

BONAR LAW ELECTED CHIEF OF UNIONISTS

London, Oct. 23.—(By Associated Press.)—Andrew Bonar Law was unanimously elected leader of the Unionist party at the party meeting held this afternoon.

London, Oct. 23.—(By Associated Press.)—Unless some unforeseen developments occur, Andrew Bonar Law will, before today ends, be prime minister of Great Britain.

The arrangements already reported for the conservative party meeting at the hotel Cecil stand and there is every reason to believe the proceedings will pass smoothly, with no opposition to the choice of Mr. Bonar Law as leader, which will give him power to accept the king's mandate.

Announcement of the composition of the new ministry and declaration of the program, may, according to late information, be deferred until Thursday, when also the dissolution of parliament is likely to be announced.

There is much perturbation in several quarters over the report that the elections are to be held on the fourteenth or fifteenth of November, instead of the eighteenth, which falls upon a Saturday.

Dissatisfaction on this point is particularly strong in labor circles, where it is maintained that if the polling is held on any day but Saturday many labor voters will be prevented from exercising their franchise. J. H. Thomas, head of the railway men, in a speech yesterday said fixing of the election for mid-week would be a "contemptible trick," and this view is apparently universal among the laborites, who see a plot to reduce the laborite vote.

GROUND BROKEN FOR BASEBALL COLLEGE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 23.—Ground has been broken at Burbank, a suburb, for what is said to be the first baseball school in history. The school, which will open its first term on January 10, will be known as the National College of Baseball.

The purpose of the school is to train young ball players in the fine points of the game, three months being required to finish the course. During the term the students will devote regular periods to intensive baseball practice and instruction.

Active instructors will be "Death Valley" Jim Scott, Sam Crawford, Frank "Cap" Dillon, George "Rube" Ellis, Walter Bolen, Gerry Downs, Jess Ordorf and Joe Wheeler. Frank L. Chance, former manager of the Chicago club of the National Baseball league, will be connected with the college in an advisory capacity.

CENTRE MAY PLAY CORNELL NEXT YEAR

New York, Oct. 23.—Centre College, which ended a three year engagement with Harvard Saturday by losing a gallant fight against the Crimson, may play either Cornell or Columbia in New York next fall.

Negotiations are understood to be under way for such a contest, which probably would be held in the new Yankee stadium.

Several colleges in New England also have shown a desire to book Centre since Harvard's agreement with Princeton and Yale to ban intercollegiate contests has prevented the Crimson from again signing up the Kentucky Collegians.

PIERCE STATES PLANS FOR CUTTING HIGH TAXATION

Portland, Or., Oct. 23.—Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee for governor, has issued a statement in which he outlines his plan for reducing taxation. It is in part as follows:

When I am governor I promise to advocate and demand economy in every department of state government, so that taxes will be reduced to the lowest possible point consistent with good government. To this end I will use the veto unsparingly.

One great difficulty today is that one-half the property of Oregon is exempt from taxation, the timber in the forest reserves being a conspicuous example. The only income from the reserves is the rentals from stockmen for grazing, of which 65 per cent goes into the federal treasury. I hold that, since no tax is derived from this vast body of timber, all the rentals from grazing privileges in the forest reserves should go into the treasury of Oregon to compensate for the vast body of taxable property held by the federal government out of taxation. As governor I would use the prestige of the office in a movement with other governors and delegations in congress to bring this about. This change would produce about $350,000 a year new revenue, thereby lessening to that amount the burden on property now taxed.

For Severance Tax. Practically one-third of the standing timber in the state of Oregon is in the forest reserves and pays no tax. Under the present law, this timber will be cut off, leaving blackened stumps of untaxable property, and be shipped out of Oregon without paying a dollar of tax to the state. Not only is Oregon being made poorer by the removal of this timber, but the natural beauty and scenery of the state is being marred. A severance tax collected as this timber is cut and shipped would be a large source of revenue. A big body of such timber is now contracted by the federal government to people from distant states, and it will be removed without paying any tax unless a severance tax is at once imposed. As governor I would do all in my power to levy such a tax on all timber taken from the forest reserves.

