

There is no substitute for CIRCULATION Daily average for October 6122. Member Audit Bureau of Circulation. Member Associated Press—Full leased wire service.

Capital Journal

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR NO. 265.

SALEM, OREGON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1922

PRICE TWO CENTS

ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

ELECTION BRINGS HEAVY VOTE ALL OVER COUNTRY

NATIONAL POLICIES TO BE EFFECTIVE

League of Nations, Tariff Prohibition and Next National Election Likely to be Affected Today

Washington, Nov. 7.—Four issues of outstanding significance are more or less involved in the United States elections taking place today. No decisions regarding those issues can be voiced in the voting, but politicians are looking to the results of the polling to indicate the popular trend.

May Enter League. Entry of the United States into the league of nations may follow any carrying of the congressional election for the democrats.

Prohibition Affected. The future of prohibition may be influenced to some extent by voting on state referendums.

OVER DOUBLE THE NUMBER
In the ten months ending October 31, 1922, The Capital Journal printed 35,969 paid in advance Want Ads—

RECOVER 63 BODIES FROM REILLY MINE

13 Men Bodies in Sight; 32 injured in Hospital Bring Total Accounted For Up to 108.

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—Thirteen additional bodies were taken from the mine of the Reilly Coal company here bringing the total dead recovered to 63.

FRANCE REACHES LIMIT OF PATIENCE
Paris, Nov. 7.—The French government appears to have reached the limit of its patience in dealing with the Turk and is tending more and more to stiffen its attitude toward the Ankara government.

HARDING TO HONOR GRAVE OF UNKNOWN
Washington, Nov. 7.—President Harding, Secretary of War Weeks and Secretary of the Navy Denby, with military escort, will go to the grave of the unknown soldier on Armistice day and leave a wreath there.

COOLIDGE FORCED TO WAIT BEFORE VOTING
Northampton, Mass., Nov. 7.—Vice-President Calvin Coolidge was obliged to wait five minutes before he could vote at the city hall today.

There's a Reason
And its because The Capital Journal ads pay.

HAS SHE SOLVED HALL-MILLS MURDER?

Here is Mrs. Jane Gibson and her mule, from which she claims she saw the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his wonder heart' choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, in New Brunswick, N. J. Some doubt of her story has been expressed.

2 Human Leg Bones Found Today Buried On Salem Property

Was there, many many years ago, a murder in Salem which never came to light? While excavating on the T. G. Bligh property, at the corner of Court and High streets, this morning, workers brought to the surface two human leg bones.

MISS ROBERTSON HAS HAD ENOUGH
Muskogee, Okla., Nov. 7.—As voters swarmed to the polls here today, Miss Alice Robertson of the second Oklahoma district, only woman member of congress, sat quietly at her desk at campaign headquarters.

SEATTLE MAN HEADS LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION
Portland, Or., Nov. 7.—Announcement was made today of the election of E. A. Stuart of Seattle, owner of the Hollywood stock farms, as president of the Pacific International Livestock exposition.

GREAT STORM EXPECTED FROM PACIFIC TODAY
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 7.—The great storm which is moving in from the north Pacific is expected to reach the mainland today, bringing showers from the Mexican line to Alaska.

TURKS WANT GREEK ISLES AEGEAN SEA

Mitylene and Chios to be Demanded by Kemal—Allies to Declare Martial Law.

Malta, Nov. 7.—Reliable sources declare it has been learned that further Turkish demands will be made at the Lausanne peace conference, namely that the Greek island of Mitylene and Chios, in the Aegean, off the Asiatic coast be given to Turkey.

KEMAL EXCITES POPULATION OF CONSTANTINOPLE
Constantinople, Nov. 7.—Constantinople is in a fever of apprehension over the Kemalists demands for the evacuation of the allied military and naval forces.

JOHN D. SUBMITS BEING PHOTOGRAPHED
New York, Nov. 7.—A newspaper photographer today prevailed upon J. D. Rockefeller Jr., to submit to a picture while he deposited his vote in the ballot box.

UNUSUALLY HEAVY VOTE
Portland, Or., Nov. 7.—Reports from polling places throughout Oregon and from other cities in the state, indicated that the vote was unusually heavy.

President to Issue Call for Special Session Congress November 20

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Harding expects to issue a call Thursday or Friday for a special session of congress convening November 20, it was announced today at the White House.

ALLEGED PLOT FOR PROTECTION WOMAN IN GRAY

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 7.—Investigation of reports of a plot to obstruct justice in the Hall-Mills murder case and to protect the murderers was under way today.

KEMAL EXCITES POPULATION OF CONSTANTINOPLE
Constantinople, Nov. 7.—Constantinople is in a fever of apprehension over the Kemalists demands for the evacuation of the allied military and naval forces.

STRAY PIG LEADS SHERIFF TO A CONCEALED STILL
Johnsen, Tenn., Nov. 7.—A stray pig, straggling down a cove on Higgins creek in Carter county, yesterday was followed by Sheriff Shelton and a deputy to a 40 gallon moonshine still where the porker had been getting his alcoholic swill.

HARDING TO APPOINT SUCCESSOR TO DAY
Washington, Nov. 7.—A successor to Associate Justice Day of the supreme court whose resignation becomes effective on November 14 will be nominated by President Harding as soon as congress assembles, it was said today at the White House.

LODGE LEADS FIRST COUNT IN BAY STATE

Republican Ticket Holding Its Vote of Year Ago—Cox in Lead of Fitzgerald.

Boston, Nov. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—The first returns from today's election came from the town of Mashpee. The vote for governor and senator was: Governor, Cox, republican, 52; Fitzgerald, democrat, 6.

WOMEN IN POLITICS MADE HIM VERY SICK
New York, Nov. 7.—"Women in politics make me sick," ruminated Eugene Komanski, dry goods merchant, as he surveyed the line of femininity in front of the polling place on upper Broadway.

TRAIN LOST TWO DAYS LOCATED BY WIRELESS
Casper, Wyo., Nov. 7.—Burlington passenger train No. 29, which left Denver for Billings last Saturday afternoon and was "lost" for two days while snowbound between Cheyenne and Wendover with all wires down, was scheduled to arrive in Casper this afternoon 56 hours late.

BRITISH TROOPS RETIRING
Constantinople, Nov. 7.—(By Associated Press.)—According to Turkish nationalist quarters the British foreign troops are retiring from Mosul, on the Tigris, in northern Mesopotamia and the Kemalists are entering the evacuated region.

33 PERCENT REGISTRATION CAST AT NOON

Total Balloting Expected To Reach 75 percent Mark—Many have To Be Sworn In.

With an approximate 33 per cent of the registered vote in the 18 Salem precincts cast up to the noon hour it was evident that the total balloting in today's election would run easily to the 75 percent mark that has been predicted, and probably more.

TEN UNION PACIFIC TRAINS ESCAPE DRIFTS
Ogden, Utah, Nov. 7.—Ten Union Pacific trains, blocked by winds and snow in Wyoming, arrived in Ogden today and departed for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

TWO FREEHOLDERS NEEDED
Provisions of the law requiring six freeholders to swear in the vote of an elector in counties having over 100,000 registered voters has resulted in some confusion locally.

ASSAULTED GIRL, IS FOUND INSANE
W. P. Thacker, said by police to have confessed to an assault on a 16-year-old Salem girl, was a former inmate of the state hospital for the insane and was returned there yesterday afternoon.