They are presenting a wonderful three-act comedy drama "Easy Money," with specialties between the acts. Their show is put over with snap and vim all the way through and is full of laughs. This clever company will appear again tonight and tomorrow night

At the Liberty.

The picture at the Liberty, "My Old Kentucky Home," starring Monte Blue made a big hit with yesterday's audiences and it is a strong enuf feature, that it should pull capacity business on the three day run. A fine cast supports Clara Kimball Young, one of the finest emotional actresses on the screen comes to the Liberty Friday. Her vehicle is the Richard Washburn Child story "The Hands of Nara." Elliot Dexter is her leading man and whenever these two big stars work together a treat is in store for motion picture patrons.
