GRANT HI WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

A jubilee was held this morning at the Grant Junior High school in honor of the feat of their football eleven—winning the championship of the Salem Junior high schools for the first time in seven years by defeating the Washington Junior high aggregation by the score of 7-0.

The game was very evenly matched at all times and it was only after a spurt in the third quarter with Jones, quarter, and Montgomery, right half, carrying the ball, that the winners were able to put the ball across for the only touchdown of the game. Montgomery kicked goal, the ball going high and true.

Harold Richards, senior at Willamette University, is due for a great deal of praise for his work in forming a team which could work so well together when many of them had never had their hands on a football before entering the Junior high school. A week ago the Grant team defeated the team from the McKinley Junior high school by a similar score as Saturday's result.

The members of the championship team and their positions are: Fielding, re; Jones, rt; Davis, rg; Wietzel, c; Taylor lg; Lyons, lt; Kitchin, le; Jones, q; Montgomery, rh; R. Drager, lh; J. Drager, f.

BARBERS OF OLD MOST VERSATILE

London, Oct. 30.—A reminder of the survival of the ancient trade guilds in London, long after their members have ceased to have any connection with trades they ostensibly represent, is provided by the election of Sir Samuel G. Sheed as chairman of the company of Barbers for the ensuing year. Sir Samuel never was a barber, and if any of his ancestors ever were he has forgotten it. And the same is true of all the members of the company. But they are very proud of the old traditions which the company once maintained, and get together on stated occasions to eat a generous dinner, washed down with good wine, and listen to speeches about the gold old times.

The company is an ancient one. It was incorporated in 1461, and 50 years later an act was passed which prevented any persons not members of the company from practicing surgery within seven miles of the city of London unless they had been licensed by the Bishop of London.

Barbers were versatile folk in those times, combining the vocations of surgeon and dentist with the work of trimming hair and beards.

Japanese Drug King Once a Gardner

H. Hoshino

Twenty years ago H. Hoshino, a Japanese, landed on the Pacific coast, with less than $100, and went to work as a truck gardener. He saved enough to go east and graduate, in 1901, from Columbia University, with a degree in economics. Returning to Japan, he entered the drug business and today is the drug king of the Island Kingdom, worth more than $9,000,000. He has just established a $1,500,000 institute in Meguro to provide free education to ambitious Japanese.

58 ARMY CAMPS TO BE SCRAPPED

Washington, D. C.—Fifty-eight army cantonments, flying fields and depots have been eliminated from the lists of military posts administered by the war department. Troops have been moved from them to permanent stations and the properties soon will be either sold at public auctions or turned over under revocable licenses to states which have applied for them for use of the national guard.

Closing of the various stations, the war department announced recently, was decided upon as a necessary step in the reorganization of the army and the reduction of its enlisted strength to 125,000 enlisted men. It also was explained that, in many instances, the buildings and temporary quarters which were occupied by troops during the war have deteriorated to a point where their maintenance is now prohibitive from a standpoint of economy.

Cantonments to be leased to states for use of the national guard include Camp Pike, Ark.; Camp Lee, Va.; Camp Jackson, S. C.; Camp Grant, Ill.; Camp Dodge, Iowa, and Camp Funston, Kan. Camps Kearney, Cal., and Sherman, Ohio, already have been turned over to the veterans' bureau.

The program of the department also calls for the abandonment of Forts Dade and De Soto, Fla.; Camp Shannon, N. M., and Camp Hidalgo, Tex.

MEXICO STOCKS GRAZING RANGE WITH GOOD BEEF

Chicago, Ill.—Introduction of pure bred American livestock for the rehabilitation of Mexican agriculture has begun in a systematic way, according to Guy H. Hall, director of the National Institute of Progressive Farming. B. F. Abbott, a representative of the Mexican auxiliary of the Livestock Registry associations of the United States at Mexico City, writes that Mexico is stocking her vast plains with purebreds, which probably will give Mexico a wealth greater than her mines and oil wells, and add to the world's food supply.

"Mexico is a potential market for American farm machinery, but in the matter of tractors there is an anomaly," said Mr. Abbott. "There are a number of tractors in Mexico—Pancho Villa has two—but it is costly to operate them. This is because the price of gasoline is so high. With the greatest oil fields in the world, Mexico is without refineries and gasoline is imported."

"Government officials pledged that custom house difficulties that the border would be eliminated and freight rates reduced on all purebreds coming in under sea guarantee of the registry association. This includes the acceptance of health certificate from American veterinarians."

F. W. Harding, secretary of the registry associations and president of the American Shorthorn Breeders' association, who is in active charge of the export field for the association, is optimistic over Mexico as a market for purebreds, tractors and farm machinery, and as a market for purebreds.

What's New on the Market

Sable fish, commonly known as black cod, is very plentiful at this time. It is selling at 15 cents a pound.

Ling cod is now practically off the market.

Florida grape fruit were selling this morning at 20 cents each or two for 35c. The Arizona grape fruit, appearing on the local markets today for the first time this year are selling at 15 cents each.

Fine kippered salmon is now to be had at some places for as little as 25 cents a pound, at others for 30. Many people do not use kippered salmon only as it is prepared when they buy it. A fine receipt for kippered salmon salad follows: Two cups kippered salmon, flaked, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 table spoon of onions if desired. A few capers may be added. Mix with mayonnaise, then make cups of lettuce leaves, fill with salad and garnish with mayonnaise.

A deserted house located near Brooks, about nine miles north of Salem on the Pacific highway, burned to the ground Sunday morning about 5 o'clock. It is thought that the fire was set from the cigarettes of a hobo. Several residents of the district say that they saw a light in the house about midnight. The idea is strengthened by the fact that a man tried at several of the homes in Brooks to get lodging but failed. The house was the property of George Ramp.

Twenty million bags a year but only a limited amount can qualify.

Practically every country of the tropical world grows coffee in amounts varying from a few bags up to many millions, with Brazil, Central America and Columbia standing first in order of importance.

High grade coffee is extremely scarce and out of this enormous production, only a very small percentage can pass the tests to which coffees are subjected before being purchased by Hills Bros. Yet none, if used alone, would be satisfactory to the taste of those who have become accustomed to Hills Bros. Coffee, for no single lot of coffee, however fine, is equal to a blend. Every coffee has some particular characteristic. It may have fine flavor, but be decidedly weak, or it may have heavy body but lack in flavor. Of course, there are hundreds of different types, and the combining of these many lots into one perfect coffee is the work of the coffee tester and blender.

This particular division of the coffee business is of the utmost importance, for here counts skill and knowledge that can be obtained in but one way—long years of study and experience. This particular division of Hills Bros. business is under charge of three experts whose combined years of service amount to nearly one hundred years. Their ability to develop fine flavored uniform blends is reflected in the cup of Hills Bros. Coffee served at your table.
