

BEARCATS, AGGIES, COUGARS, PACIFIC COLLEGE, BEATEN

Salem is prepared to doff its berby to Coach Roy Bohler and his Bearcat eleven which, after taking a seven to three lead in the third period against Whitman Saturday, lost by a narrow margin of nine to seven. Whitman scored the winning touchdown in the final quarter. Walla Walla outdid declared that the lighter Willamette string played brilliant football against their heavier opponents.

In Portland Saturday the Oregon Agricultural college machine fell by a score of six to nothing before the Winged M eleven. Indications were that the game would have been a scoreless tie had not Garber, Aggie quarter, displayed poor judgment in the last quarter by attempting to catch a punt of his own seven-yard line. From behind its own goal posts O. A. C. was forced to punt and the kick was blocked, Bartlett of Multnomah recovering.

Supporters of Pullman nearly wept tears Saturday afternoon when it was learned that the Cougars had been slaughtered by the California Bear by a score of 61 to 0. Coach Andy Smith used 34 men against the invading eleven and at no time were the Pullman men able to solve the terrible offensive of the Berkeley machine.

Twenty to nothing was the score by which Linfield college of McMinnville defeated Pacific college of Newberg. The game was played at McMinnville.

GOLF PLAYED IN GEORGIA OVER CENTURY AGO

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 6.—The members of the Golf club are requested to meet at the Exchange this evening at seven o'clock.

"November 25." Although modern in its phraseology, the foregoing invitation was issued more than 110 years ago by officers of the Savannah "Golf club." It appeared in the form of an advertisement in the Savannah Museum, a newspaper bearing the date of November 25, 1811, a copy of which has just been found in the files of the Savannah Historical society. Discovery followed newspaper and magazine discussions of the introduction of golf into the United States, which placed the date somewhere around 1860.

The location of the links of the "Golf club" is not known, and just what was the character of the game in the early days here is not recorded. The game then was to be developed to the point where newspaper readers demanded full details of the clash. But that golf was played in Savannah early in the eighteenth century is a fact and that it was played by Scotchmen is equally true. Descendants of officers of the club live here today and are among the prosperous and thrifty residents of Savannah.

What's New on the Market

The Cape Cod cranberries, said to be the best that the market can offer, are expected to appear on the market the latter part of the week. The price is not certain but it is thought that they will be around 25 cents a pound.

Chestnuts are very plentiful and may be purchased at from 20 to 25 cents a pound. Those who like these nuts would do well to buy their supply now and dry them so as to be sure to have them in good condition to keep. There is no object in waiting as the price will not change, it is said.

A few banana squashes appeared on the market this morning. They are said to be a very fine squash to bake. They are selling at three cents a pound. They are called banana squash because they are long for their size.

Oranges like lemons are high. They are selling at from 70 to 75 cents a dozen.

Small kippered herring were for sale at several of the meat shops this morning. They are selling at 25 cents a pound.

Election Interest At Fever Heat; City Polling Places Told

With interest at fever heat and a greater number of voters registered than ever before in the history of the state it is freely predicted that it will take at least 125,000 and probably more votes to elect Ben W. Olcott, or Walter M. Pierce governor of the state of Oregon at tomorrow's election.

There are 345,812 voters of all political faiths registered for the ballot of tomorrow and indications are that fully 75 per cent of this vote will be cast. Some enthusiastic depositors predict an 85 per cent vote. With party lines almost obliterated by the foreign issues that have been injected into the campaign there is little to be learned by a comparison of the strength of the various parties.

Early Voting Urged. The polling places will be open from 8 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night, but voters were urged by County Clerk Boyer today to do their voting early to avoid the rush and jam that is expected around the booths during the late afternoon and in the evening. The double counting board system will be utilized in most of the larger precincts, but under the statutes none of the results can be given out until after the polls close at 8 o'clock in the evening. Election officials will then be free to announce the result of the count as far as it has proceeded.

Mr. Boyer today urged upon all election officials to do everything they could in accordance with the law to aid the newspapers in gathering and compiling the returns. All native born or naturalized citizens of the United States or 21 years of age or over who have been residents of the state of Oregon for six months prior to November 7 are eligible to vote. If not registered they may be sworn in on the affidavits of two freeholders who are citizens.

