

HALL ON VERGE OF CONDEMNING WALTER PIERCE

Portland, Nov. 6.—It is an open secret that Charles Hall, recent candidate for nomination in the republican primaries for governor, is disappointed with Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee. Mr. Hall was induced to withdraw as an independent candidate on the theory that Mr. Pierce was strongly to advocate the school bill, in which Mr. Hall had expressed deep interest and on which he made his primary campaign and had expected to make his campaign for governor.

Senator Hall returned to Marshfield Saturday without making the statement that was expected of him in connection with the gubernatorial contest. The Coos county senator was in Portland several days on business and politics and held conferences with his friends relative of a statement. Many of his counsellors took the position that Mr. Hall, in justice to himself, should call attention to the way Mr. Pierce has been acting on the school bill and that Senator Hall should urge republicans to remain with the party.

No Campaign is Made As there was some question as to Senator Hall's ability to get on the ballot as an independent and because there would be necessarily some court action in the matter, the senator thought it best to permit Mr. Pierce to make the campaign for the school bill alone.

Mr. Pierce came out publicly stating that he was for the bill and it was generally believed that this statement was made because of an understanding with Senator Hall—that he would make an active campaign for the school bill if the senator withdrew. Not only has Mr. Pierce neglected to keep his part of the bargain, but in various places where the school measure is supposed to be unpopular, he has boldly declared that it is not an issue at all because the only issue is the tax question. In other localities where the bill is supposed to have a large following Mr. Pierce has said he is for the bill.

Fears Radical Bent This unstable attitude of Mr. Pierce is not at all pleasing to Senator Hall and his personal following. Then, too, Charles Pierce, brother of the candidate, is reported to have been around in eastern Oregon telling ministers and others that Candidate Pierce is really not for the measure. In addition to the resentment Senator Hall feels with reference to Mr. Pierce's doubtful attitude on the school bill it is also known that he has expressed grave fears as to the effect on Oregon of the election of a man of Mr. Pierce's radical ideas to the office of governor.

NEBRASKA DEFEATED BY SYRACUSE 9 TO 6

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Syracuse University won a hard played game from Nebraska Saturday 9 to 6. The Orange had a slight edge on Nebraska throughout the game, although both elevens fought every inch of the way. Syracuse put over the winning score late in the fourth period on a series of steady drives through Nebraska's line which carried the ball from the 25 yard line over the goal line. A fumble gave Syracuse its chance and it was a fumble which led to a Nebraska touchdown previously.

DRAGGED TO DEATH BY GIANT DEVIL FISH

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 6.—Dragged from his rowboat by a giant devil fish which he had speared, Albert Garness, 19, of Sunrise Beach, lost his life in the swift waters of the narrows, near Gig Harbor, yesterday afternoon. The crew of a fishing trawl nearby saw the accident and spread a purse seine around the spot, recovering the lad's body within half an hour, but efforts at resuscitation failed. The fishermen who saw the tragedy state a devil fish was responsible.

VOTERS TO GO OVER TOP

been so manipulated as to make them almost a single issue—constitutional religious freedom and the continued separation of church and state, or intolerant regulation of religion and the unification of church with state. The school bill and the governorship are linked like this:

Olcott Against Bill. Ben W. Olcott against the compulsory school bill and for government by constituted authority

PNEUMONIA... VICKS VAPORUB... Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

In accordance with constitutional principles. Walter M. Pierce, for the compulsory school bill and in favor of sectarian domination of governmental affairs.

It is the age-old battle between tolerance and intolerance, fought under the guise of a religious issue. On one side are aligned the forces of secret, invisible government as represented in the leadership of the Ku Klux Klan; on the other the exponents of free representative government pledged to fundamental American ideals. Of party lines there is nothing to be said. They have been completely subordinated or swept aside by the intensity of the religious sentiment aroused, or corrupted by the meaningless tax reduction issue that has been coupled to the office of governor. Neither Pierce nor Olcott in the governor's chair could materially influence the trend of taxation except in a negative way by vetoing legislative attempts to increase the tax load. Either of them would be powerless to reduce taxes.

Contest Horse Race.

The contest for governor can truly be said to be a horse race with the possibility that it will require around 135,000 votes to elect and with Olcott's conservatism and business-like policies appealing most strongly to the balance of voting power that lies in the silent vote. The unexplainable undercurrent incident to every election of late years has been swinging strongly to Olcott during the past two weeks as the falsity and injustice of Pierce's attacks upon his administration have been disclosed one by one, and the appeal of radicalism to sentiment is rapidly being displaced by the logic of sound reasoning.

