting a foreign society will be organized with the assistance of Mrs. M. P. Paroungian, who is district president of the society. All of the ladies of the church are urged to attend this meeting Thursday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears will be glad to know of the birth of a baby daughter, Tuesday morning. The daughter will be named Sybil Russell Spears.

PUBLIC SCHOOL Vote 314 x Yes

The purpose of the compulsory public school attendance bill is to insure the instruction of the Oregon children of grammar school age in common language, a common history and common ideals, to the end that American unity shall be promoted, American ideals safeguarded and American institutions perpetuated.

This bill is proposed because its supporters believe that only by universal education of our children on standard and uniform lines can these things be achieved.

This bill proposes no religious restrictions. It contemplates no violation of the right of the parent to teach religion to his child in his own way and according to his own belief. It raises no issue of religious difference.

This bill is purely a measure to insure that all children by attending the public schools shall be taught alike during their grammar school years, so that their outlook may grow to be a unified outlook for the common weal and for their country and its institutions.

To make an all-American nation we must have all-American education of our children along recognized standard lines. Ignorance, American ideals and institutions and language is the greatest foe to them, because those who do not understand them properly do not support them.

Audience Approves Of Artist

Certainly a strikingly beautiful woman, a winning personality and with a voice powerful in its dramatic and lyrical quality Cyrena Van Gordon, prima donna mezzo contralto, last night charmed her audience of Salem people at the armory. But until the last number "The Valkyrie Cry," Wagner, did her audience fully realize the dramatic power and superb vocal quality of her voice.

The portrayal of Brunnhilde, the super-maid favorite of the god Wotan is a vocal ordeal which tests the greatest singers and last night Miss Van Gordon met the test easily and triumphantly. The strength of her voice fairly vibrated throughout the armory as she dramatized the battle cry of the maid Brunnhilde standing in her shining armor as she left for battle.

Her program permitted a range of interpretations and in Lorraine Lorraine Loree, Miss Van Gordon was equally masterful in her portrayal of the mother pleading for her child, and then in the mingled expressions of wrath and anguish as the mother was about to die. "The Old Road" with its lyric swing was especially pleasing to the audience as were several of her encores, more familiar and sung with a sense of personal response. "Comin' Thru the Rye," is an old favorite with a thousand interpretations, "Lift Up Thine Eyes" and "Lindy Lou" were charming in their distinctive qualities.

The audience was appreciative throughout the program which was well selected, but her last number "The Valkyrie," which was sung at the request of certain Salem people who had heard her in grand opera was undoubtedly the climax of the program and the number which left no doubt in the mind of those who heard her as to her ability as an opera singer. Miss Van Gordon is one of the countries staunchest advocates of American opera sung by American singers, and well she might be when her own ability as an opera singer is so evident.

Miss Van Gordon will go from here directly to Chicago where she will join the Chicago Grand Opera company. Salem people were indeed fortunate to hear this artist which is the first of the three numbers in the Salem art series sponsored by Albert Gille and Edward Warren.

Mrs. George Robertson of Turner is here this week the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crawford.

NEW PHONOGRAPHS HALF PRICE Geo. C. Will closing old nationally advertised line of phonographs at half price. $1, down, $1 week up. See ad on page 3

Professor E. S. Hammond of the Kimball school of Theology, is giving a series of lectures or talks at the First Methodist church every Thursday evening which concern modern religious facts and fancies. He gave these lectures last year at the Leslie church and they were so well received that he was asked to repeat them this year at the first church. Two subjects have been given. Extreme views of inspiration, and Pre-Millennialism. The other subjects in the order in which they will be presented are, The International Bible Students association or Russellism; Seventh Day Adventism; Faith Healing; Extreme Views of Holiness; Pentecostal Mission, Apostolic Faith or Tongue Movement, Church of God; Christian Science, and Mormonism. The next lecture will be this Thursday evening in the church.

Mrs. C. A. Vibbert and Mrs. Fred Ellis were charming hostesses Monday for a day of bridge. In the afternoon tables were set for a number of women. The decorations were in the usual autumn shades, brilliant and effective. The high score went to Mrs. John R. Sites and second score to Mrs. William Cravatt.

In the evening the hostesses entertained with different tables of bridge with the high score going to Mrs. Paul Hauser, and Mr. Scott Page. William McGilchrist, Jr., received the consolation. The same decorations were carried out at both times.

A 12:30 luncheon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Hopkins yesterday made it possible for the women of the Junior Bazaar club of the Congregational church to spend a long afternoon in sewing for the bazaar which will probably be given in December. Assisting Mrs. Hopkins as hostesses were Miss Ethel Haasard, Mrs. William Mott, Miss Oda Chapman and Mrs. Hoffman.

Honoring Mrs. Monroe Gilbert who will leave next week to spend the winter in California the Modern Writers club met last night at the home of Mrs. Frank Barton. Miss Seeley, one of the high school teachers, was also a special guest. The program for the meeting included the first sketch Mrs. Gilbert ever wrote, "A Commuter's Life," part of a new story Mrs. Barton is writing, a one act play by Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross, a poem by Miss Audred Bunch "Sacrament," which has been accepted by the Lyric West a magazine published in Los Angeles, and a report of the Oregon Writers league dinner at the Hotel Benson last Sunday evening in Portland, by Miss Harding.

Several members of the organization are joining this league and it is expected that at their next meeting in two or three months there will be a large delegation from Salem present.

A real old fashioned spelling match helped to pass the social evening of the Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star which met last night in the Masonic rooms. Mrs. Charles McCarter won the prize for being the best speller. The decorations were in Halloween colors and autumn leaves.

Hostesses for the evening were, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Sarah Oliver, Mrs. William Turner, Mrs. Susan Carty, Mrs. R. F. Dillen and Mrs. Harrison.

Mrs. E. P. Schott and son, Harold of Sublimity are staying at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bernardi this week while Mrs. Schott recovers from a tonsil operation performed this week.

A formal, strictly uniformed affair will be the Cherrian dance to be given in the armory, October 31, with Halloween favors carried out in the decorations. Invitations to the affair have been sent to five organizations, the Rosarians of Portland, Prunarians, Vancouver, Berrians, Newberg; Huharians, Albany and Radiators, Eugene. The Cherrian council is in charge of the dance which promises to be an attractive social event.

Women who are interested in the luncheon Saturday of the A. O. U. W., should call either Miss Frances Richards at 1454, or Miss Pearce at 365, before tomorrow in order that some definite place may be arranged for the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fargo spent yesterday in Portland. Mrs. Fargo returned last night, while Mr. Fargo will remain for a few days.

Lack of Appetite

When Due to Indigestion, Acid, Sour, Bloating Stomach, Is Restored By a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals

When there is indigestion and the stomach does not seem to relish food it is a great mistake to starve or to use stimulants to force appetite. The best way is to soothe the stomach back to health by giving it the help it needs, the alkaline effect that arrests acidity, prevents gasiness, belching, sour risings, flatulence, pressure that seems to crowd the heart and such distresses due to indigestion. Chew one or two of the large, white tablets after eating, no water needed, and the stomach settles down to restful digestion, you feel eased and comfortable and you get the good of food. You now tackle pie, cheese, pickles, sausage or anything you like without fear as you have the means to prevent the distresses arising from indigestion. Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets today of any drugist. (adv)

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lary feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c