Polling Places Listed. The voting places in Salem tomorrow will be: No. 1—United Brethren church, corner 17th and Nebraska. No. 2—First floor Bungalow church, Court and 17th. No. 3—Cameron's paint shop,

- 21st street, between Chemeketa and Center.
- No. 4—Swedish tabernacle, corner Mill and Fifteenth.
- No. 5—Richmond school.
- No. 6—Yew Park school.
- No. 7—Highland school.
- No. 8—Jason Lee church, corner Jefferson and Winter.
- No. 9—Baptist church, corner D and Cottage.

Was a "Bear Cat"

"My wife was never an angel, but after five years of liver and stomach trouble she became a 'bear cat.' No doctor or medicine helped her and we thought there was no help for her. Our grocer told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which had helped him for same trouble, so I brought home a bottle, but she promptly threw it out. I got it back and after a week coaxed her into taking it. She is now enjoying the best of health and disposition." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere. (adv)

DEMOCRATS TO WRITE IN GUMP FOR CONGRESS

Andy Gump, the candidate who wears "no man's collar" and goes to congress "100 Per Cent for the People," is to be the choice of the old line democrats for congressman from the first district of Oregon when they go to the polls tomorrow.

Throughout the district there is an organized movement among the democrats, supported by a sizeable portion of the dissatisfied republicans, who are going to write Andy's name in on their ballots tomorrow.

"Andy Gump has all the qualifications which precedent in this district seems to demand of a congressman and, in addition he is 100 per cent for the people," said Andy's local campaign manager this morning. "No man, not even the incumbent, could talk more and do less as our representative in Washington than Mr. Gump if elected. Considered in the light of his ability to accomplish the things traditionally demanded by the people of the first district of Oregon, our candidate would make an ideal congressman."

"Write in the name of Andy Gump, good people. It would be impossible for him to disappoint you if elected."

not financially able to donate their services. Other men and women of Oregon far less able than Walter Pierce to donate their services, did donate their services and also donated to the Red Cross and purchased Liberty bonds. Pierce's donation to the Red Cross consisted only of the amount he made Uncle Sam pay him for services performed, in other words he made Uncle Sam pay for his patriotic devotion to the great cause of the Red Cross. He should have donated his services on the board and also contributed liberally of his own and not Uncle Sam's funds to the splendid work of the American Red Cross if he had been possessed of the patriotism he should possess. The Red Cross and the American soldiers were working and fighting to protect his thousands of acres of Union county land, yet he made Uncle Sam pay his donation to the Red Cross. He had no moral right to accept pay as a member of the draft board in view of the president's proclamation and he was morally bound to support the work of the Red Cross.

Actually Gave Nothing.

"If this demagogic candidate for governor and his misled 'Fair Play' supporter feel that Pierce fulfilled his patriotic duty to his country in this manner, then there were thousands of patriotic Oregon citizens who did too much for their country. So far as I am concerned, if Pierce had donated his services as the president intended he should in view of his wealth, it would have been no more than might have been expected of him that he donate, in addition to his services, a considerable portion of the excess profits made from his wheat transactions to the work of the Red Cross and other patriotic movements.

"Let 'Fair Play' invite attention to the record of just one other citizen of Oregon who acted as Pierce acted and I will be willing to recede from the position I have taken. Pierce's whole public record has been one summed up in the few words, 'Get the Money.' Why don't 'Fair Play' sign his name? Is he ashamed of lending his name to his attempted justification of an unpatriotic act?"

Tooze Asked to Tell Truth.
"In your address at the armory last Friday night before 2000 per-sens or more, you made the statement that as a member of the draft board during the period of the war, Walter M. Pierce, democratic candidate for governor of Oregon accepted pay at the rate of $1.35 per hour for his services while sitting on this board. But you stopped right there. You wished to convey to, and leave the impression with, your audience that Walter Pierce accepted pay from the federal government for his services as a member of this board and put the money in his pocket. Why did you not go farther and tell the whole truth by saying that when Mr. Pierce got his check from the government he turned every dollar of it over to the Red Cross? That is the truth and you must have known it for the state press so reported at that time.

"More than this, the only boy of Mr. Pierce had enlisted in the service and served for two years in the American army overseas. Why not be honest, Mr. Tooze? The truth is much more becoming and nearly always more effective."
