LEGION POST SUES FOR WAR FUND
 Falls City, Neb., Oct. 20.—Falls City Post No. 102, American Legion, today filed suit said to be the first of its nature in Nebraska, seeking to recover $2192, the unexpended portion of a $10,000 fund raised by local subscription during the world war for comfort of the home boys in camp.
 In its suit, the Legion post takes the position that it is entitled to the money, in that it is the only organization ministering to the comforts of ex-soldiers. The Red Cross local chapter contends that legal disposition can be made by any other than the National Red Cross headquarters.
 A recent poll of 500 citizens showed all in favor of turning the money to the Legion.

At the Bligh
 In a manner comparable to that of Max Figman and his cast, the Jack Essey Stock company last night presented to a packed house at the Bligh theater, "Nothing but the Truth."
 Salem theater goers declared the company's offering was of unusual excellence. The work of Guy Hickman, as Bob Bennett, was held to be exceptionally good.
 Other members of the cast are Jack Essey, Virginia Stanton, Channey Southern, Mae Forbs and Bert Hughes. The company will appear at the Bligh each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

At the Grand
 Harold Lloyd comes to the Grand Saturday and Sunday in the comedy, that many consider was the best laugh show he ever produced. It is "A Sailor Made Man." From start to finish it is absolutely a scream, everybody should see it and it is a picture that can be enjoyed two or three times. Two big features will be offered to the Grand theater patrons, aside from the Lloyd film.
At the Liberty
 How fake mediums work, making dupes of the unsuspecting persons who visit them to learn truths about themselves, is exposed in "The Hands of Nara," starring Clara Kimball Young, now at the Liberty theater. Richard Washburn Child, present ambassador to Italy, is the author.
At the Oregon
 Wonderful double exposure which reveals two men, identical in every detail of appearance, standing side by side, shaking hands and exchanging equipment is a striking token of the progressive photography emanating from the movies in "Sonny."