While one-half of the property of Oregon is exempt from taxation, much of the other half is paying little or no tax because it is invested in shares of stock, bonds and property hidden away from the assessor. This leaves but a part of the taxable property to bear the entire cost of government. This property which bears the terrific burden consists of farms, cattle, horses, city buildings and homes.

Other Methods Proposed. In Oregon we can relieve the property owners by collecting a large part of the cost of state government from: (1) a tax on net incomes; (2) a severance tax; (3) a tax on gross earnings of public service corporations. I favor such a program in this state under the guarantee that any tax derived from new sources shall not be used for increased expenditures, but to take some of the burden off those now bearing more than their just share of taxation.

WILSON TO PLOT BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 23.—Herbert Wilson, former evangelist, alleged mail robber and convicted murderer, who a few days ago led a break from the Los Angeles county jail, will continue "to plot and plan to gain his liberty," according to newspapermen.

"I long for my liberty, would risk my life for it and eventually expect to get it if I can do so without taking human life," he was quoted.

With Wilson in the break, which brought liberty for one day, were Adam Blaszyk, convicted murderer, and Guido Spignola, alleged Standard Oil company robber. Wilson is held in the county jail until the appellate court acts on his appeal. Blaszyk has been sent to San Quentin penitentiary to begin a life sentence. Spignola is awaiting trial.

SILVERTON MAN SUES BEND BOARD

Bend, Or., Oct. 23.—Paul C. King, legal counsel for Mark A. Paulson of Silverton, former principal of the Bend high school, has started suit against the Bend school district, asking payment of $2430 alleged due on Paulson's contract with the district, and in addition 6 per cent interest on this amount from June 2, 1922.

The complaint placed on file recites that the plaintiff was given a contract as principal at $270 a month by the school directors meeting on March 31, 1921. Paulson started the fall term on September 6, and on September 27 received notice of his dismissal on charges of insubordination and incompetency. These charges were based in the main on his alleged refusal to allow George Dewey to begin work as a high school instructor, and his alleged policy of non-interference when Frank H. Roelwell, discharged by the board as a teacher, continued to instruct.

The board confirmed its previous action, following a hearing given Paulson on October 18, and was sustained when the case was appealed to County School Superintendent J. Alton Thompson, the complaint sets forth. State Superintendent Churchill, however, reversed the board. Following this Paulson offered his services as principal to the district, but was refused.

LYMAN ABBOTT PREACHER-EDITOR PASSES AWAY

New York, Oct. 23.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor in chief of the Outlook, with which he has been associated nearly 40 years; clergyman, lawyer, author and successor to Henry Ward Beecher as pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, died Sunday. He would have been 87 next December. When the end came his four sons and two daughters were at the bedside.

Dr. Abbott was one of the most active leaders in many avenues of religious and civic thought in the United States. As preacher, editor, author and theologian he exhibited a quality of character which impressed itself on all who came in contact with him, a singular poise and serenity of spirit.

Before starting on what might be called his ministerial career, he, in collaboration with his brother, wrote two novels, "Cone-cut Comers" and "Matthew Caraby." His most important volumes are "The Result of Emancipation in the United States," "Old Testament Shadows of New Testament Truths," "A Layman's Story," "Dictionary of Religious Knowledge," "A Study in Human Nature," "The Theology of an Evolutionist," "The Evolution of Christianity," "Social Problems," and "Problems of Life."

Dr. Abbott was born in Roxbury, Mass., December 18, 1835. In 1857 he married Abby Frances Hamlin, who died in 1907. By her Dr. Abbott had six children, two of whom, Ernest H. and Lawrence F., were associated with him in the management of the Outlook.