Characteristic resentment of American citizens to having their political thinking done by framers of "yellow" or any other brand of tickets will play a big part of deciding the election. Admission that the school bill will be defeated by a wide margin has already been made by the sponsors of the measure, who have been unable to keep their forces intact behind it. The only question incident to this measure is how decidedly will it be beaten. It is not expected to carry a single county in the state.

Other Issues Nil.

As to the other issues that will be on the ballot for Marion county electors tomorrow, there is little interest in any of them. Six of the eleven offices to be filled will go without opposition, and the contests for the remaining offices will be decisively in favor of the incumbents, who are all seeking re-election, so far as Marion county is concerned.

Both of the city charter amendments to be presented to the people of Salem are worthy of passage and should be adopted in the interest of good and efficient city government.

OREGON ELEVEN FAST ROUNDING INTO BEST TRIM

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 6.—(Special).—After playing five games in seven weeks Oregon's varsity football men enjoyed a breathing spell during the past week which was utilized by Coach Huntington in drilling his men for the Washington State game which will be played here next Saturday as a feature of the university's annual homecoming.

The rest came in good stead for it found the varsity squad in a crippled condition following the long hard early season schedule. The team went through those contests without losing a conference game but it was a crippled team which lined up in several of them.

During the past week the cripples have been returned to the team by Trainer Hayward, thus allowing Coach Huntington and Spellman to go forward with the work of forming the eleven they would have had weeks ago had it not been for injuries.

Oregon fans can look for a much stronger team November 11 than the one which defeated Whitman and Idaho, according to Coach Huntington. During the past week he has put the team through hard nights of training and in secret practices has built up new offensive system.

The hopes of the varsity were raised by the return of Bill Spear to active practice. Spear, one of the most promising candidates for an end position, was kept out of the Idaho game because of an eligibility technicality which has been removed.

Another bulwark of strength was added to the squad in the person of "Cogs" Campbell, husky tackle, whose technical ineligibility is expected to be cleared in time to play in the Washington State game. "Prink" Callison, two years man, center, and captain "Tiny" Shields, star guard and tackle, are back in their old position giving the line a stone wall appearance.

All backfield men are getting into better shape daily. Hunk Latham, lengthy fullback, is still being bothered by a twisted knee and while he will be in shape for the coming game he will probably not be in form to do the kicking.

LIBERTY SHIP YARD AT ALAMEDA FOR SALE

Alameda, Cal., Nov. 6.—The Liberty shipyard, one of the great properties acquired by the government for the turning out of ships to "bridge the Atlantic" during war times, is to be sold at auction November 14, according to advertisements appearing in San Francisco bay district papers today. The shipyard was acquired by the government at a cost of $324,000 for the land alone, which comprises 185 acres adjoining the present Bethlehem Shipbuilding company plant on the Alameda bay shore line.

The yard was but partly equipped when the war ended and did not turn out any ships. On August 8 an auction of the equipment and office fixtures was held and netted $150,000 to the government.

APPLE DISPLAY PRIZES GIVEN

First prize, consisting of $25, for the best apple window display during apple week, Oct. 30-Nov. 4, was awarded Saturday evening by the three judges, J. E. Stansbury, S. H. Van Trump and Lloyd Reynolds, to the Roth Grocery company, who had arranged an artistic showing of Stark's Delicious apples in boxes and showing them to advantage with a neat system of lighting. The display was arranged by L. H. Barnett and A. J. Englehart.

Second prize, $15, went to the People's Cash store. They had a smaller arrangement of fruit but a more complex display. A miniature doll was climbing a ladder to reach a limb heavily laden with the apples.

Third prize, $10, was awarded the Skaggs store on a small but nice arrangement of apples in boxes. The prizes were given by the Oregon Growers' association. Most of the apples were grown in Polk and Marion counties.

HARVARD VICTOR OVER FLORIDA BY 24 TO 0

Harvard Stadium, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press).—A Harvard football team, some of them regulars, some substitutes, scored 24 points on the University of Florida Saturday and held the southerners scoreless. In the early periods Florida's defense was broken down continually, but as the game wore on the southerners stiffened and at the close were playing their strongest game.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lasy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c
